Engaging actions you're dealing with, sources you're dealing with. I think chapter six, I think, is one of my favorite ones when you're actually dealing with.
参与你正在处理的行动，你正在处理的资源。我认为第六章，是我最喜欢的一章，当你实际处理。

00:26
You know, I think that's more interesting, isn't it, but I guess when one is doing a study, you sort of lead up to the conceptual ability.
你知道，我认为这更有趣，不是吗，但我想当一个人在做一项研究时，你会引导到概念能力。

00:37
And then you can see how it plays out, you know, in the.
然后你可以看到它是如何发挥作用的，你知道，在。

00:41
Course, of course, by the way, I was hanging out with property.

和我保持，我不知道我的心是盆东。是的，住在这旧房子里感觉很好。

01:52
Like hotel and the pictures of Socano and all the groups of the Asia Africa Conference.
比如酒店和索卡诺的照片以及亚非会议的所有小组。

02:00
It's right there. But it made me think about, I was sort of reading the book as well, again, thinking about what we were reading it.
就在那儿。但这让我想到，我也在读这本书，再一次，思考我们在读什么。

02:09
And the and what is being preserved and memorialized, you know, as a tourist city, as part of its economy and so forth.
作为一个旅游城市，作为其经济的一部分，这些都被保存和纪念了。

02:18
It's an uncomfortable sort of relationship in a way, because.
在某种程度上，这是一种不舒服的关系，因为。

02:22
So global tourism is interested, perhaps in seeing as some of these heritage cities, the architecture and so forth, but history also includes the types of violence and stories that we're reading About.
所以全球旅游业很感兴趣，也许是去看看这些遗产城市，建筑等等，但历史也包括我们正在阅读的暴力和故事的类型。

02:36
Today. So, one, you know, wonders how you deal with that in terms of public history, in terms of.
今天。所以，你知道，你想知道你是如何从公共历史的角度来处理这个问题的。

02:42
I'm thinking about heritage.
我在考虑遗产。

02:44
And these complicated paths, and I think, in some ways, that's at the heart of.
这些复杂的路径，我认为，在某种程度上，这是。

02:50
Of stoler's work too is on the one hand, there are facts and narratives. On the other hand, there are absences and other alternative narratives that fall out of the archives.
斯托勒的作品也是一方面，有事实和叙述。另一方面，档案中也有缺失和其他不同的叙述。

03:03
Like everyone pronounces in bunk, is it bunk? What's the correct file? Sorry.
就像每个人在bunk里的发音一样，是bunk吗？正确的文件是什么？对不起。

03:11

You're saying more like a W than a because the W bitch is mid.
你说得更像W而不是a，因为W bitch在中间。

03:19
And a music, vague, vague, so far. So it's almost more like an F in English.
还有一种音乐，模糊，模糊，至今。所以它更像是英语中的F。

03:27
It means welcome for the.
意思是欢迎。

03:37
Okay.
好吧。

03:42
I always wonder, I mean, I'm actually thinking about, with the knowledge of Dutch, the terminology, that thing.
我一直在想，我的意思是，我实际上在想，用荷兰语的知识，术语，那东西。

03:51
Reference by and is can be also revealing too about her own intimacy, her own engagement of sources.
她的引用也可以揭示她自己的亲密关系，她自己对信息来源的参与。

04:00
That's why, as historians, if you are looking at the history.
这就是为什么，作为历史学家，如果你看历史。

04:06
Different communities and so forth around having access to the language of the sources that are absolutely important.
不同的社区等等能够接触到资源的语言是非常重要的。

04:14
So what I propose to do is just to go through the overview of the chapters again.
所以我想要做的就是把这些章节的概述再看一遍。

04:21
Just to make sure that we're on the same page, and they'll get into the discussion questions. And, of course, if you have.
只是为了确保我们在同一页上，他们会进入讨论问题。当然，如果你有。

04:26
Pushes along the way. By all means, we can jump in.
一路推挤。无论如何，我们可以加入。

04:30
Um, my own.
我自己的。

04:33
My only reading of.
我唯一的阅读。

04:36
Of the chapter.
这一章。

04:40
Again, it just sort of came out differently. But for the very first time I read the.
再一次，结果有点不同。但我第一次读到。

04:47
But some of the very obvious aspects can be taken away beyond.
但一些非常明显的方面可以被拿走。

04:53
You know, just the specifics of colonial, dutch.
你知道的，就是殖民地，荷兰的一些细节。

04:57
Indonesia, but it could be also related to the sort of work that you do.
印度尼西亚，但这也可能与你所做的工作有关。

05:03
No matter where the site is, I mean.
不管网站在哪里，我是说。

05:05
Her idea about looking beyond facts.
她关于超越事实的想法。

05:09
To related meanings? Did you guys have a sense of what you meant by related meanings?
到相关的意义？你们知道相关的意思是什么吗?

05:14
Ideas of late in meetings. I mean, especially the chapter when she's talking about photography. And.
会议后期的想法。我是说，尤其是她谈到摄影的那一章。和。

05:24
And the negatives. She was trying to use the metaphor of a like the enlightened shadow, the reversal. You know, when you take a picture, photo negative.
还有消极的一面。她试着用一个比喻像一个被照亮的影子，反转。你知道，当你拍照时，照片底片。

05:37
What is light becomes dark? What dark becomes light. And it's these sorts of ideas that it's used as a metaphor, used as a way, a visual way of thinking about.

什么是光明变成黑暗？黑暗变成光明。正是这些想法被用作隐喻，作为一种方式，一种视觉的思考方式。

05:48
How we might invert or think about sources, what we see on the page, on the text, on a page of sample documents.
我们如何颠倒或思考来源，我们在页面上看到的东西，在文本上，在一页样本文件上。

05:58
What if that's inverted, you know, and we actually want to look at what's in the background? So a document that might have scribbles and might have little notes that becomes foregrounded.
如果这是倒过来的呢，你知道，我们实际上想看看背景是什么？所以一份文件可能会有潦草的字迹，可能会有小笔记，成为前景。

06:08
Once you flip it. And the latent meanings are I read in reference also to the stories behind what's on the text.
一旦你翻转它。我读到的潜在含义是，也参考了文本背后的故事。

06:18
So in chapter four, while we're talking about the challenge of Europeans who are born.
所以在第四章中，当我们讨论出生的欧洲人的挑战时。

06:27
In in the Indies. How would you have been out so properly? Sorry about that, you're going to.
在印度群岛。你怎么能出去得这么整齐？很抱歉，你会的。

06:34
Yes.

是。

06:37
That's basically, it's the teacher. Translator is made of children.
基本上，它就是老师。翻译是由孩子组成的。

06:43
But in a way, is it more?
但在某种程度上，是不是更多?

06:47
Maybe it looks.
也许它看起来。

06:50
I can maybe offer a bit of etymology here, because inland isn't really used anymore in Dutch, but by its amount, is useful, but like, just means anything far out to like a foreign country. So Germany would be by its amount.
我可以在这里提供一些词源，因为inland这个词在荷兰语中已经不再使用了，但是从它的数量来看，它是有用的，意思是遥远的地方，比如外国。因此德国将按其数额来计算。

07:04
So by its long, been along inland. So that's how I kind of understand.
所以由它的长，沿内陆。这就是我的理解。

07:10
I don't know if that's per se, is sort of the actor, but that's, is a modern Dutch speaker. I mean, what's also interesting is, too it's a very idea, though, that the cat.
我不知道这是不是一个演员，但他是一个现代的荷兰语使用者。我的意思是，同样有趣的是这是一个非常有趣的想法，猫。

07:21

Or even the self came to mean different things. And that was precisely the challenge. I mean, it wasn't, it wasn't just folks who could have it explained.
甚至自我也有了不同的含义。这正是挑战所在。我的意思是，它不是，它不是只有人们可以解释它。

07:33
But it could also be European born in the islands, right? Which will.
但也可能是在岛上出生的欧洲人，对吧？这将。

07:39
Of course. I mean, another term of terms can be referenced.
当然可以。我的意思是，可以引用另一个术语的术语。

07:41
Using Indos, right? And you see this as other sorts of colonial contexts, too, about the different.
用印度语，对吧？你也可以把这看作是其他类型的殖民背景，关于不同的。

07:49
Communities that would emerge in the status of these communities.
在这些社区的地位中出现的社区。

07:54
And the latest meanings are, in a sense, the stories, or the meanings that are not obvious, but they are.
从某种意义上说，最新的意义是故事，或者是不明显的意义，但它们是。

08:03
Sort of circulating connected to a particular topic. So in this case, the latent meetings, it wasn't just about.
和某个特定话题相关的循环。所以在这种情况下，潜在的会面，不仅仅是关于。

08:14
What did we do about the education of these children? Actually had to do about other deeper social issues? And of course, that'd be interesting.

我们对这些孩子的教育做了什么？和其他更深层次的社会问题有什么关系吗？当然，这很有趣。

08:23
Hear what you guys came up with.
听听你们想出了什么。

08:24
And through the focus of these.
通过这些焦点。

08:28
Particular meanings. It's identifying what she talks about. Are these anxieties that she detects? These uncertainties, these ambiguities.
特定的含义。这是识别她所说的内容。她发现了这些焦虑吗？这些不确定性，这些模糊性。

08:39
That are there in the documents that are surrounding this question about.
这些都存在于围绕这个问题的文件中。

08:47
Who, in a sense, are Europeans in this?
从某种意义上说，谁是欧洲人？

08:52
Colonial context. How do we identify this? How do we explain the variation? Because in a colonial concept, it should be pretty obvious.
殖民背景。我们如何识别它？我们如何解释这种变化呢？因为在殖民概念中，这应该是很明显的。

09:01
But in real life, it's not actually So, for instance, even in the context of Singapore.

但在现实生活中，即使是在新加坡，情况也并非如此。

09:08
Just to bring it up as an example, I mean, the when someone brings up a term like X path.
举个例子，我的意思是，当有人提到像X路径这样的术语时。

09:17
What does that mean?
这是什么意思?

09:18
Who does it refer to, you know? Who doesn't it refer to, you know? And so you have these types of images that might not be set, like what she talks about, but everybody.
你知道它指的是谁吗？它不是指谁，你知道吗？所以你有这些类型的图像可能没有设置，就像她所说的，但是每个人。

09:32
You know, it's, this is.
你知道，这是。

09:34
Interesting categories that.
有趣的分类。

09:36
That come up. And I say, it's interesting in simple protocol that's just simpler. It's also, of course, colonial.
这个出现了。我说，简单协议很有趣，它更简单。当然，这也是殖民主义。

09:42
So it's also these instability of these colonial categories, european.
所以这也是这些欧洲殖民类别的不稳定性。

09:49
Born in dendities. But I would even argue that she's not talking to What about Chinese born in?
出生在牙齿上。但我甚至会说，她并不是在说。那中国出生的人呢?

09:55
You know, or those from South Asia or Indies. I mean, just like when we talk about another group, say that the sitcoms of the Singapore history from.
你知道，或者那些来自南亚或印度的人。我的意思是，就像当我们谈论另一个群体时，比如说新加坡历史上的情景喜剧。

10:05
Look on, right? How do we identify these groups? I think, at the very, sort of conventional perspective, straightforward in Chinese, of course, it's not just.
看着，好吗？我们如何识别这些群体？我认为，从传统的角度来看，用中文来说，这当然不是简单的。

10:13
Which I think is straight, formed a lot of different groups. You know, if you go to the wonderful museum, who was run by one of our former graduates. You'll see a guess sense of.
我认为是直的，形成了很多不同的群体。你知道，如果你去那个很棒的博物馆，它是由我们以前的一个毕业生经营的。你会看到一种猜测的感觉。

10:24
A variation what a term like bronco can make.
像野马这样的词能带来的变化。

10:29
For different groups. So it's not only how people perceive them, but also how they self identify.
针对不同的群体。所以不仅是人们如何看待他们，还有他们如何自我认同。

10:37

Is a very important aspect.
是一个非常重要的方面。

10:40
And these are perhaps, while she wants stolen, focuses on Europeans. You can probably look to ask the same questions.
虽然她希望被窃取，但这些可能是针对欧洲人的。你可能也会问同样的问题。

10:50
About.
有关。

10:52
Indians, south Asians, east Asians.
印度人、南亚人和东亚人。

10:57
West Asians, arabic communities that are coming through. And certainly.
西亚人，阿拉伯人社区。当然。

11:04
Within the region, and that's almost actually a way of also.
在这个地区，这几乎是一种方式。

11:11
Critiquing, in a sense, what are the absences in her work? You know?
从某种意义上说，她的作品中有什么缺失？你知道吗？

11:18
Um.
嗯。

11:18
Because, again, as we talked about last week, you know, we're sort of returning to the Europeans again, you know, as the focus, you know, the study and publicizing it, which is health, healthy. But, again, it also.

因为，正如我们上周所说的，我们又回到了欧洲人身上，你知道，作为焦点，你知道，研究和宣传，这是健康，健康。但是，它也。

11:30
As follow.
为遵循。

11:31
It reminds us. It also creates opportunities, but also have sense that's available.
它提醒我们。它也创造了机会，但也有可用的感觉。

11:42
So tomorrow, what's it?
明天是什么？

11:49
Interesting too, is how a more marginal or exceptional case can be in the archive, or in an example. Also depends, you know.
同样有趣的是，一个更边缘或例外的案例如何在存档或示例中出现。这也要看情况。

11:58
Or exposes with the rules of what is normative, you know, what's conventional? What is the story that we know? And oh, this is, oh, this is an exceptional case.
或者揭露什么是规范，什么是传统的规则？我们知道的故事是什么？哦，这是，哦，这是一个特例。

12:07
How do we know it's an exceptional case? Well, that's because all the other cases in the archive are this way. But then, as we start to critique the making of archives.

我们怎么知道这是个特例？那是因为档案里的其他案子都是这样的。但是，当我们开始批判档案的制作时。

12:16
Why or how is the norm in the archive created?
为什么或如何创建归档中的规范?

12:20
And how are the norms of what is considered the rules of what happens in society? How are they creative? So in this case, of course.
规范是如何被认为是社会中发生的事情的规则？他们怎么有创造力？在这种情况下，当然。

12:31
This is in reference also to what were the norms of how Europeans were understood. They certainly weren't understood to be more but there was clearly a case that was running.
这也涉及到如何理解欧洲人的标准。他们当然不会被理解为更多，但显然有一个案子正在进行中。

12:41
Throughout, you know, the economy. What do we do with poverty, as there's some other chapters also deal with. How do we do deal with the fact that?
你知道，整个经济。我们如何应对贫困，其他章节也会讲到。我们该如何处理这个事实?

12:53
There seems to be an overwhelming amount, although archives will also, numbers seem to be fiddled at times.
似乎有一个压倒性的数量，虽然档案也会，数字似乎有时被篡改。

13:03
How many folks who fall within this category of being vulnerable economic?

有多少人属于经济弱势群体?

13:10
Economically. And so how we determine what is marginal or what is exceptional also depends a lot, you know, on how we are.
在经济上。所以我们如何决定什么是边缘的，什么是例外的，也很大程度上取决于我们自己。

13:20
What the framing is, and asking who's doing, sort of, the frame, what is the sort of conventional narrative to your own work, you know. So whether, for those of you working on the Cold War.
框架是什么，问谁在做，框架，你自己的作品的传统叙事是什么，你知道。对于那些研究冷战的人来说。

13:29
You all are working on a conventional narrative of what is the Cold War already? Just from the get go, you know.
你们都在用一种传统的方式来描述什么是冷战？就从一开始，你知道的。

13:36
There is a sort of standard idea from a job.
一份工作有一种标准的想法。

13:41
Political context of what that framing is a question that might revise. You know, in the context of Southeast Asia, are the actors that you are involved in thinking about comic?
这个框架的政治背景是一个可以修改的问题。你知道，在东南亚的背景下，你所参与的演员都是喜剧演员吗?

13:50
War, I think, in fact, what do they call it? They called the Cold War. I'm doing this because I'm in the Cold War with somebody, right? I'm not sure it focused on the ground of thinking about that, you know.

战争，我想，事实上，他们怎么称呼它？他们称之为冷战。我这么做是因为我在和某人冷战，对吧？我不确定它是否专注于思考这个问题。

13:59
In those ways, and that gives you then an opportunity to look at the multiple ways in which.
在这些方面，这给了你一个机会去看看不同的方式。

14:05
We can think about their experiences and how they imagine that big thing.
我们可以想想他们的经历，以及他们是如何想象那些大事的。

14:11
What's interesting too, is how she talks about, you know, being able to detect where these latent meanings are, you know.
有趣的是，她是怎么说的，你知道，能够发现这些潜在的意义在哪里。

14:20
And she detects them because these things kept on coming up, it kept on repeatedly appearing, being referenced. And I started to think about my own work, and I was thinking, boy.
她发现了它们，因为这些东西不断出现，不断出现，被引用。我开始思考我自己的工作，我在想，天哪。

14:30
I could write a whole different book based on the same sources. And I hope, with the sources that you encounter with your folks were that you can also maybe think about.
我可以根据同样的资料写一本完全不同的书。我希望，通过你们与家人接触到的信息来源你们也可以思考。

14:40
You know, why am I seeing this term here so much? Or why they're always referring to this precedence in a particular history that it's also always related.

为什么我经常看到这个词？或者为什么他们总是在一个特定的历史中提到这个先例，它也总是相关的。

14:50
There's something going on there. Obviously, there's an issue, or there might be a phrase that's always attached to a particular community. As we read about in chapter six, there's always referencing to the Aceh War.
肯定有什么事在发生。很明显，有一个问题，或者可能有一个短语总是附属于一个特定的社区。正如我们在第六章中读到的，总是提到亚齐战争。

15:02
Right? And how? So it's being used as a way to explain the violence, you know, the plantations.
对吧?以及如何?所以它被用来解释种植园发生的暴力事件。

15:08
And so it's attuning to these repetitions that becomes.
因此，它与这些重复相协调，就变成了。

15:14
Important, so it might be a signal that officials would trouble.
这很重要，所以这可能是一个信号，表明官员们会找麻烦。

15:19
So one thing that we should be thinking about then is the places where the Colonial Archive appear least certain.
所以我们应该考虑的一件事是殖民档案最不确定的地方。

15:27
Can be a signal to where empower and knowledge was being constructed by colonial.
这是一个信号，告诉我们殖民者在哪里建立了权力和知识。

15:33
So in other words, when we start to say, let's see things where people were in the archives, or whether in the documents, where it seems as whether they're speculating or they're.

所以换句话说，当我们开始说，让我们看看人们在档案中做了什么，或者在文件中，他们看起来是在猜测还是。

15:44
You know, the, the way the story is being told seems kind of off. That's your point where you need to zoom in. That's when you need to.
你知道，这个故事被讲述的方式似乎有点不对劲。这就是你需要放大的点。那就是你需要的时候。

15:53
Increase your attentiveness, you know, as when you need to be hyper vigilant. Because those are probably moments that are going to be the most interesting to explore.
提高你的注意力，你知道，当你需要高度警惕的时候。因为这些可能是最值得探索的时刻。

16:04
More deeply.
更深入。

16:06
I will try to share because I don't want to talk about.
我会尽量分享，因为我不想谈论。

16:12
Myself. I mean, I want to show how these sort of influence shaped my work as a graduate student.
我自己。我的意思是，我想展示这些影响是如何影响我作为研究生的工作的。

16:17
And one of the, I think one of I that I already shared with you before was.
其中一个，我想我之前已经和你们分享过了。

16:21
When I noticed that everybody focused on a particular document.
当我注意到每个人都专注于一份特定的文件时。

16:26
As the start play.
随着比赛的开始。

16:29
Okay.
好吧。

16:32
Everyone who had focused on a particular event in the 1930.
每个人都关注过20世纪30年代的某件事。

16:38
It's all used the same document as the starting point. And then when I looked at it.
它都使用同一个文档作为起始点。然后当我看着它的时候。

16:44
It was clear that this wasn't a starting point. It was, in fact, the end point of a whole other cycle of documents. But so there was a problem there.
很明显，这不是一个起点。事实上，这是另一个文件循环的终点。但这里有个问题。

16:55
You know? And it seemed very uncertain. I was like, wait in this document. And also, they are drawing bits and pieces from previous documents, but why didn't anyone refer to them?
你知道吗?这似乎很不确定。我说，等等，在这个文件里。而且，他们从以前的文件中提取了一些零碎的东西，但为什么没有人提及它们?

17:04
So I knew I had something, I don't know, really know why, because I hadn't read this book yet at the time, and also that this book hadn't been written at the time, you know, but some of these ideas were already associated with.
所以我知道我有一些东西，我不知道，我真的知道为什么，因为我当时还没有读过这本书，而且这本书当时还没有写出来，你知道，但是其中一些想法已经和。

17:13
So I guess it's an appeal, or it's an invitation for you to be thinking about when you see something that doesn't make sense. That's your moment.
所以我猜这是一种呼吁，或者是一种邀请，当你看到一些不合理的东西时，去思考。那是属于你的时刻。

17:23
Any questions so far.
到目前为止有问题吗?

17:25
I feel like we're going to be moving very quickly. I only started to like your last time when you had some questions. I'm coming in, so no pressure. I think people will be moving.
我觉得我们要走得很快了。上次你提问题的时候我才开始喜欢你。我来了，别紧张。我想人们会搬家的。

17:42
Gone a little bit more quickly this evening, moving on to the fifth. Chapter five was really interesting in this sense, because, whereas, so, look, I also look, I skipped.
今晚走得更快了，接下来是第五节。在这个意义上，第五章真的很有趣，因为，看，我也看了，我跳过了。

17:53
Some other interesting aspects in the fourth chapter, but she talks about, she calls it the romances, right? The romance things, the different sort of.

在第四章中还有其他有趣的方面，但她说，她称之为浪漫，对吧？浪漫的东西，不同的那种。

18:02
Visions of how we might deal with these.
我们如何处理这些问题的设想。

18:07
Groups, you know, these groups of drivens, and this idea that maybe we can make them.
群体，你知道，这些驱动力的群体，还有这个想法，也许我们可以制造它们。

18:13
More European, or through an appeal to the countryside, because they weren't sure if they were skilled in sophomore of life. Maybe we can reprogram we can recondition.
更多的是欧洲人，或者通过对农村的呼吁，因为他们不确定自己在大二的生活中是否熟练。也许我们可以重新编程，重新调整。

18:24
I mean, social engineering was very much a part. And what's scary is still sometimes here add allusions to this type of.
我的意思是，社会工程是很重要的一部分。可怕的是有时这里还会有这种类型的典故。

18:33
You know, productivity, even when we talk about.
你知道，生产力，甚至当我们谈到。

18:36
Did I say skills, training or training, you know, the sort of, these sort of things that even the contemporary states will often talk about, you know when, you know when middle aged boomers like myself, need to.

我是说技能，培训还是培训，你知道，这些事情即使是当代国家也会经常谈论，你知道什么时候，你知道像我这样的中年婴儿潮一代，需要。

18:49
Change their career, you know, just this way of sort of engineering and how you do it. I mean, well, we'll go to Suss and get a new train.

啊,好吧。那么这个呢？所以当我们看殖民时期的文件时，你会看到文件中的所有信息以及信件的模子。

01:26:54

在文件的一边，你会看到一些注释，因为这些文件，他们会交给不同的官员，你知道，当他们通过等级制度时。

以同样的方式。所以如果你是一个档案，看看一百年后的档案，看看2026年的档案，看看政府档案。

01:32:41
And you see an official report in the government response to announcement of deep sea.
你可以在政府对深海计划的回应中看到一份官方报告。

01:54:58
This process, which is, this is more particular, actually, I think. So You guys were thinking about it in terms of.

事实上，这实际上是一项政策，你知道，这种连续性，你知道，一直在继续。

你知道，一个学习型社会，当它回到，就像在国家，他们总是说，你知道，我们需要更多的贸易技能，实际上，因为所有的制造业都消失了。

01:56:36
You know. And in some other countries, it's the same sort of discussion, you know, how do we improve the economic, you know, vitality?
你知道的。在其他一些国家，也有同样的讨论，你知道，我们如何改善经济，你知道，活力?

These questions of engineering.
这些工程问题。

01:56:47
That would be tested in this period.

01:56:50
So you guys wouldn't have around. It was also, like, that was also in response to uncertainty, right? Like, oh no, first, there's too many kids.
这样你们就不会有。这也是对不确定性的回应，对吧？比如，哦，不，首先，孩子太多了。

01:57:01
Like that was when it was like hope we sit again. The.
就像希望我们能再坐下来一样。这个。

01:57:04
Before that, when they had, oh, yes, sorry, this topic, too. And then it was like, oh, we don't have enough, so now we need more of it.

在最近的演讲中，对吧？演讲是可以的。对某代人来说7万是多少?

01:57:23
So interesting that this triggered, it's interesting that triggered a conversation to me about why. But let's go back to the text and.
有趣的是这引发了，有趣的是这引发了我关于为什么的对话。但是让我们回到课文。

01:57:39
Um, and maybe, and actually think about the question about, you know.
嗯，也许，想想这个问题，你知道。

01:57:47
What was the project?
这个项目是什么?

01:57:48
I don't know. Can I see it from this distance here? What was, I mean in terms of the topic?
我不知道。我能从这个距离看到它吗？我的意思是，就主题而言是什么?

01:57:57
You know why? And how did it open up this sort of questions about the social makeup? What was the question about society? That social makeup?
你知道为什么吗？它又是如何开启了这类关于社会构成的问题？关于社会的问题是什么？社会构成?

01:58:07
You know, what were the sort of key issues that one might have been considered embarrassing or dangerous? And the dangerous part, we didn't really talk about much about it. I mean, what was dangerous about this?
你知道，哪些关键问题可能会被认为是尴尬或危险的？而危险的部分，我们并没有谈论太多。我是说，这有什么危险的?

01:58:18
So I can talk maybe a little bit about Aqua News, maybe because you have, like, great stuff to say and be dangerous thing. So basically part of the reason is like trying to sort of group people and say, like, oh, this is this group. This is That.

所以我可以谈谈Aqua News，也许是因为你有很棒的东西要说，也有很危险的东西。所以基本上，部分原因就像试图把人们分组，然后说，哦，这就是这个群体。这就是那个。

01:58:30
And then you can, like, come up with policies that work very nicely in a controlled environment. Again. But the problem with some of these ambiguities and discomforts was that.
然后，你就可以想出在受控环境下很好地工作的政策。再一次。但这些模棱两可和不舒服的问题在于。

01:58:40
We're talking about kids of raised descent. And some of the people talking about this had kids that mixed raised descent because they had concubines. So a policy that would address this address their own families.
我们说的是有教养的孩子。有些人的孩子是混血儿因为他们有妻妾。因此，解决这个问题的政策是针对他们自己的家庭的。

01:58:51
And so there's like a lot of awkwardness about this.
所以这就有很多尴尬的地方。

01:58:55
And they also kind of make this assumption that the problem.
题目也做了这样的假设。

01:59:00
Of mixed race cause problems, but that it is a problem in the first weeks, or that, you know, the dutchmen in the colony are bad for having concubines. But then, actually, there's also the example of the soldiers, where some of the soldiers that are.
混血会引起问题，但这是在最初几周的问题，或者，你知道，殖民地的荷兰人不喜欢娶妾。但是，实际上，还有一个士兵的例子，其中一些士兵。

01:59:15
The worst are the ones that don't have concubines that go drinking and like, do all the horrible things, or are the ones that are, kind of stay bored, the ones that have a concubine and that have children, and kind of apparently.
最糟糕的是那些没有妃子的人喝酒，做所有可怕的事情，或者是那些无聊的人，那些有妃子有孩子的人，很明显。

01:59:27
Like they're and they're invested in And so there's like that sort of acronism discomfort of, like, hey, this affects us.
就像他们投入的一样，所以有一种缩略词的不适，就像，嘿，这影响了我们。

01:59:36
Like, directly. And there's like, that's Earth. And then I think what you said as well, like, about, you know, what to do with these kids? And, like, are they a danger, Right?
直接。这就是地球。然后我想起你说过的话，就像，你知道的，怎么处理这些孩子？他们有危险吗，对吧？

01:59:48
So I think one thing we're thinking about is that these kids, right, they're kind of all outside of the categories that the.
所以我认为我们要考虑的一件事是这些孩子，对，他们都不属于。

01:59:55
Your government already has established. So then, if they don't fall into these new countries, what do you do with them? The kind of policies that you create needs to be able to kind of manage them is their.
你们的政府已经成立了。那么，如果他们没有落入这些新国家，你该怎么办？你所创建的政策类型需要能够管理它们。

02:00:07

Different situations, whether it comes to teenagers education, which she kind of covers as well. So e.g., if they have to be sent back to be educated.
不同的情况，无论是涉及到青少年教育，她也涵盖了这一点。例如，如果他们必须被送回去接受教育。

02:00:18
It's, one way of looking at it is that you're kind of giving them a Western education to possibly come back the revolutions. Yes, that was the threat, wasn't it. They were worried about them politicizing and informing.
一种看待它的方式是，你给他们一种西方教育，可能会回到革命。是的，这就是威胁，不是吗。他们担心他们会政治化和传播信息。

02:00:32
A political group, because this was the case everywhere else, this was happening. And so there was a real concern, you know, how do you deal?
一个政治团体，因为这是其他地方的情况，这正在发生。所以这是一个真正的问题，你知道，你如何处理?

02:00:41
With a potential threat. So that's why she was saying, look, the archives and the documents are not just about what's happening in the past, but they reveal, sort of.
有潜在的威胁。所以这就是为什么她说，看，档案和文件不仅仅是关于过去发生的事情，而且它们揭示了，某种程度上。

02:00:50
Future, vacing, forward, looking, sort of goes into the, I think, a little bit of the second question too. I think a little bit as well. That's.
未来，腾空，向前看，展望，我想，这也是第二个问题的一部分。我认为也有一点。这是。

02:00:59
The types of statements are about these possibilities, these different futures that might happen. And there's like a risk assessment.
陈述的类型是关于这些可能性，这些可能发生的不同未来。这是一个风险评

估。

02:01:09
I don't know, essentially, but it was also, it was an affair of intimacy, though, too, because it's about families and.
我不知道，但这也是一种亲密关系，因为这是关于家庭和。

02:01:17
Children? And what do you do about this messy mess, which is a broader question, you know, also about, you know, how do states?
孩子吗?你该如何应对这种混乱，这是一个更广泛的问题，你知道，也是关于，你知道，国家如何?

02:01:27
Also managed these. And how intrusive do you go? And, of course, what was ironic was, you know, the later chapters, when they're talking about the commissions issuing the survey.
我也管理这些。你有多冒昧？当然，具有讽刺意味的是，在后面的章节中，他们谈到了委员会发布的调查报告。

02:01:37
There was pushback in the Europeans and saying, why are you getting into all this right? Even though it was supposing the language where it was very benign?
欧洲人对此表示反对，他们说，你们为什么要这么做呢？即使它是假设的语言，它是非常良性的?

02:01:46
They felt that it was very intrusive because it was also touching a raw.
他们觉得这很有侵犯性，因为这也触及了伤口。

02:01:50
Nerve, you know, or it was saying things that everyone knew, but just sort of kept quiet about it. You know, that's the colonial common sense, and that's what she's trying to get at. So the blur that we were talking about earlier.

勇气，你知道的，或者说它说的是大家都知道的事情，但只是保持沉默。你知道，这是殖民地的常识，这就是她想要表达的。所以我们之前说的模糊。

02:02:05
That was, is this idea of, what is the common sense that everybody knows, but is not necessarily written on paper?
这是大家都知道的常识，但不一定写在纸上?

02:02:14
That, can we recover that, as historians, that everyone knows this handy bank is going on. This is not a state in the archives, but is there enough to sort of reconstruct?
作为历史学家，我们是否可以恢复，每个人都知道这个便利的银行正在进行。这不是档案里的状态，但有足够的东西来重建吗?

02:02:25
You know, and find it. So, the political stuff. So what policy debates did the issue of the?
然后找到它。所以，政治的东西。那么什么政策辩论的问题?

02:02:33
In luxury can create.
在奢侈中可以创造。

02:02:38
Was the trade schools.
是职业学校。

02:02:43
It was kind of like students were kind of dropping out, or like they were forced to be And then.
就好像学生们都要退学，或者说是被迫退学，然后。

02:02:54

The state, kind of, like, kept talking about it and discussing, like, why, like, why had the school closed? But long after it closed, and then we found it.
州政府一直在讨论这件事，一直在讨论，为什么，为什么学校要关闭？但在关门很久之后，我们找到了它。

02:03:04
She finds, like, letters, and, like, I guess I can think about what year and how many different I mean, and, of course, there were issues about the funding in terms of funding went down. And then they would just, they would visit the policy.
她发现了一些信件，我想我能想到是哪一年，我指的是多少不同的年份，当然，还有资金方面的问题资金减少了。然后他们就会访问政策。

02:03:19
You know, ten years later, and then they would refer back to it, and you see the sort of development of the debate.
你知道，十年后，他们会重新提到它，你会看到辩论的发展。

02:03:27
Over the years. And that's where she starts talking about this recurring, the repeating, you know, in the archive, it's clearly something's going on underneath all this.
多年来。这就是她开始谈论这个循环的地方，重复的，你知道，在档案中，很明显在这一切的背后发生了什么。

02:03:38
It might be presented as a labor issue, you know, but actually it might have had something different, doesn't I mean, interesting. You guys brought up the whole idea as well.
你知道，这可能是一个劳工问题，但实际上它可能有一些不同的东西，我的意思是，有趣的东西。你们也提出了这个想法。

02:03:48
Singapore. But I suppose every country probably has these types of issues, you know, they're so embedded in society that.

新加坡。但是我想每个国家都可能有这类问题，你知道，它们在社会中根深蒂固。

02:03:58
Related to economy related to education related to.
与经济有关，与教育有关。

02:04:03
Public health, you know? But actually, underneath it is the border, is the.
公共卫生，你知道吗？但实际上，在边界下面是。

02:04:10
It's the messiness and.
这是混乱和。

02:04:12
And how people think about it, or the sort of common view of it. That's what she's trying to.
以及人们是如何看待它的，或者是对它的一种普遍看法。这就是她想做的。

02:04:19
Get a, get a And so I'm thinking about your earlier question about the blind spot and the blur.
得到a，得到a我在想你之前关于盲点和模糊的问题。

02:04:26
I guess that also relates to the disregard, you know, for the question five that. And actually, it wasn't sort of blind spots, actually. This was.
我想这也与漠视有关，你知道，对于第五个问题。实际上，这并不是什么盲点。这是。

02:04:37
So an intentional disregard, a strategic disregard to talk about it in a very opaque way.
所以这是一种有意的漠视，一种策略性的漠视，以一种非常不透明的方式谈

论它。

02:04:44
About ignorance in the last chapter. That's right. That's right. Possibly be ignorant about something else.
关于最后一章的无知。这是正确的。这是正确的。可能对别的事情一无所知。

02:04:50
It was clear as day, and.
很清楚，而且。

02:04:54
I mean, we can talk about contemporary times. It's a bit stuff to.
我是说，我们可以谈谈当代。这有点难。

02:05:00
Wholly, not intentional, but relevant.
完全，不是故意的，但是相关的。

02:05:07
Comes down to with sources and the way policies, because it's so clear, you know, that these things happen.
归结为资源和政策的方式，因为很明显，这些事情会发生。

02:05:15
Well done. Anything else to goes with that? Maybe, like, one side note is, like, the educational stuff. It's interesting because there's also a lot of that conversation happening in the deadline Section.
做得很好。还有什么要搭配的吗？也许，就像，一个侧面说明，就像，教育的东西。这很有趣，因为在截止日期部分也有很多这样的对话。

02:05:25
Same time, that's right. And it was like a really big political issue. So I kind of like, I have like four knowledge in that, but like that. I thought that was interesting. She doesn't really mention that so much.

同样的时间，没错。这就像是一个重大的政治问题。我有四种知识，就像这样。我觉得这很有趣。她不怎么提这个。

02:05:36
That is interesting is that, I mean, she refers to France and France dealing with some of these schools. And.
有趣的是，我的意思是，她提到了法国和法国处理一些这样的学校。和。

02:05:44
Because then the people were just wondering, what we're going to fix these poor kids and have them fend for herself? And they're like, in like, what was the?
因为那时人们就在想，我们要怎么解决这些可怜的孩子，让他们自己照顾自己？他们就像，就像，什么是？

02:05:54
What was I saying exactly? And I'll just throw them in the, you know, in the island. And, like, they figure out how to do agriculture. It's like return to the.
我到底在说什么？我会把它们扔到，你知道的，扔到岛上。然后，他们想出了如何做农业。就像回到了。

02:06:08
Return to our organic living and so forth. And he's like, you guys must be out of your minds. He said, you guys must be out of your mind.
回归我们的有机生活，等等。他说，你们肯定是疯了。他说，你们一定是疯了。

02:06:15
So that's interesting that there was debate going on, too. And then there's some, you know, fingers and speakers who are actually saying, oh, this is not, you know.
有趣的是，当时也有争论。然后有一些，你知道，手指和说话者实际上在说，哦，这不是，你知道。

02:06:23
Other colonial scholars have talked about also, look, the best of the writers, we're not in the empire.
其他殖民学者也谈到，看，最好的作家，我们不在帝国里。

02:06:30
And then we're certainly about the colonies.
然后我们当然会讲到殖民地。

02:06:32
And there was a sensitivity to that. The folks that were in the Colonial Service knew they weren't the best of the brides, and, but yet they were able to retire. Comeback.
这是很敏感的。那些在殖民地服役的人知道他们不是最好的新娘，但是，他们可以退休了。回归。

02:06:47
With amazing ridges. So there was this class thing going on between those at home and those abroad. And you often see the tensions between.
有着惊人的山脊。所以在国内和国外的人之间存在着阶级问题。你经常会看到两者之间的紧张关系。

02:06:57
Say, the home governments and the colonial governments, they're competing against each other too. And if you had a big empire like the British.
比如说，本土政府和殖民地政府，他们也在相互竞争。如果你有一个像英国这样的大帝国。

02:07:05
You have the Penang and Singapore, and yang's up Rangoon, you know, governments, you know, arguing with the Delhi government, you know. But they were all part of the same empire.
有槟城和新加坡，仰光，政府，你知道，你知道，和德里政府争论。但他们都是同一个帝国的一部分。

02:07:16
But they were all sort of trying to protect their access. And their, basically, like a side hustle that they were doing, essentially.
但他们都试图保护自己的访问权。基本上，他们在做一种副业。

02:07:23
To what's going on. And so when we think about colonism in those terms.
发生了什么。所以当我们想到殖民主义的时候。

02:07:28
It's difficult sometimes to engage the sympathy, right and the prejudice that we were talking about earlier in the lecture. Joseph, right.
有时候很难把我们之前讲过的同情，权利和偏见联系起来。约瑟夫。

02:07:40
Good guys. Anything else. I'm very comfortable sitting on the side of the room, so I'm going to stay here.
好人。其他东西。我坐在房间的一边很舒服，所以我要呆在这里。

02:07:47
This is where I usually just stay in classes back in the day.
这是我以前上课经常呆的地方。

02:07:54
But group two, you guys are asked to think about her overall approach.
但是第二组，你们被要求思考她的整体方法。

02:08:03
Manner, analytical technique and to reading these documents. So this is really to sort of bring out and flash out. What is there an analytical and interpretive approach to thinking about?
态度，分析技巧和阅读这些文件。所以这真的是一种带出和闪出。有什么分析和解释的方法来思考?

02:08:15
The in luxury can do? You guys are all Dutch speakers. How is that possible?
奢侈品能做什么？你们都说荷兰语。这怎么可能呢?

02:08:24
Fantastic. Explain how you can tell how bad my languages are in general. Explain how the source is about.
太棒了。解释一下你是如何判断我的语言有多糟糕的。解释来源是关于什么的。

02:08:33
Them are installer's view as much about the future. So this is what we were talking about earlier, right? As they are about the past. How is the generic concept, the paths not taken.
它们是安装者对未来的看法。这就是我们之前讨论过的，对吧？因为它们是关于过去的。如何是一般的概念，路径不采取。

02:08:45
That was my own term. That's why I did what's in generic with it, perhaps related to the way Stone interprets these archive documents, and how are photographs, these photographic negatives?
这是我自己的术语。这就是为什么我对它做了一般的处理，也许与斯通解释这些档案文件的方式有关，以及照片，这些摄影底片是怎样的?

02:08:57
A model for how she sort of envisions this conceptualization of the sources and what our colleagues might do. So what do you guys come up with? That's a tough question, because I throwing out all this conceptual and methodological stuff.
这是她如何设想这种资源概念化的模型以及我们的同事可能会做什么。你们想到了什么？这是一个很难回答的问题，因为我抛弃了所有这些概念和方法上的东西。

02:09:09

With the first question, and you have to answer you on the second question. So the first question I really don't actually approach with economical sense.
回答第一个问题，然后回答第二个问题。第一个问题我并没有从经济学的角度来考虑。

02:09:17
Okay. So electric functions is all of a set with two categories. One is about reach and port, and also for occupation wise.
好吧。所以电函数是由两类组成的集合。一个是关于到达和港口，还有关于职业的智慧。

02:09:27
So for the children with the in larger kindergarten, she actually taught in this page, hundred and 30.
对于更大的幼儿园的孩子，她在这一页上写着，130。

02:09:35
I quote unquote, by some account that, in nature, kindergarten were popularized whites, suburban soldiers. So innovation, you described them as popularized at poor soldiers.
我引用不引用的说法是，在本质上，幼儿园是由白人和郊区士兵组成的。你说的创新是在贫穷的士兵中普及的。

02:09:47
So there's two categories for this economic sense, but they are poor, and they are also this occupation of a soldier, which is a bit lower than the rich, and also not there. The artistic class association. Thought about this chapter from Yes, and the way that she Actually.
所以在经济意义上有两个类别，他们是穷人，他们也是士兵的职业，比富人低一点，也不在那里。艺术类协会。想到了《是》中的这一章，以及她实际上。

02:10:02
This chapter. She also emphasized a law of distress, talking about their class as soldiers for their past and their future.

这一章。她还强调了痛苦法则，谈到了他们作为士兵的过去和未来。

02:10:12
So innovation is very disturbed with how they were actually being emphasized as soldiers and their poor, I mean, and also they.
所以创新受到了很大的干扰因为他们实际上被强调为士兵和他们的穷人，我的意思是，还有他们。

02:10:22
The fact that, okay, just in the military ranks of different crates of soldiers. So there's sort of lumpt, they were sort of lumped into that particular category.
事实是，好吧，只是在军队里不同箱子里的士兵。所以有一种肿块，它们被集中到那个特定的类别中。

02:10:34
Um.
嗯。

02:10:35
And at the same time.
与此同时。

02:10:37
Of course, she's traumatizing the very category of European.
当然，她是在伤害欧洲人。

02:10:43
Isn't she? You know? And this is probably one of the key part of her kit, one of her key approaches that she contributed. She and a few others were always.
不是她?你知道吗?这可能是她工具箱的关键部分之一，她贡献的关键方法之一。她和其他一些人总是。

02:10:52
They were inspired by anthropologists of colonism to really traumatize categories. And the European, of course, was the category that everyone forgot about.
他们受到殖民主义人类学家的启发，对分类进行了真正的创伤。当然，欧洲人是被大家遗忘的一类人。

02:11:04
And everyone has treated Europeans as a sort of morallypic category. And here, as you were pointing out, we were talking about the different soldiers, and when you were saying that the stoler was.
每个人都把欧洲人看作是道德上的典型。这里，正如你所指出的，我们谈论的是不同的士兵，当你说小偷是。

02:11:15
Not uncomfortable. Yes, you keep emphasizing what the stress, the stress is, that.
没有不舒服。是的，你一直在强调重音，重音是。

02:11:19
Categories of describing them is subjects.
描述它们的范畴是主体。

02:11:23
I'm also sort of, like, interested in the fundamental approach of Stoner, in that sense that this Imlanchic interim, they're like, much about.
我对斯通纳的基本方法也很感兴趣，从这个意义上说，他们对这种内在的过渡很感兴趣。

02:11:33
So they're, like, much about the future, or they're about the past. So because I'm seeing this in, seeing this in this way, like.
所以，它们更多是关于未来的，或者是关于过去的。所以因为我看到了这个，看到了这个，就像。

02:11:44
These colonizers. They were very aware of the fact that these Elanchic interns were productive colonization. But also, they could be, if they're not properly thought or properly reshaped. They could be the end game of the colonization, the system is that they.
这些殖民者。他们非常清楚这样一个事实：这些伊兰契亚实习生是富有成效的殖民。但也有可能，如果他们没有被正确地思考或正确地重塑。他们可能是殖民的终结，这个系统就是他们。

02:12:00
Can kill the system itself. They can be the potential dissonance. And they have a very like degree, certain degree of fears about uncertainty about what would be the outcomes of these Elections.
可以杀死系统本身。它们可能是潜在的不和谐。他们对选举结果的不确定性也有一定程度的担忧。

02:12:10
And then let's watch that. And it was an interesting thing too, because wasn't it? I mean, I think the quote in the first part of the book, or that chapter was saying, you know, do we?
然后我们来看看。这也是一件有趣的事情，不是吗？我的意思是，我认为这本书第一部分的引言，或者那一章是在说，你知道，我们是吗？

02:12:20
Do we improve the lot of the Europeans, or do we perfect the Native right?
我们是改善了欧洲人的命运，还是完善了本土的权利？

02:12:28
I kind of figured out something that, for first of all, assigning a certain class of, like, working personnel to these people, like, there is a debate going on whether they can be the idea of working, class people. Because at that point in the other land, this was not very.
我想了一些事情，首先，给这些人分配一个特定的阶级，比如，工作人员，比如，关于他们是否可以被认为是工人阶级的人，有一个争论。因为在另一个地方，这不是很。

02:12:44
Much welcomed to be doing this job. And also, like I just wrote down because of this conference, language, also, like.
做这份工作非常受欢迎。而且，就像我刚刚写下来的，因为这个会议，语言，也像。

02:12:54
This fundamental question is deeply flawed, because, first of all, this imitation of European So you have first assert that the Europe is in the first place.
这个基本问题是有严重缺陷的，因为，首先，这种对欧洲的模仿，所以你首先要断言欧洲是第一位的。

02:13:05
They're not doing that. And the second class is like perfected natives. Now, if you are going away from the very homogenic type of natives, and then you are trying to do perfect It.
他们没有这么做。第二类人就像完美的原住民。现在，如果你要摆脱非常同质的土著，然后你要努力做到完美。

02:13:19
So it's basically two uncertain things, going parallelly by trying to mix it up. And so what about how do the children took a lot that were?
所以这基本上是两个不确定的东西，通过混合来平行进行。那么孩子们是怎么接受这些东西的呢?

02:13:29
What did she make reference to in terms of how those of mixed blood who might have been considered native? How do they feel about?
她提到了什么关于那些可能被认为是本地人的混血儿？他们感觉如何?

02:13:38
Doing these, this job training? Were they for it? No.
做这些工作培训？他们赞成吗？否。

02:13:45
Very, sort of difference until we retitle it.
非常不同，直到我们重新命名。

02:13:51
Industrial training. That was when otherwise the concept of European hands doing manual labor was not acceptable.
工业培训。那时候，欧洲人从事体力劳动的概念是不被接受的。

02:13:58
I mean, I remember in COVID, a buddy of mine.
我是说，我记得在COVID中，我的一个朋友。

02:14:03
Who's okay? A white collar a worker in the finance side.
是谁好吗?白领是指金融行业的工人。

02:14:11
Decided that he was going to work for grad.
他决定毕业后去工作。

02:14:15
Go to a bike and deliver food drink over There was a lot of attention given to him over the.
去骑自行车送食物和饮料过去，他受到了很多关注。

02:14:21
But it's interesting. It's on social media. I mean, just posting it on Linkedin or something like that.
但这很有趣。这是在社交媒体上。我的意思是，把它发布在领英或类似的网站上。

02:14:26
There was some push back because it was criticizing, bringing attention.

有一些人反对，因为这是在批评，引起人们的注意。

02:14:35
To him doing this sort of work. And I guess what was novel about it was that people didn't expect, you know, and it has to do with.
让他做这种工作。我想它的新颖之处在于人们没有预料到，你知道，这与。

02:14:45
Race. It has to do with class. It has to do all these sort of things. And it was interesting that he was bringing attention to it, and it created different types of responses. I mean, probably he was doing it for charity, business.
竞赛。这与阶级有关。它必须做所有这些事情。有趣的是，他引起了人们的注意，引起了不同类型的反应。我是说，可能他是为了慈善事业，生意。

02:14:56
Position, but it's this sort of stuff, you know, about labor and race and community, what's expected, what's not expected. And in this case, the communities were saying.
职位，但这是一种东西，你知道，关于劳动，种族和社区，什么是被期望的，什么是不被期望的。在这种情况下，社区说。

02:15:09
We don't want to work in these particular areas unless it's regarded more.
我们不想在这些特定领域工作，除非它得到更多的重视。

02:15:16
Are aligned with how we perceive ourselves to be? The question was, were they in European?
与我们对自己的认知一致吗？问题是，他们在欧洲吗？

02:15:22
Or would they consider something else? And that's what, where there was the problem, because the state might see them as.
或者他们会考虑其他事情吗？这就是问题所在，因为政府可能会把他们视为。

02:15:31
There's not European. Or as part of this, it looks quite like, if you put a diagram, there's an European, there is the natives. So imitation of Europeans, is it like disrupted from the Europeans and desert natives as well. So there's expected of.
没有欧洲。或者作为其中的一部分，它看起来很像，如果你放一个图表，有一个欧洲人，有一个土著。所以对欧洲人的模仿，是不是也受到了欧洲人和沙漠土著人的干扰。这是期望的。

02:15:48
And how do you, how do you manage a spectrum? You know, policy.
你如何管理一个频谱呢？你知道的，政策。

02:15:55
I created a lot of problems. You can invent a lot of ones. You have a lot of cameras. Definitions.
我制造了很多问题。你可以发明很多。你有很多相机。定义。

02:16:03
Was another aspect that you wanted to bring up. Oh, the last part, because during this, the negative stuff, during the decades when these discussions were going on.
是你想提的另一个方面。哦，最后一部分，因为在这期间，负面的东西，在这些讨论进行的几十年里。

02:16:16
Of course, the people went back to what happened in other colonies or in Australia or Caribbean or India, and housing policies work there or fade there. And what were the assumptions made in those colonies. And.
当然，人们又回到了其他殖民地，或者澳大利亚，或者加勒比，或者印度，住房政策在那里起作用或者失效。这些殖民地的假设是什么？和。

02:16:27
What, how permissive they were and how permissive they were not about whether it preserved mixed race relationships or children. And so there were plans drawn up and dropped.

他们有多宽容，他们有多不宽容是否保留了混合种族关系或孩子。所以我们制定了一些计划，然后又放弃了。

02:16:38
Many plans, probably died at the governor's office. She mentioned that. So I guess that was the panel, in spite of whatever good intentions that they had, not all plans, not all plans came to pollution.
很多计划，可能都死在了州长办公室。她提到了这一点。所以我想这就是委员会，不管他们有什么好的意图，不是所有的计划，不是所有的计划都与污染有关。

02:16:51
And this is why she uses the metaphor of the photographic negatives, where she says, some policy for craft and re craft. Some are some.
这就是为什么她用底片来比喻，她说，一些工艺和再工艺的政策。有些是有些。

02:17:00
Some were blown up and distorted to highlight a certain part or not. And, you know, some were faded as they were over, exposed, you know, and so, and still, much of it remains absent from the histoography like debris that falls, you know.
有些被放大和扭曲，以突出或不突出某个部分。而且，你知道，有些随着它们的结束而褪色，暴露出来，你知道，所以，仍然有很多东西在组织学上没有出现，比如掉落的碎片，你知道。

02:17:16
Of, you know, ductile, you know, for document. That's the key part, too. And glad you brought that up. A lot of these sources are.
你知道，延展性，你知道，对于文件来说。这也是关键的部分。很高兴你提出来了。很多资源都是。

02:17:25

On the periphery of the arcar, right, or on the margins or the edges of the arcar. We don't focus on these sorts of things. I mean, one of the great characteristics of these colonization process across European nation, across African nation. In the center goes up.
在弧线的外围，对吧，或者在弧线的边缘。我们不关注这些事情。我的意思是，这些横跨欧洲国家和非洲国家的殖民过程的一大特点。中间是上升的。

02:17:40
Is that they generated a massive amount of paper to And that's what, at the other time told you, that you designed the course in such a Well, whether we read Elizabeth Deal, and then usually the process.
他们写了大量的论文，这就是，在另一段时间告诉你的，你设计这门课是这样的，不管我们读伊丽莎白·迪尔，然后通常是这个过程。

02:17:49
So if we go through these first studies of our business course, maybe we understand that these archives were first of all, it is very much a matter of the present, or rather than the past, like back then. It was also used excessively as to go.
所以，如果我们回顾一下我们商业课程的第一个研究，也许我们就会明白，这些档案首先是，它在很大程度上是现在的问题，而不是过去的问题，就像当时那样。它也被过度使用。

02:18:05
The government to generate. So, in a way, the policies actually, what did they gather? What did the information they gather? These is documentary. This is made of paper.
政府要产生。所以，在某种程度上，这些政策实际上收集了什么？他们收集了什么信息？这些是记录片。这是纸做的。

02:18:15
And those paper trails are enormous, like the stolen rice is in the Dutch colony. I guess there's enormous papers for 22 km. Or something like.
这些书面记录非常庞大，就像在荷兰殖民地被盗的大米一样。我猜有22公里长的大报纸。或者类似的。

02:18:23
And that's interesting how she was talking about districts, to talk about them, how much was in there. So if the historian, as he didn't.
有趣的是她是如何谈论地区的，谈论他们，有多少在那里。所以如果是历史学家，因为他没有。

02:18:33
And the archives go through this paper trail, it will, they will notice that these paper trails are not always talking about any concrete information, but also random information gathers from random Sources.
档案馆会通过这些书面记录，他们会注意到这些书面记录并不总是谈论任何具体的信息，而是从随机来源收集的随机信息。

02:18:44
And then making them concrete, like you just hear something from some guy, and then you are typing it in a letter and sending it to the higher authority that, hey, I've got this information. And I think this is complicated. How they receive it and organize it.
然后把它们具体化，就像你刚从某人那里听到一些东西，然后你把它打在一封信里，然后把它发给更高的权威，嘿，我得到了这个信息。我认为这很复杂。他们如何接受和组织它。

02:18:58
It's not always systematic. And one times, and it throws up to the side, and you're saying the.
它并不总是系统性的。然后一次，它就会被甩到一边，你说的是。

02:19:06
The photo of the people refraded, but it also gets reproduced. Yes, sometimes it's resurrected. Like one classic example in this as I said, has a capable going back to the Indian Context.
人们的照片被折射了，但它也被复制了。是的，有时它会复活。就像我说的一个经典的例子，可以追溯到印度的背景。

02:19:19
Is a safety wealth. During the International Congress, like it was widely thought that Alan up to be a Hume, a colonial adristrian, who created the International Congress, a safety wealth.
是安全的财富。在国际代表大会期间，人们普遍认为艾伦是休谟，一个殖民地亚德里亚人，他创造了国际代表大会，一个安全的财富。

02:19:28
But then the historians went further, and he said that Hugh basically collected a lot of information from random guys, and those random guys have no tricks, like some say that there's a big reward coming in, so you better put forward.
但后来历史学家更进一步，他说休基本上是从随机的人那里收集了很多信息，这些随机的人没有诡计，就像有人说有很大的奖励，所以你最好提出。

02:19:40
Organization that can be a safety valve to the British Colonial So no one knows from whom they generated, and they gathered the information.
这个组织可以成为英国殖民地的安全阀所以没有人知道他们从谁那里获得了信息，他们收集了信息。

02:19:49
So some sense, like some type of, you know, godman, and some type of, like men who can see future, like astrology, something.
所以某种感觉，就像某种类型的，你知道的，神人，还有某种类型的，像能看到未来的人，像占星术之类的。

02:19:59
That all sort of crazy stuff came in, and it all gives them a sort of trick is for the story to come in and sift through it and try to find.

Or more to say, if not, that's okay. There's quite a bit. And then is my temperature, or the room temperature's going up. So we'll have to hit group three.
或者更确切地说，如果没有，也没关系。有很多。然后是温度，或者说室温在上升。所以我们必须攻击第三组。

02:20:35
Now, group three, you guys were asked about the commission of the Commissions of 1872 and 1901 on opulism.
现在，第三组，你们被问到1872年和1901年关于民粹主义的委员会。

02:28:30
Okay. So how does issue, credibility come forth? How does it issues of?
好吧。那么问题、可信度是如何产生的呢？它是如何产生的?

02:28:38
Evidence. There's a talent production come out with it. How does some determine context? There's a double play on the context in this one, right? And how my partial understanding confusion on processed information.
证据。这是一部才华横溢的作品。它们是如何决定上下文的？这里的背景有

双重作用，对吧？以及我对加工信息的部分理解是如何混乱的。

02:28:49
Read the very context for the context. Okay.
为上下文而读上下文。好吧。

02:28:52
So for the question for it actually fits very well with what pro students trying to do in this to read along the screen, because there are two narratives about what's going on here. First, it's the official narratives.
对于这个问题，它实际上非常适合专业学生在屏幕上阅读的方式，因为这里有两种叙述。首先是官方叙述。

02:29:06
That these robbers, or the teams come and attack the normal family. And, but then Bob says, say, no, that's not a case. You're actually trying to abandon themselves. You're trying to save themselves.
这些强盗，或者是队伍来袭击正常的家庭。然后Bob说，不，这不是一个例子。你其实是在试图抛弃自己。你们是在试图拯救自己。

02:29:18
And he and he went to site that the other houses on attack. Other people are attacked. It's only the London family. There was a attack. And so there's this two opposing that, this operation that is saying that he's the key.
他和他去了其他房子被袭击的地方。其他人受到攻击。只有伦敦一家。发生了一起袭击。所以有两种对立的观点，这种观点认为他是关键。

02:29:30
Whatever. But what say they know is not so. This is where the so, called credibility comes in, when the credibility of what was questioned.
无论什么。但他们所说的并非如此。这就是所谓的可信度的由来，当被质疑的东西的可信度。

02:29:41

Say that it's probably because of the unfamiliarity with the area, that there's no superiors overlooking for him, and the MIT is a mess. So if there's, this new narrative is coming in to explain why it's.
可以说，这可能是因为他对这个领域不熟悉，没有上级监督他，麻省理工学院一团糟。所以如果有的话，这个新的叙述来解释为什么它。

02:29:55
Going on here? Yes. And what he stood his point to the end, given to the point of being a honorary discharged, to be retired earlier than expected.
这是怎么回事？是。他坚持到最后，得到了荣誉退伍，比预期的要早退休。

02:30:06
Asia. Poetry was his view widely known. His views were from what we understand.
亚洲。他对诗歌的看法广为人知。他的观点是我们所理解的。

02:30:18
And.
和。

02:30:18
Communition. Okay. So what I read is that he made his case as much as he can. He really tried to fight his point, but it was being questioned by the other ammunition, I'm sorry.
Communition。好吧。所以我读到的是他尽可能多地为自己辩护。他确实试图反驳自己的观点，但却遭到了对方的质疑，抱歉。

02:30:29
In the archive? Was it part of the original files? No, it wasn't. It was not a separate file.
在档案里？是原始文件的一部分吗？不，不是。它不是一个单独的文件。

02:30:38
And she's sort of, I can't remember. She said she discovered a different sort of group of the files, but yet it was directly related to it. And you wouldn't have known there was.

她有点，我不记得了。她说她发现了一组不同类型的文件，但却与之直接相关。你也不知道有这种事。

02:30:50
There was a contesting narratives going on.
有一种有争议的叙述在进行。

02:30:53
So, so how so this is when the contents come in, that what are posters trying to say all along this? Yes, you can actually read what the archives are saying, but with this additional things going on, you can still read it, but.
所以，当内容进来的时候，海报一直在试图说什么？是的，你可以读到档案里的内容，但是有了这些额外的东西，你还是可以读到，但是。

02:31:09
Don't keep your narrative at its work. It can. There are other sources that can make things more insightful or new ones in that sense.
不要让你的叙述停留在它的工作上。它可以。从这个意义上说，还有其他的资源可以让事情变得更有洞察力或更新颖。

02:31:20
In fact, you might find completely different there, completely, right? Good.
事实上，你可能会发现完全不同，完全不同，对吧？好。

02:31:27
Just add a little bit, maybe another area that you have to highlight all those assignments.
只需要添加一点，也许是另一个你需要突出所有作业的地方。

02:31:33
The fact that it contradicts the official narrative. I think the question of credibility also stems from the fact that there are some rumors that produce us materials later on, which I think we kind of.
事实是它与官方叙述相矛盾。我认为可信度的问题也源于这样一个事实，即

后来有一些谣言给我们提供了材料，我认为我们有点。

02:31:43
At first, that's perhaps, if you are historian, you look at the material that's written based on tumors, you find it problematic. But actually, like what you mentioned earlier, you should not dismiss it very the way, if you dismiss it, flesh out in.
首先，如果你是历史学家，你看那些以肿瘤为基础的材料，你会发现它有问题。但实际上，就像你之前提到的，你不应该以这种方式来否定它，如果你否定它，那就充实起来。

02:31:56
Yes, right? And the category of rumors, who called it rumor, right? The rumor sort of.
是的,对吗?谣言的范畴，谁管它叫谣言，对吧？谣言有点。

02:32:03
Brings down the quality, right? The market value of it in some ways, right? But someone gave it that designation, right? And so that's sort of, it's like someone allows it to be in the archive. They give us its statute.
降低了质量，对吧？在某种程度上它的市场价值，对吧？但有人给它起了这个名字，对吧？这就像是有人允许它被保存在档案里。他们给了我们它的章程。

02:32:18
Someone decides to put it through a particular file, and others don't. Right? So the very the very term of rumor.
有些人决定把它放在一个特定的文件中，而有些人则不这样做。对吧?所以这是谣言的代名词。

02:32:26
Already sort of creates impressions.
已经给人留下了印象。

02:32:32

It's like, I think that's particularly striking. And in general, about the book, like, what we've been talking about is that there are still narratives, new narratives that we can flash out from materials in the archives, even though it is like polluting themselves.
我觉得这特别引人注目。总的来说，关于这本书，我们一直在谈论的是，仍然有一些叙述，新的叙述，我们可以从档案中的材料中闪现出来，尽管这就像在污染它们自己。

02:32:51
So you should get the.
所以你应该得到。

02:32:53
The anxieties of people. I call it, and she calls it also the historical negative, which goes back to the problem here.
人们的焦虑。我称之为，她也称之为历史否定，这又回到了这里的问题。

02:33:05
Wondering, monks was a phrase you said.
想知道，和尚是你说的短语。

02:33:10
I think it comes about very small.
我认为它是非常小的。

02:33:12
Would state put, they would make a reference to it. We heard rumors of wandering monks in this area, and of course, there's a incidence of rebellion occurred so that they tried to make the insinuation.
如果陈述，他们会提到它。我们听说有传言说这个地区有流浪的僧侣，当然，这里也发生了叛乱，所以他们试图影射。

02:33:25
Of that the incidence of the rebellion was connected to the wandering mark. But actually to use this approach.

其中，叛乱的发生与流浪标记有关。但实际上要用这个方法。

02:33:33
The issue that's actually interesting is the wonder.
真正有趣的是奇迹。

02:33:37
Treatment. You know, it's the fact that they wanted to keep people in certain places and didn't want movement. Movement was seen as a security threat, just like.
治疗。你知道，事实是他们想把人们留在特定的地方，不希望移动。运动被视为安全威胁，就像。

02:33:46
Mixed marriages was a security threat or a potential security threat for the future.
异族通婚是一种安全威胁或者是未来潜在的安全威胁。

02:33:51
Mobility and watering.
流动性和浇水。

02:33:54
Made it difficult for states to survey.
使各州难以进行调查。

02:33:57
Other points to this.
其他观点也指向这一点。

02:34:01
How might partial understanding, confusion and process information be the very context for them? Because she says, you've got to look at the context, okay? We're sensitive to look at the context.
部分理解、混淆和处理信息是如何成为他们的上下文的呢？因为她说，你要

看上下文，好吗？我们对环境很敏感。

02:34:11
But is the context? What's the context for the context, actually? Right? So you're having these rumors, and all is actually itself is a very deep in construction.
但是背景呢？上下文的上下文到底是什么？对吧?所以你有这些谣言，其实本身就是一个很深刻的建构。

02:34:22
So that's why I just say that this shouldn't show away these rumors, but to see what is the rule monger is saying from his perspective? And this is from that perspective. They can make things more.
所以这就是为什么我说这不应该暴露这些谣言，但是看看规则贩子从他的角度说了什么？这就是从那个角度出发的。他们可以做更多的事情。

02:34:34
Contextual or insightful in how they view the situation. The fact that these certain aspects were not treated as fact, they're being designated as.
在他们如何看待形势的问题上有背景或深刻的见解。事实上，这些方面并没有被视为事实，它们被指定为。

02:34:44
Rumor or whatever tells you something. It's a reference. It tells you at least why a certain value is being placed on.
不管是谣言还是别的什么都能说明问题。这是一个参考。它至少告诉你为什么某个值被赋值。

02:34:54
And where does that fit with their anxieties or their answers? So I think, why is that where? Especially example, here's the Goyas there. there was, I want to correct the rumors. There are families. So in this impression of them, the rumors of the lawyers being the keys or the.
这与他们的焦虑或答案有什么关系？所以我想，为什么它在哪里？特别是，这是戈雅的作品。有，我想纠正谣言。有很多家庭。所以在对他们的印象

中，关于律师是关键的谣言。

02:35:09
Backgrounds. And so that's like from this rumor in the cell, we can see how the coherence actually went and see the local people.
背景。就像从这个细胞里的谣言中，我们可以看到这种一致性是如何发展的，我们可以看到当地人。

02:35:16
Now you write this because criminality, I like this. Just try.
你写这个是因为犯罪，我喜欢这个。只是试一试。

02:35:21
I mean, how is behavior seen? I mean, of course it's a murder, so that's that. But also, how are certain traits of a society?
我的意思是，人们是如何看待行为的？我是说，这当然是谋杀，就这样吧。但是，一个社会的某些特征是怎样的？

02:35:31
Criminalize the certain language, or something that.
将某些语言定为犯罪，或者其他。

02:35:35
We movement is criminalized it. We pick it up. Okay.
我们的运动是犯罪化的。我们把它捡起来。好吧。

02:35:40
Group four, group five. You guys were asked to ask about a very funny notion of disregard. And we had that conversation about.
第四组，第五组。你们被要求问一个非常有趣的漠视概念。我们讨论过。

02:35:50
What the hell is you mean about disregardment? And in a sense, what does she say? But what can we do with things officials ignore, overlook?
你说无视是什么意思？从某种意义上说，她说了什么？但对于官员们忽视、

忽视的事情，我们能做些什么呢?

02:36:00
Or treat as unimportant, or designate as rumors, E.G., or treat as being marginal or.
或视为不重要，或指定为谣言，例如，或视为边缘或。

02:36:06
Or whatever, or unimportant about the deeper ideas, and some just going to include the power.
或者其他的，或者对更深层次的思想不重要，有些只包括权力。

02:36:12
Like a watermark. Going back to the very first part of the book, you know, how might this be a way of talking about thinking about how official points decided, what was confident knowledge and what?
就像水印。回到这本书的第一部分，你知道，这可能是一种谈论思考官方观点是如何决定的方式，什么是自信的知识，什么是?

02:36:24
Comment is true, accounted as nonsense, marginal and so forth. Would you guys come up with?
评论是真实的，被认为是无稽之谈，无足轻重等等。你们会想出什么?

02:36:31
We have some.
我们有一些。

02:36:33
Any question is many mistress of it. This is showing us Now, the first thing that the colonial government is maybe strict by choice.
任何问题都容易解决。这向我们展示了第一件事，殖民政府可能是出于选择而严格的。

02:36:42

By design. This is natural. This is very intentional idea of so on. But it's more of the intentional ignorance, I think we brought up right?
通过设计。这是很自然的。这是非常有意的想法等等。但更多的是故意无知，我想我们提到过，对吧?

02:36:52
But at the same time, I think that the colonial government just try to, I think they can see that something is not.
但与此同时，我认为殖民政府只是试图，我认为他们可以看到有些东西不是。

02:37:01
Is unimportant, but I overlook the details, the fact, just because they fall prey into the deceptions.
是不重要的，但我忽略了细节，事实，只是因为他们陷入了欺骗的牺牲品。

02:37:10
This is the way that you just try to protect people's imaginations, e.g., in the case of low man and a murderer in rotation, I think they see the.
这就是你试图保护人们想象力的方式，例如，在小人和杀人犯轮流的情况下，我认为他们看到了。

02:37:21
The reports of France come back as a challenge for their own power. They own. I mean, they own.
关于法国的报道回来了，对他们自己的权力构成挑战。他们自己的。我是说，他们拥有。

02:37:29
And they dismissed his reports in this list. And it wasn't because of, necessarily because of ignorance. It was strategic dismissal, just strategic disregard.
他们在这份名单中驳回了他的报告。这并不一定是因为无知。这是策略性的解雇，策略性的无视。

02:37:42
And that the rationale for that, then.
这就是原因所在。

02:37:47
Reveal something about what's actually important, right? Just, let's try to share, sorry, I mean, just to ignore the voices of something, to challenge them, and try to protect your own.
揭示一些真正重要的东西，对吧？让我们试着分享，抱歉，我的意思是，只是忽略一些声音，挑战它们，并试着保护你自己。

02:38:02
What I said on categories, on what I say, it has civilizing missions. You're protecting their interest. Absolutely.
我所说的分类，我所说的，它有教化的使命。你在保护他们的利益。绝对的。

02:38:12
What was interesting though, is, in this case.
有趣的是，在这种情况下。

02:38:15
You have two elites within the same colonial.
在同一个殖民地里有两个精英。

02:38:21
Higher status, disagree, you know, about this particular issue and that disagreement.
更高的地位，不同意，你知道，关于这个特定的问题和那个不同意。

02:38:29
Sort of disappeared from the record, but.
从记录中消失了，但是。

02:38:33

It was found, you know, she found that, and she was able to flush that up.
它被发现了，你知道，她发现了，她能把它冲出来。

02:38:37
Other points that you guys want me to bring up.
你们想让我提出的其他观点。

02:38:41
Or was that more or less like Mark?
或者这多少有点像马克?

02:38:45
I'm not asking for more. If you wanted to add, please do.
我没有要求更多。如果你想补充，请说。

02:38:51
The watermark I liked. I always, I mean, there's some certain things I like about the book. I mean.
我喜欢的水印。我总是，我的意思是，这本书有一些我喜欢的地方。我的意思。

02:38:57
The negative, you know, I think it's kind of neat to sort of think about them as method, you know, the watermark as a way of trying to see the hints or The.
底片，你知道，我认为把它们看作一种方法是很简洁的，你知道，水印是一种试图看到暗示的方式。

02:39:09
The traces of what might be in a document. These are all sort of.
文件中可能存在的痕迹。这些都是。

02:39:14
Sort of visible ways of thinking about what you do with your sources and how you We try to reconstruct the past through.

这是一种可见的思考方式，关于你如何处理你的资料，以及你如何试图重建过去。

02:39:22
Good. Shall we close the door room store for the evening? Thank goodness.
好。我们今晚关上房门好吗？谢天谢地。

02:39:39
So I'm asking.
