这并没有树立榜样。所以我开始研究为什么这种情况一直在重复。

19:51

Is about the repeated assessment. When you start to see things being repeated.
是关于反复的评估。当你开始看到事情重复时。

20:25

这是关于父母背后的情感，这是关于如何对待混血孩子和混血儿的挑战，这是对殖民主义的整个公式。

21:05
You know, how do you deal with a population that is mixed? How do you deal, you know, with the questions of loyalty, you know, to the state? How do you?
你知道，你如何处理一个混合的人口？你如何处理，你知道，对国家忠诚的问题？你好吗?

其实不是很清楚，而之前，我们会说我们可以追溯认识论，一个特定思想的故事。

23:59

Back to its colonial roots, back to the concepts, and show how the traces remain. So a concept like I'm going to try to get an example.
回到它的殖民根源，回到这些概念，并展示这些痕迹是如何保留下来的。所以一个概念，比如我要举个例子。

25:24
Or giving a definitive type of answer. You can see these in the course box. So I think that's what I started trying to show, is that.
或者给出一个明确的答案。你可以在课程盒子里看到这些。所以我想这就是我开始想要展示的，就是。

A lot of these documents demonstrate or illustrate this episthet.
很多文件都证明了这一点。

25:39
Uncertainty? Is it same with the voice? Yes, the same sort of, the anxiety, the worries. So the uncertainty and the worries.

27:10
To saturate, you know, the correspondences, right? But that anxiety, instead of the anxiety, the stillological worries.
为了饱和，你知道，通信，对吧？但这种焦虑，而不是焦虑，而是对死亡的担忧。

27:20
I find it, it all sort of, it's all connected to what, essentially she's arguing.
我发现，这一切都与她的论点有关。

Was really behind the.
真的是在背后。

27:34
The actual everyday feelings of the people. So in other words, she's looking at these darkens as a sort of window into.

27:44
The real uncertainty, uncertain position of the global state and its.
真正的不确定性，全球国家的不确定地位及其。

And its officials. And so these watermarks that they mentioned earlier reveal meanings in a little bit.
还有它的官员。所以他们之前提到的这些水印稍微揭示了一些意义。

27:55
Present beneath the document's surface, you can see where the assumptions of credibility relevance different.
在文件的表面之下，你可以看到可信度相关性的假设不同。

但这是一场大规模的毁灭。我是说，我以调查员的身份进去的时候遇到了达蒙。他说，先生，我们一直在浏览这些网站。你知道，我们没有发现任何核武器。所以这个故事是关于这个层次的。

28:59

你知道，如果你看不同的来源，挑战会非常不同，术语和类别以及历史呈现的方式可能会非常。

31:09
Different when you're using local languages. But what Ray and other scholars were also starting to like, say, look, but if we?

他们都是这样想的，哦，他们都很有钱，他们都生活得很好，你知道，去俱乐部，在白宫和白宫之间搬家。

31:56
And things like that. She said, no, she's already already hinted already. There were poor white folks, you know, there were half bloods, you know, who were unemployed. And in fact, she actually reveals in her introduction, she's like.

诸如此类的事情。她说，不，她已经暗示过了。有贫穷的白人，你知道，有混血，你知道，他们失业了。事实上，她在介绍中透露，她就像。

32:09
There were many who are agitating with the Cold States say, hey, listen, why are you giving us more support here? And that's the anxiety why?
有很多人在鼓动冷战国家说，嘿，听着，为什么你们在这里给我们更多的支持？这就是焦虑的原因？

32:20
How do we deal with, you know, the poor European within the quality? Because the single, you know, simple view is that, you know, you've got the advantage of the discipline.
我们如何处理劣质的欧洲产品？因为单一的，你知道，简单的观点是，你知道，你有纪律的优势。

That you have the powerful, and then you have those, the power less, you know, and so forth. And so what her work is saying, yes, not only can you engage these sources, but you can engage them to.
你有权力，然后你有权力，你知道，等等。所以她的工作是说，是的，你不仅可以利用这些资源，你还可以利用他们。

32:42
To critique and do an anthropology of colonial states. That may also, of course.
批判并研究殖民国家的人类学。当然，这也有可能。

Involve local people's societies, and that actually would be the most That would be where, maybe, in area studies, southeast Asia just might.
让当地的社会参与进来，这可能是最重要的，在区域研究中，东南亚可能就是这样。

32:57
Might have some qualms and say, well, you know, anne is really not a association set, which is really not talking.
可能会有些不安，说，嗯，你知道，安妮真的不是一个关联集，这真的不说话。

33:05
About Southeast Asias. She's talking about Europeans in Southeast Asia, or the mixed groups that are there. So she's more really an anthropology of anthropology of culture.
关于东南亚。她说的是东南亚的欧洲人，或者是那里的混合群体。所以她更像是文化人类学中的人类学。

33:15
I don't think she would.
我觉得她不会。

33:15
Argue too, hardly against that. I mean, I didn't see her publishing in various studies journals, and she doesn't really present herself as a self using.
也要争论，不要反对。我的意思是，我没有看到她在各种研究期刊上发表文章，她也没有把自己表现成一个自私自利的人。

33:25
Just overs. You fired of what? Why do we draw the line between anthropology and these?
刚刚越过。你解雇了什么？为什么我们要在人类学和这些之间划清界限?

33:31
I think it has to do with method for one. As I say, she starts off with a quote of classic anthropologists, very strong, you know, that.
首先，我认为这与方法有关。就像我说的，她引用了经典人类学家的话，非常有力。

At textual sources. So one is methodology, right? But actually, if you also go through a program, I answer, you said, we're all actually focusing and talking about the same subject.
在文本来源。一个是方法论，对吧？但实际上，如果你也参加一个项目，我回答说，你说，我们实际上都在关注和谈论同一个主题。

And that, so I found this very interesting to be able to.
所以我发现这很有趣，能够。

我觉得她的作品很有趣因为她在茱莉亚神学历史和人类学之间挣扎。我认为，就像这一章，我认为她。

35:16

对列维·斯特劳不利，对吧？但我看不出她的话偏离了李维·斯特劳。

35:25
Comes back to him, actually. So in the beginning, she says, and one way, I'm actually talking about what anthropology is exactly, not what he says. But then three or four paragraphs down, she says, but actually.
其实是他自己。所以一开始，她说，一种方式，我实际上是在说人类学到底是什么，而不是他说什么。但在三四段之后，她说，但实际上。

35:38
There's a way of engaging stress as.
有一种方法可以缓解压力。

So you're right. She starts off by saying, you know, in the very simple terms, this is where he is, in terms of his view of what he.
所以你是对的。她一开始就说，你知道，用非常简单的术语来说，这就是他所处的位置，就他对他所做的事情的看法而言。

35:51
Is what anthropology is, but she actually engages him, I think, about three or four paragraphs now.

我觉得你说得对有趣的是她在这里做了伟大的历史，你知道，通过。

36:09
Engaging the colonial sources and the documents to talk about and reach into a past.

我完全同意我朋友今天的观点当我读这本书的时候，我觉得它完全可以融入后殖民时代的印度历史因为。

43:13
The British in India also developed one of the best item system in the world, and that the post colonial India, the modern Indian government. It's a very, like open argument that the Indian government currently kind of works in the same.
英国人在印度也发展了世界上最好的项目系统之一，并建立了后殖民时期的印度，现代印度政府。这是一个非常公开的论点，印度政府目前也在做同样的事情。

43:26
Institutional parameters at the British set. As a journalist, I also kind of had some access to the government, like notes and the letters.
英国设定的制度参数。作为一名记者，我也有一些接触政府的渠道，比如笔记和信件。

43:35
And I would, I mean, this is very surprising that whatever, andlora Stotor acknowledged here, it's kind of the same in India right now, like in the Postman period, like, just, you know, that they tried to make categories made in the changing colonial rule the Indian government.
我的意思是，这是非常令人惊讶的，无论如何，andlora Stotor在这里承认，这在现在的印度是一样的，就像在邮差时期，就像，你知道，他们试图在不断变化的殖民统治中做出分类印度政府。

43:50
Presently do categorization over certain steps when, when it comes to, like educational policies or social policies, cast everything, I mean everybody, because my experience is kind of like limited to India.
目前，当涉及到教育政策或社会政策时，我会对某些步骤进行分类，我的意思是每个人，因为我的经验仅限于印度。

44:04
But I also noticed that whenever there is, like, note, so it's literally the way the views is sent Note to Netherlands.
但我也注意到，每当有note时，这就是视图发送note到荷兰的方式。

44:16
It's the same in India. Also, like the summary there, they're like a copy to this copy, to that copy to 16 other officers. and then they're like, pile of like, supporting documents. And there are some, some questions. And my father also worked in the government.
在印度也是一样。而且，就像那里的总结一样，他们就像这个副本的副本，给其他16名官员的副本。然后他们就像一堆支持文件。还有一些问题。我父亲也在政府工作。

44:31
Of India. I've been to his office so many times. He worked in the, like audience department of India. So there, also, the same practice goes on every time, like the director sends a note to the section office here, the section of.

印度。我去过他的办公室好多次了。他在印度的观众部工作。所以，同样的做法每次都在进行，就像主任给部门办公室发了一张纸条，部门。

44:44
And it's saying to that, anna and I appreciate this. And then this list, everything is same. You know, it was interesting. Do you remember reading that part in the story, where she was making.

44:53
Reference to one of the officials that would be the subject of, or the chapters, how insigning the document to his daughter is like an official category of his day.
提到一个官员，这将是这几章的主题，如何在文件上给他的女儿签名就像他那个时代的官方分类。

45:04
There's our data, you know. So it shows a really interesting paradigm. A second, you know what? Your dad's office?
这是我们的数据。这是一个非常有趣的范例。等一下，你知道吗？你爸爸的办公室?

45:11
It's about children. Children developed a kind of, like a fascination that their dad will write. Some like in India, there's a system for attestation, like if you write your name, there's official stamp.
是关于孩子的。孩子们产生了一种迷恋他们的父亲会写的东西。有些国家，比如印度，有一个认证系统，比如如果你写下你的名字，就会有官方印章。

45:25
And that. And so, like, I heard this thing, like, my father will send me a letter which will have my father's stamp. That's this sort of, like, I guess there's like, a lot of psychological things going on when you see that sort of like official.

和。所以，我听说，我父亲会给我寄一封信，上面有我父亲的邮票。我想，当你看到官方公布的消息时，你会产生很多心理上的问题。

45:39
To me, is another dimension of the sentiment that she talks about, the emotional she's sort of getting into it.

45:49
That there were, there are these types of dimensions in the Arctic, but also which are reflective of the coldness state, or of the state.
在北极有这样的维度，但也反映了寒冷的状态，或国家。

45:59
That often are not considered that we often consider the state as impersonal, as unfeeling.
我们通常认为国家没有人情味，没有感情。

46:08
But actually she's saying, no, it's actually personal. It is feeling. It's an angle that I'm so interested too, is I'm looking at the human dimension.
但实际上她说，不，这是私人恩怨。它是感觉。这也是我很感兴趣的一个角度，我在观察人的维度。

46:16
Of institutions, and, of course, the people who shape the archives and so forth. So still waiting to hear an answer from our colleague who's trying to come in.
机构，当然，还有塑造档案的人等等。我还在等我们同事的答复，他想进来。

46:24
Look at a sort of human aspect to that, to your career, but I think what your creative writer point Another thing about Anna is that she would see and others would see her as a country.

从人的角度来看，从你的职业生涯来看，但我认为你的创意作家所指出的关于安娜的另一件事是，她和其他人会把她看作一个国家。

46:34
Contributor to post, colonial Studies, and not just Colonial Studies. And that, and, of course, postcore Studies looks at the continuities and the legacy.
殖民研究的贡献者，而不仅仅是殖民研究。当然，postcore研究关注的是连续性和遗产。

46:44
The cause in the contemporary universe, the periods of follow, the former cause.
因于当代宇宙，故于期继，故于前。

46:50
Period.
时期。

46:53
Okay.
好吧。

46:53
Let's take a break. Let's take a break about 10 min or so. Circle five. So you guys got to run somewhere to get food for a coffee or a tea.
我们休息一下吧。让我们休息10分钟左右。圈5。所以你们得赶紧去找点吃的喝杯咖啡或茶。

47:02
Oh, okay.
哦,好的。

47:03

1010. I have my snack already. Oh, okay. 10 min or so. Several, five or so around the phone. Okay.
1010. 我已经有点心了。哦,好的。10分钟左右。电话周围有几个，五个左右。好吧。

47:14
We can read that.
我们什么?

47:18
Can talk about a topic and leave in the way different authors have.
可以谈论一个话题，并以不同作者的方式离开。

47:24
Are connected to that topic. So, you know, often when we, when I make pieces and, you know.
都与这个话题有关。所以，你知道，通常当我们，当我做作品的时候，你知道。

47:31
Or dissertations, I'll be straightforward ways to say, okay, this is what everyone said, you know. And the biggest.
或者论文，我会直截了当地说，好吧，这是大家都说的。也是最大的。

47:39
Is that there really isn't any engagement with it. It's just listing what they said on a particular topic, and he's moved through the generations of it, and he may add, okay, there's a pattern to what people were saying.
就是没有任何参与。它只是列出了他们对一个特定话题的看法，他经历了几代人，他可能会补充说，好吧，人们说的话是有规律的。

47:51
And so forth. But it's really not engaged, showing how that literature or those conversations are connected to more work.
等等。但它真的没有参与，显示文学或这些对话如何与更多的工作联系在一

起。

47:59
So here's her chapter two sort of weaves in both. She's talking about the core ideas of her topic. You know.
这是她的第二章，两者交织在一起。她在谈论她的主题的核心思想。你知道的。

48:08
About the pulse of the archive, represent the pulse of the Empire, you know, and her methodological intervention and showing how that we've in with.
关于档案的脉搏，代表了帝国的脉搏，你知道，她的方法干预并展示了我们是如何参与的。

48:18
People who have written, you know, about subjects that she finds are relevant to her work. So I think it's a very subject. I, look, I don't even do it this way.
那些写过她认为与她的工作相关的主题的人。所以我认为这是一个非常重要的课题。我，听着，我都不会这么做。

48:27
And I really want to try, you know, the night next week. I want to try to do it this way as well, because then it becomes an example of how you are engaging the work.
我真的很想试试，下周晚上。我也想试着这样做，因为这样它就成了你如何投入工作的一个例子。

48:36
And how your topic is drawing from or departing from previous work, where you might fit with other straps, and where you might.
以及你的主题是如何借鉴或偏离以前的工作，你可能适合其他带子，以及你可能。

48:45
Apart from, you know, edward cite, or Tuco, or third on and so forth. So it's quite.
除了，你知道，爱德华·西提，或者屠库，或者第三等等。所以这很。

48:54
Quite a good example of that. But in terms of the content of what she was focusing on here, she was, where she sort of pitches, what does reading along the?
这是一个很好的例子。但就她所关注的内容而言，她是，她在哪里推销，沿着阅读是什么？

49:03
Archival career actually me, and why is it important? And so her basic premise, of course, is that that.
档案事业其实对我来说很重要，为什么呢？当然，她的基本前提是。

49:10
The archive is alive. It's got a heartbeat to it. It reflects the dynamics of the times when these documents are coming in. It reflects the changes in society that are happening.
档案是活的。它有心跳。它反映了这些文件出现时的时代动态。它反映了正在发生的社会变化。

49:22
And administrators were madly scrambling to deal with these different dynamics.
管理人员疯狂地忙于处理这些不同的动态。

49:29
But they can be detected in the way these documents are created.
但是可以通过创建这些文档的方式检测到它们。

49:34
How they produced, how are they debated within the administration? And then, how are they sentenced to classified and circular?

它们是如何产生的，在政府内部是如何辩论的？然后，他们是如何被判分类和通告的?

49:44
And so in this sense, archives are obviously not just a repository.
所以从这个意义上说，档案馆显然不仅仅是一个仓库。

49:50
But the archives are actually a process.
但档案实际上是一个过程。

49:54
Or archiving should be considered a process, not just taking documents and putting it.
或者归档应该被视为一个过程，而不仅仅是获取文件并将其放置。

To a file and so forth. But it's actually a process of.
到一个文件等等。但这实际上是一个过程。

Were put into the decoration of the church, which is incredible, right? So, in the way the church and the chapel represents.
都用来装饰教堂，这很不可思议，对吧？所以，教堂和礼拜堂所代表的。

51:09
In many ways, the designs and so forth, are product of that society, of that locale, you know, of that particular space.
在很多方面，这些设计等等，都是那个社会，那个地方，那个特定空间的产物。

51:20
So too are the documents in the product of the archive, just as the paintings and the shells and the different decorations of the church.
档案馆里的文件也是如此，就像绘画、贝壳和教堂的各种装饰一样。

51:33
Represents the way in which that particular chapel was.
代表了那个教堂曾经的样子。

51:40
I need to imagine. So too are the forms of prose, the repetition, the way the words are used, the way the arguments are put the practice of confidentiality and classification.
我需要想象。散文的形式，重复，用词的方式，论点的方式保密和分类的做法也是如此。

Reveal practices of governance, reveals the way the.
揭示治理的实践，揭示治理的方式。

这些国家是如何如此容易你可以看到我们刚刚谈论的相同的事情，你知道，企业环境，你知道，你如何看到同样的事情来找出故事。

52:23
You know, of a company, you know, or, as I mentioned, I had a colleague

我的同事查阅了部门的文件，因为这个部门。

这实际上是内部问题，这就是我们这么做的原因，这也使他能够说，嗯，什么是当时的优先事项。

53:29
For the University of the Department of History, you know, around 1960, and it tells us what they were thinking of. So the similar way, you can dive into your archives.
在1960年左右的大学历史系，它告诉我们他们在想什么。同样的方法，你可以潜入你的档案。

53:53
Competing truth claims. You know, you can have many truths at once in different departments, different ideas. Competing, also, competing competition going on within the Colonial State.
相互竞争的真理主张。你知道，在不同的部门，不同的想法中，你可以同时拥有很多真理。竞争，竞争，竞争在殖民国家内部进行着。

54:05
For funding, for approval for stature, sometimes in the Department of Labor, and competing with the Department of Transportation, you know, to get funds from such a government and so forth. So you have these sorts of.

对她不利，但她会解决的。你知道，这是一个非常，非常。

01:06:50
It's a very intense kind of approach, but I've seen other scholars do that. They anticipate where the critique will come in, and so they bring that critique, and then they resolve It.
这是一种非常激烈的方法，但我见过其他学者这样做。他们预料到批评会出现在哪里，所以他们会提出批评，然后解决问题。

01:07:02
But they have to attempt to resolve it. But that requires, I mean, that requires a real command of all the literature that's out there, but also.
但他们必须尝试解决这个问题。但这需要，我的意思是，这需要真正掌握所有的文学作品，而且。

01:07:11
A command of really thinking about it. How do these entry points for other scholars that might come in? How might they engage when I'm saying?
一种真正思考的命令。对于其他可能进入的学者来说这些切入点是什么呢?当我说这些话的时候，他们会怎么做?

01:07:22
And how might I respond to it, you know? So that is. So then chapter two, she really sort of does it. And, well, it becomes overwhelming. So when I first read it as a grad student.
我该如何回应呢？这就是。在第二章中，她真的做到了。然后，它变得势不可挡。所以当我还是研究生的时候第一次读到这本书。

哥伦比亚大学，后来被收购了。所以密歇根大学失去了大约四分之三，四分之一的人类学系。然后是哥伦比亚大学，世界第一。

01:08:23
That's by buying. But the point is that the writing, it's hard, actually, I mean, it's hard to read sometimes. So don't worry so much if.
这是通过购买。但重点是，写作很难，实际上，我的意思是，有时很难读懂。所以不要太担心。

01:08:33

Like we first read Yale and then Reallo and then kind of sort of set the ground up for this, like we heard in the philosophy class. That's like Western philosophy is really footload of.
就像我们先读了耶鲁，然后读了雷罗，然后为这个奠定了基础，就像我们在哲学课上听到的那样。这就像西方哲学一样。

01:19:36
Plot plateau. So it's like the same thing, like Michael Moss is discussing first Trilo and then majoring to his argument. Here also a store also discussing Trilo.

高原的阴谋。这就像迈克尔·莫斯先讨论《三重奏》然后再讨论他的论点一样。这里还有一家商店也在讨论Trilo。

01:19:47
Then, like reading through in the second class, and then Yale at the first class. I think this sets all around work for everything. And the first, in the first lecture, like.
然后，在第二节课上通读，然后在第一节课上读耶鲁。我认为这为所有事情奠定了基础。第一节课，就像。

01:19:56
In the Trilos book, we first got to know about the Leader and FOCO and data. And then there's, like, insanely popular in Calder in my city, like, it, isn't it? Strange phenomenon. People do not know about the complex theories of the leader, but they know his name. they.
在《Trilos》一书中，我们首先了解了Leader、FOCO和数据。在我的城市里，考尔德非常受欢迎，对吧？奇怪的现象。人们不知道领导人的复杂理论，但他们知道他的名字。他们。

01:20:12
That came to calculus sometimes, and is intense crowd was there. So, like, we kind of grew up in a inner city, which always, like, in a funny way, says, like, calcutta has three da dadas been elder brother.
这是微积分课上的话题，当时有很多人在那里。我们是在市中心长大的，很有趣的是，加尔各答有三个爸爸当哥哥。

01:20:23
Border, the elder brother, maysta, the middle brother, and there is another one around. So from there, I guess, like, I mean, having an idea of Shareda, and later's idea.
Border，哥哥，maysta，老二，还有一个。所以从那时起，我想，我的意思是，有了Shareda的想法，后来的想法。

01:20:34

In the first class. I think this kind of sets the I mean, we skipped a lot, we skipped a lot, and we only just touched data. We just touched.
在第一堂课。我认为这种设置我的意思是，我们跳过了很多，我们跳过了很多，我们只接触了数据。我们只是碰了一下。

椰子树。理想情况下，我们是杀了他，但是。

01:20:44
This is not a two semester class. But part of that was because when I finally read still, I had none of that. So what you're seeing here, the emotive that's behind the class.
这不是一个两个学期的课程。但部分原因是，当我终于读到静止时，我没有那种感觉。所以你看到这里,背后的情感类。

01:20:57

当我还是研究生的时候，坦白说，我仍然知道。所以我设立这个网站的原因，其实不是为了你们。这反映了我和我自己的弱点。和。

01:21:17
As a scholar. So in a way, that's the method, the method's actually coming out in the design of the class.
作为一个学者。某种程度上，这就是这个方法，这个方法实际上是在类的设计中出现的。

01:21:23
So that, hopefully there's some stuff you guys can grasp, you know, for reading real stolen, which is this pretty dead stuff. I think it's on the same line as actually get, in the sense that.
所以，希望你们能掌握一些东西，你们知道，为了阅读真正的被盗，这些都是很死的东西。我认为它和实际得到的是同一条线，在某种意义上。 who help kids records like increasing conditions, but for generations to source them against later, no one.

这就是他们无法获得很多资源的地方。因为谁会帮助孩子们记录不断增加的条件，但对于几代人来说，没有人会去找他们。

01:22:46
So instead of just like letting this silence go on, in a sense that, in a way, we have to find creative sources to engage with available material.
所以，与其让这种沉默继续下去，在某种意义上，我们必须找到创造性的资源来利用现有的材料。

01:22:57

去相信一点，去阅读，去思考你能建构什么。部分原因是她在回应对后结构主义的批判。你们把一切都毁了。

01:24:01
So what are you creating? You are creating this.
那么你在创造什么呢？你正在创造这个。

对吧?我们是如何理解这段历史的。那你在重建什么呢？你知道吗?所以我们可以对苹果笔记本电脑进行逆向工程。

01:24:54
But what are we doing?
但是我们在做什么呢?

01:24:55

所以我们可以除法。我想世界上大概有四种人。

01:25:40
Like, like you five over there and, like, you five over there, you four, year and you four, year.

01:26:48
Studying the colonial subjects, and that's never complete.
研究殖民地的臣民，这是不完整的。

01:26:54
So your keyword is that incomplete and imposition. I think that's the same for me, because I think that's like, because.
所以你的关键词就是不完整和强加。我觉得这对我来说是一样的，因为我觉得这就像，因为。

01:27:06
Like you only have assumption when you don't have the date, have to prove for this group. So I think this is this assumption we don't have.

他们在做文件。为了制作这个文档，他们假设了一些东西。现在，当他们假设某件事的时候，当历史学家研究这一现象的时候，他们是在恢复某件事，以便制作一份文件。

就像你说的，我认为对社会的主要想象中最糟糕的是社会想象。

01:30:02
It's like social imagination. It's just like, which means that society, I guess, also participated in imagination. So I think it's a bit of the imagination of society, or the projection of an idea.
这就像社会想象。这就像，这意味着社会，我想，也参与了想象。所以我认为这是社会的想象，或者是一种想法的投射。

01:30:17

Then realities of olient. This is a very class activity. Do you have?
然后现实是暴力的。这是一个很有班级特色的活动。你有吗?

01:30:45
But I'm thinking about the process like that.
但我想的是这样的过程。

What the document makes sense.
文档有什么意义。

01:31:22
So accessible.
所以访问。

01:32:00
Making documents into have some meaning of a document, I think. So I haven't been able to accumulate my thought.
我认为，把文件变成有意义的文件。所以我还没能积累我的思想。

01:32:17
I was just thinking like, okay, this assumption, like, without this assumption of a clothing officer, would the document still make sense?
我只是在想，好吧，这个假设，如果没有服装官员的假设，这份文件还能说得通吗?

01:32:25
But, I mean, in order to make some exemption, you need to have some information as well, because you cannot do a random assume something.
但是，我的意思是，为了得到豁免，你还需要一些信息，因为你不能随机假设一些事情。

01:32:35
That's the core of assumptions. You have to have some sort of information to ground your assumption. I mean, I can. So that is my point, like information, which is not.
这是假设的核心。你必须有一些信息来支撑你的假设。我是说，我可以。这就是我的观点，就像信息一样，不是。

01:32:51
Complete, which is not concrete, but some information has to exist in order to like create the assumption in the first place.

完整的，不是具体的，但是一些信息必须存在才能首先创造假设。

01:32:59
So what the views he was doing is like a classic colonial exercise. They're collecting information, then they're kind of sort of rationalized the information. Now, the problem is not the collection of information, the rationalizing of information, because they are rationalized.
所以他所做的观点就像一个经典的殖民练习。他们收集信息，然后把这些信息合理化。现在，问题不在于信息的收集，信息的合理化，因为它们是合理化的。

01:33:15
It, according to Western thought trusts. Think about that. You have information ABCD. Now you're trying to create a pattern like ACBD, etc. Now, when you try to create a pattern, you apply your own thought.
根据西方的思想，这是信任。想想看。你有ABCD信息。现在您正在尝试创建像ACBD之类的模式。现在，当你试图创造一个模式时，你运用你自己的想法。

Now, when the Views is applying their own Western thought in order to, like, make a categorization, they're kind of succumbed to the.
现在，当这些观点运用他们自己的西方思想来进行分类时，他们有点屈从于。

01:33:40
Problem that is false assumption or preconsideracy. That's what I'm saying.
错误的假设或预先考虑的问题。这就是我要说的。

01:33:46
Because you just cannot randomly assume something.
因为你不能随便假设。

01:33:50
To have some sort of.
有某种。

01:34:00
Go on. Go on anything. Anything. I mean, anything is fine. We are also very, like, confused. Just just go on anything.
继续。去做任何事。任何东西。我是说，什么都可以。我们也很困惑。随便什么都行。

01:34:08
I know your ideas. So you mean, maybe we have some different.
我知道你的想法。所以你的意思是，也许我们有一些不同。

01:34:18
Position to select the information.
位置选择信息。

01:34:25
That's another introduction.
这是另一个介绍。

01:34:31
So, but, I mean, what kind of interpretation, just just to cooperate?
所以，我是说，什么样的解释，只是为了合作吗?

01:34:40
And I think how, how to say, um.
我在想，该怎么说。

01:34:46
For the Colonial They may have their own position. They may show some a position which is useful for them to manage the people in.
他们可能有自己的立场。他们可能会展示一些对他们管理人员有用的位置。

01:35:02
So, um.
所以,嗯。

01:35:05
So it may be, in fact, their thinking of choosing the information and protecting the argument.
所以，事实上，这可能是他们选择信息和保护论点的想法。

01:35:24
Of course. I mean, if you want to interpret some data, you will apply your own that's what I just think.
当然可以。我的意思是，如果你想解释一些数据，你会用你自己的，这就是我的想法。

01:35:44
So that is that number three, right? Number three. We can agree with that Number three.
这是数字3，对吧？3号。我们可以同意第三点。

01:35:53
Do you have something? No.
你有什么消息吗？否。

01:35:57
No, we are assigned with question three.
不，我们要做第三题。

01:36:52
Okay. So basically, I guess project is that I think the colonial government is a rule that.
好吧。所以基本上，我认为我认为殖民政府是一种规则。

01:37:06
Civil servant that the prospective civil servants need to earn a degree in the delegates to advance in their career. So.

公务员，未来的公务员需要在代表中获得学位，以促进他们的职业生涯。所以。

01:37:17
So this guy discriminated and then, like the local people in protest, and turn out like the guy, like a colonial of a hiring.
所以这个人歧视了，然后，像当地人一样抗议，结果像这个人一样，像一个雇佣的殖民地。

01:37:28
I think it's in chapter. So.
我想应该是在章节里。所以。

01:38:02
No, it's not about the.
不，这不是关于。

01:38:08
That's just impossible. Like I read it every three.
那是不可能的。就像我每三次读一次一样。

Okay.
好吧。

01:38:36
Previous.
以前的。

01:38:43
Comments. Think about it.
评论。想想看。

01:38:57

Organize things.
组织的事情。

01:39:03
They organize their archives so well, and this is very easy for this government to get into the archive. With that, my set the assumptions for that, I think this is my.
他们把档案整理得很好，政府很容易就能进入档案。有了这个，我的假设，我想这是我的。

01:39:21
Very structural, very well organized. So I think it's a cheap story. It's expected to think that.
非常有结构，非常有组织。所以我认为这是一个廉价的故事。这是预料之中的。

01:39:46
This is very much.
这是非常多的。

01:39:58
You show us that how the?
你告诉我们那是怎么回事?

01:40:10
Get to worry. This is so uncertainty.
开始担心了。这就是不确定性。

01:40:18
I mean, I can say there is a classic methodology exist in history.
我的意思是，我可以说历史上存在着一种经典的方法论。

01:40:31
You know, the other two professors, it talked about it talked about the historians. The best job promoted the professor was talking about subortant studies and how to study construction.

你们知道，另外两位教授，他们谈到了历史学家。最好的工作晋升教授谈论重要的研究和如何研究建设。

01:40:46
We are discussing about polo and electro it and everything. So, the deepest document, he had a like, famous thesis on this, quite provincializing. You.
我们在讨论马球，电吉他等等。因此，最深刻的文献，他有一个类似的，著名的关于这个的论文，相当偏狭。你。

01:40:59
It means that the very notion of writing history has been very much Euro, central Europe has been the center of knowledge production. So the historians, what they inevitably do is that They.
这意味着书写历史的概念在很大程度上是欧洲的，中欧一直是知识生产的中心。所以历史学家，他们不可避免地会。

01:41:14
Construct history according to the things and parameters set by Europe. But Europe was not the center of the art. Europe was one of the meaning construction.
根据欧洲设定的事物和参数来建构历史。但欧洲并不是艺术的中心。欧洲是一个有意义的建筑。

01:41:24
Like in Asian history, south Asia and Southeast Asia, like you cannot imagine perfectly rational state, free of emotional.
就像在亚洲历史上，南亚和东南亚，就像你无法想象的完全理性的状态，没有情感。

01:41:39
Like Williams, we are deeply emotional people. For us, emotion trumps everything, like we think there is a rational legislation.
和威廉姆斯一样，我们都是非常情绪化的人。对我们来说，情感胜过一切，

就像我们认为有一个理性的立法。

01:41:47
People will protest if that hurt their sentiments. I guess that's kind of same in the case of Indonesia or Vietnam or other Asian countries.
如果这伤害了他们的感情，人们会抗议的。我想这和印度尼西亚、越南或其他亚洲国家的情况差不多。

01:41:57
So this is a fundamental way of viewing a rational state as something which is not European in position, but in construct where, like the government had to take in practice.
所以这是一种看待理性国家的基本方式它不是欧洲式的，而是一种结构，就像政府必须在实践中采取的那样。

01:42:12
Factors such as emotions and.
诸如情绪和。

01:42:16
Writing and social barriers, which would otherwise not be a vital part.
写作和社交障碍，否则这些都不是很重要的部分。

01:42:23
Like if you look at the European government, it's an European country.
如果你看看欧洲政府，它是一个欧洲国家。

01:42:36
That can produce law without thinking if that hurts the sentiment of the people. But you cannot do the same in, let's say, india.
如果不考虑是否伤害了人民的感情，就可以制定法律。但你不能在印度做同样的事情。

01:42:46
Because in India, even if that law is very like logical and perfectly rational, it might hurt some people's sentiment. Okay? So this sentimentality, or this emotional?

因为在印度，即使这项法律非常合乎逻辑，完全合理，也可能会伤害一些人的感情。好吧?是多愁善感，还是情绪化?

01:43:01
Anxieties. This constitutes a very vital part of the rational states exercise, like making law governing people.
焦虑。这构成了理性国家实践的一个非常重要的部分，就像制定法律治理人民一样。

01:43:11
You need to take into account that we are not governing just robots. We are governing people who have emotions.
你需要考虑到，我们不仅仅是在管理机器人。我们统治的是有情感的人。

01:43:20
So the argument that if you're saying, I'm a national that's a feeling, and like.
所以如果你说，我是一个国民这是一种感觉，喜欢。

01:43:32
And how do they spot it? Because, from my perspective, I think that's very like neo colonial, and that's very like.
他们是怎么发现的？因为，从我的角度来看，我认为这很像新殖民主义，这很像。

01:43:45
Generalize. I mean, it's actually true. It sounds kind of an epologial, but.
概括。我是说，这是真的。听起来像是在道歉，但是。

01:43:51
The history, of course.
当然是历史。

01:43:58
It's not my argument. But, I mean, there's, there's some, sort of, like, there's some sort of drawing a line which can say that.
这不是我的论点。但是，我的意思是，有一些，有一些，就像，有一些划清界限可以说明这一点。

01:44:09
You cannot govern an Asian country the same way you can govern an European country. That's the whole point.
你不能用管理欧洲国家的方式来管理一个亚洲国家。这才是重点。

01:44:17
Racist. But, no, it's not, you understand.
种族主义者。但是，不，不是的，你懂的。

01:44:27
Two countries are not in that sense equal. So if you want to govern country a it has its sort of like heritage history and foundations and laws and people.
两个国家在这个意义上是不平等的。所以，如果你想治理一个国家，它有自己的传统、历史、基础、法律和人民。

01:44:45
Sentiment. If you can govern a country B, you cannot just apply country a's theory into country b's. It's not possible.
情绪。如果你能治理B国，你就不能把a国的理论套用到B国。这是不可能的。

01:44:55
So you need to understand the difference between country A and country B. So.
所以你需要了解A国和b国之间的区别。

01:45:00
Very constructions of history often suffers from this imposing like we see writing history how it happened in Europe. And we are kind of applying the same technique into Asian, in Asian history, african history, or any other part of.

历史的建构常常受到这种影响就像我们在书写欧洲历史时看到的那样。我们把同样的技术应用到亚洲，亚洲历史，非洲历史，或者其他任何部分。

01:45:15
Okay. So let's say, if you are with, like, assessing the European history at the same time, the history of incomes in South America, so that India was a very, fundamentally different society. You cannot just apply.
好吧。比方说，如果你同时评估欧洲的历史，南美的收入历史，那么印度是一个完全不同的社会。你不能只是申请。

01:45:30
The European technique into writing in guys. So that's what we are to say. It's not racism. It's just like acknowledging the difference between two cultures.
欧洲人的写作技巧。这就是我们要说的。这不是种族主义。这就像承认两种文化之间的差异。

01:45:40
But there's no, I think the other is Asian culture and European culture.
但是没有，我认为另一个是亚洲文化和欧洲文化。

01:45:49
It's about variations, of course, like, it's not normal thing. It's not something like the total constructions. There are variations. There are like, other issues in India and Pakistan.
当然，这是关于变化的，就像，这不是正常的事情。它不像整体结构。有不同的版本。印度和巴基斯坦还有其他问题。

01:46:01
So what sort of?
那是什么样的呢?

01:46:12

Like feelings, attachment anxieties. These are not often addressed by the colonial state.
喜欢感情，依恋焦虑。殖民国家通常不会解决这些问题。

01:46:25
The colonial power normally group one. Now that's one.
殖民势力通常是第一集团。这是一个。

01:46:30
You were asked to think about what changes when we treat Colonial Archives.
你被要求思考当我们处理殖民档案时有什么变化。

01:46:38
As part of the reduction of condom knowledge and rule.
作为减少避孕套知识和规则的一部分。

01:46:42
Rather than simply the sources about the facts.
而不仅仅是事实的来源。

01:46:45
This should be at the tips.
这应该是在小费。

01:46:47
Very easy to What do you guys go there?
很容易你们去那里做什么?

01:46:52
The R and the story. And you see.
R和故事。你看。

01:46:55
We don't see.

我们看不见。

01:46:56
Perhaps more of the study.
也许是更多的研究。

01:47:01
Exercise and.
和锻炼。

01:47:03
Because the Colonial archive is created by the human or by the official government. So it's kind of like the colonial government will pick in what type.
因为殖民档案是由人类或官方政府创建的。这就像是殖民政府会选择哪种类型。

01:47:19
Of the story that they want to tell. And so this means, like we need, more critically, I'm using the different sources to to combine, or to not combine, but debatable between the common archive and the local archive, like I'm.
他们想要讲述的故事。所以这意味着，我们需要，更重要的是，我正在使用不同的资源来组合，或者不组合，但在公共档案和本地档案之间存在争议，就像我一样。

01:47:34
Did when I do my research in the Theoma Wacon Organization as a Chinese organization in that.
当我在Theoma Wacon组织作为一个中国组织做研究的时候。

01:47:40
Colonial Period. I'm not used only using the Colonial card from.
殖民时期。我不习惯只使用殖民卡。

01:47:45

Like a newspaper that produced by the Dutch government, but I'm using that for no when the government allowed the recession.
比如荷兰政府发行的报纸，但我用它来表示政府允许经济衰退。

01:47:56
So growing up, and they were anything else. But I'm also using our friends that, you know, we find.
所以在成长过程中，他们是其他任何东西。但我也在利用我们的朋友，你知道，我们找到的。

01:48:02
Like book, like, are there documented stuff to to make some better? But in to.
比如书，比如，有没有记录在案的东西来做得更好？但在。

01:48:10
So it's been like we didn't need simple simply using the Colonial source, but we need to make some critically.
所以我们并不需要简单地使用Colonial的资源，我们需要做一些批判性的工作。

01:48:21
Good, other aspects that you guys come up with.
很好，你们想到的其他方面。

01:48:28
For me, it's about how we humanize the act, because.
对我来说，重要的是我们如何让这种行为人性化，因为。

01:48:35
By using this way of reading the archive.
通过这种方式阅读档案。

01:48:39
A lot of the grades, we recognize that are officials networking in the institutions. So we are like going back a bit.

我们认识到，很多成绩都是学校里的官员关系网。所以我们要往回走一点。

01:48:50
And then see how these impact created by people that may be facing some confusion and society. And then when they read.
然后看看这些影响是如何产生的，人们可能会面临一些困惑和社会。然后当他们阅读的时候。

Is registered. They try to run away from the problems, E.G.?
登记。他们试图逃避问题，例如?

01:49:02
So it's it.
就是这样。

01:49:04
It makes us as absolutely in the system, more empathy.
它让我们完全融入这个体系，更有同理心。

01:49:09
Has a bit to the.
有点像。

01:49:11
Only about the information between the.
只有关于信息之间的。

01:49:13
Any other aspects. This might be a little bit off topic, because it reminds me, like, how we approach authenticity topics when it comes to your study. Because.
还有其他方面吗？这可能有点跑题了，因为这让我想起，当涉及到你的研究时，我们是如何处理真实性主题的。因为。

01:49:28
In the previous like more traditional approach, we do, like scavenge hunting archives, like picking out what's up to, I think, sorry, our interest. And.
在之前更传统的方法中，我们会，像搜集狩猎档案，像挑选出我们感兴趣的东西。和。

01:49:40
Like try to piece up piece of what happens. It's like making a puzzle, but by going back to the institution side and like deconstructing the.
比如试着把发生的事情拼凑起来。这就像做一个谜题，但通过回到制度的一面，解构。

01:49:50
Government into humanized factions. It's like creating another level of authenticity is also what happened.
政府变成了人性化的派系。这就像是创造了另一个层次的真实性。

01:50:00
But it's not exactly like, like the history timeline or the facts milestones that we approach. It's like a more linear, bureaucratic like.
但它不完全像，历史时间轴或我们接近的事实里程碑。更像是线性的，官僚主义的。

01:50:09
It's a more complicated process, but it's also real. It's also existing, but it's not something you are used to listening to. And, like.
这是一个更复杂的过程，但也是真实的。它也是存在的，但不是你习惯听的东西。,就像。

It's a good point. Anyway, you can.
说得好。不管怎样，你可以。

01:50:21

We're not just looking at.
我们不只是在看。

01:50:24
This group of people.
这群人。

01:50:25
So what happens more?
那么发生更多的是什么呢?

01:50:28
With events work now, but we're actually studying this group of people, like a community, like a society. So it's like looking at the archive.
我们现在研究的是一群人，就像一个社区，一个社会。这就像在看档案。

01:50:38
You know, using, basically looking at as a social grouping, as a social entity, looking at the archive as.
你知道，基本上把它看作一个社会群体，一个社会实体，把档案看作。

01:50:46
Of a community of some sort. And so it's commenting on their behavior, of their mindsets. It's like most of the way ethnographers study.
一个社区的成员。所以这是在评论他们的行为，他们的心态。这和大多数民族志学家的研究方式一样。

01:50:57
An ethnic group or a religious group, or.
一个民族或一个宗教团体，或者。

01:51:01
An occupational group or a gender group, you know, whatever it's like. How do they think? How do they behave? How do they understand themselves in relation to other people?

职业群体或性别群体，你知道的，不管是什么。他们是怎么想的？他们的行为如何？他们如何理解自己与他人的关系？

01:51:11
She's taking those techniques and applying it to the Coney administrators, and then saying, well, what was important to them?
她把这些技巧应用到康尼的管理人员身上，然后说，对他们来说什么是重要的？

01:51:19
What was scary to them, you know, what do they do to deal with that fear, you know? And so that, in a way, is what?
什么对他们来说是可怕的，他们是怎么处理这种恐惧的？在某种程度上，这是什么？

01:51:29
Saying, these are all documents are revealing. It's revealing the life, ways, the worldviews, things.
说，这些都是文件所揭示的。它揭示了生活、方式、世界观和事物。

01:51:36
The ideas of what life meant for the people who are writing these documents and organizing them.
对于撰写和组织这些文件的人来说，生活意味着什么。

01:51:44
I actually got a little bit curiosity here because, like in more traditional ethnographic approach, there is a lot of, like, conversations, interviews, like.
我其实有点好奇，因为，在更传统的人种学方法中，有很多，比如，对话，采访，比如。

01:51:54
Researchers might encounter and interact with actual people. So in this case, it's only like files, like everyone is basically bad, almost like one assignment. So would this also compromise the social science approach.

研究人员可能会遇到真人并与之互动。在这种情况下，就像文件一样，每个人基本上都很糟糕，几乎就像一个作业。这也会损害社会科学的方法吗?

01:52:07
Which is validity or, like, would it be a little bit less functional interest? So it's different from sort of classic anthropology.
哪个是有效性，或者，它是不是不那么具有功能性？所以它不同于经典人类学。

01:52:16
You're not looking at living people, I suppose, but you're looking at the remnants their races, you know, their artifacts.
我想，你不是在看活人，而是在看遗迹他们的种族，他们的人工制品。

01:52:23
So it's slightly different, you're right, and it doesn't.
所以有一点不同，你是对的，它没有。

01:52:28
It doesn't reduce or diminish the.
它不会减少或减少。

01:52:32
The credibility of the approach.
方法的可信度。

01:52:36
It does highlight the difference that you can study.
它确实突出了你可以学习的差异。

01:52:39
People per se, like an anthropologist would or an urban sociologist would. It's more like archaeology, exactly the artifacts.
人本身，就像人类学家或城市社会学家一样。这更像是考古学，那些文物。

01:52:49
That are left in in the article. So this is the Social Science.
都留在了文章里。这就是社会科学。

01:52:53
In that respect. And.
在这方面。和。

01:52:56
What I was going to say was the.
我想说的是。

01:52:59
Anyone put out the video you, please?
有人把你的视频放出来了吗?

01:53:03
But your right to point out, actually, is the interdispenarity.
但你有权指出，实际上，这是一种互补性。

01:53:06
But it's not quite that. And others I was going to say is that this was first, in the sense, sort of.
但事实并非如此。我想说的是，这是第一次，在某种意义上。

01:53:12
This idea of looking at Colonial society as a village.
把殖民地社会看作一个村庄。

01:53:19
Or, like the way anthropologists studies, like other societies of other places. And this is, this is where the colonism, you know, anthropology is a discipline.
或者，像人类学家研究的那样，像其他地方的其他社会。这就是殖民主义，

人类学是一门学科。

01:53:28
Was also very much tied into the colonial enterprise. And the Beget Go. It was almost a discipline that was created by colonial administrations because they needed to find out about.
也与殖民事业紧密相连。还有begget Go。这几乎是殖民政府创建的一门学科，因为他们需要了解。

01:53:39
The people, they were ruling the societies, and how they function. So this was a term, I mean, this was a critique that emerged in the eighties and nineties about.
人民，他们统治着社会，以及社会如何运作。所以这是一个术语，我的意思是，这是在八九十年代出现的一种批评。

01:53:49
The uncomfortable implications of what anthropologists do right?
人类学家做对了什么会带来什么不舒服的影响?

01:53:54
And a guy named Vernard Cohn wrote about it. This was a great volume about the production of knowledge. I mean, one book was called The Anthropologist Amongst Historians, where you start Showing.
一个叫Vernard Cohn的人写过。这是一本关于知识生产的巨著。我的意思是，有一本书叫做《历史学家中的人类学家》，你开始展示。

01:54:05
You know how anthropology can study Colonial Society. You know?
你知道人类学是如何研究殖民社会的。你知道吗?

01:54:09
Because, in a way, it was not just being neglected, because it was just, oh, well, these are, these are that prices.
因为，在某种程度上，这不仅仅是被忽视了，因为它只是，哦，这些是，这

些是价格。

01:54:16
Stuff around the box. So actually.
盒子周围的东西。因此,实际上。

01:54:18
Need to look at it. You know, it's almost way I was thinking. It was kind of like.
需要看看它。你知道，这几乎就是我的想法。这有点像。

01:54:22
Doesn't, it's like, kind of like the way we think about studying the Spanish society, you know, it's called society, but it's some mixed up now.
不是吗，这有点像我们研究西班牙社会的方式，你知道，西班牙被称为社会，但现在有些混淆了。

01:54:29
In them, sort of local traditions and so forth. It's actually its own society, right? Very calm. So it's got two books out. One is an Anthropology Amongst the Storage, a bunch of essays. The other one is.
其中有一些地方传统等等。它实际上是自己的社会，对吧？非常平静。它出了两本书。一本是《储藏中的人类学》，是一堆论文。另一个是。

01:54:41
Knowledge and knowledge production about British India. Basically, it's a really good talks about these different ways of studying. And the thing is, you can take this.
关于英属印度的知识和知识生产。基本上，这是一个很好的关于这些不同学习方式的演讲。问题是，你可以拿着这个。

01:54:51
These approaches and talk with the contemporary, you know, or talk about other moments in the past, even, I would argue.
这些方法和当代的讨论，或者讨论过去的其他时刻，我认为。

01:54:59
Was it the Han or preaching area, period, you know? Because what you can actually study are actually one of the ways.
是汉人区还是布道区？因为你实际上可以学习的是其中一种方法。

01:55:08
You know, archives of museums and artifacts have been constructed to the present. You know.
你知道，博物馆和文物的档案已经建立到现在。你知道的。

01:55:14
Because we're talking about, like, introduciary approach. So I want to share, like some of my data about, I think, the atropology of the ethography approach in the writing.
因为我们说的是入门的方法。所以我想和大家分享，我的一些数据，我认为，是关于人种学方法在写作中的人类学。

01:55:29
So I think I, one thing I picked up is that, so in anthropology, as you said, like we now maybe we don't write study data. We also write study app. We study saiway.
所以我想，我注意到的一点是，在人类学中，就像你说的，我们现在可能不写研究数据。我们也编写学习应用程序。

01:55:41
Right? So I think, like, by examining, like, the colonial government, I think scholar is also, like, study up. And that's one thing. And another thing is that, like in anthropology, I Think.
对吧?所以我认为，通过研究殖民政府，我认为学者也应该学习。这是一件事。另一件事是，就像人类学一样。

01:55:53
Now people are showing that, like, writing is not only an instrument to express idea, but writing itself is also an expression.

现在人们正在表明，写作不仅是表达思想的工具，而且写作本身也是一种表达。

01:56:04
Like E.G., like, there are some scholar who, like, whose writing is really difficult to understand, but because, like, they can have, like, the repetition, like a very fragmented syntax, or, like.
比如，有一些学者，他们的作品真的很难理解，但是因为，他们可能有重复，像一个非常碎片化的语法，或者。

01:56:17
Like the shape of voice in the writing. And it's not like.
就像文字中声音的形状。这不是。

01:56:22
It's not because of the incompetence, but it's a deliberate choice because they want to write against like.
这并不是因为他们的无能，而是他们刻意的选择，因为他们想写反对的东西。

01:56:33
Colonial and, you know, matriarchal convention of writing. So I think, like, when scholar examine a cable record, she also point out, you know, let's look at, like, the writing itself, and, you know, what is it trying to communicate?
殖民时期，还有母系氏族的写作惯例。所以我认为，当学者研究电报记录时，她也会指出，让我们看看，比如，文字本身，它想要传达什么？

01:56:48
And who and who within which groups are communicating each other, because the writing changes depending on the relationship.
谁和谁在哪个群体中相互交流，因为文字的变化取决于关系。

你知道，如果你和高层的人说话，你的阅读会变得更正式。但有时在内部通信中，它是非常口语化的。就像，你知道，这里有一点音符，所以你完全正确。

01:57:09
That studying the language use. It's like studying, you know, why do they switch between honorific language and more colloquial language in certain settings? It's the same thing here.
学习语言的用法。这就像在研究，为什么在特定的环境下，他们会在敬语和口语之间切换？这里也是一样的。

01:57:19
But you're looking at it in the archival record. So this is where the anthro and the history are sort of coming together.
但你在看档案记录。这就是人类和历史交汇的地方。

01:57:26
And what it does is it allows us to engage the colonial archives in a way that, in the past generations might have shunned it.
它所做的就是让我们以一种过去几代人可能会回避的方式接触殖民档案。

01:57:35
Because, you know, it was European. It wasn't getting to the indigenous sources. It wasn't getting into the interest.

观点，这是真的。它不是。这就是为什么这是封闭后的研究。从某种意义上说，这是殖民主义的回归。

01:57:51
So if we start off, when we think about the history, the history of history, right? We have.
所以如果我们开始，当我们想到历史，历史的历史，对吧？我们有。

01:57:57
Of, say, southeast Asia or Asia. You have colonial, okay? You have pre, colonial manuscripts and chronicles and so forth. You have very, you know, western distort historians coming in with colonial.
比如东南亚或亚洲。你有殖民主义，对吧？你有殖民前的手稿和编年史等等。你知道，西方的历史学家歪曲了殖民主义。

01:58:10
Sort of like Colonial perspectives. And the technical shift. There's a shift to a new school, national school, which they keep the same.
有点像殖民时期的观点。还有技术上的转变。有一所新的学校，国立学校，他们保持不变。

01:58:19

然后是区域研究，我说，等一下。我们需要让它更加自主。我们需要看看当地行动者的代理。和。

01:58:33
And look at Southeast Asian or Asian conceptions of the world. We're not using the categories of the colonial stuff, right? So there's a real push against collision. That's why people are saying they don't want to use Colonial sources.

看看东南亚或亚洲人对世界的看法。我们没有使用殖民时期的分类，对吧？所以有一个真正的推力来防止碰撞。这就是为什么人们说他们不想使用殖民时期的资料。

01:58:46
But then after area studies, we had the Post Quodium. It's a return to the colonial sources, but they're looking at them differently now. So that's kind of where we were in the 1990s.
但是在区域研究之后，我们有了Post Quodium。这是对殖民时期的回归，但他们现在看待它们的方式不同了。这就是我们在20世纪90年代的情况。

01:58:57
Actually now, and say, the 2020s, we're in a state where, at least my interpretation seems to be.
实际上，现在，比如说，21世纪20年代，我们处于这样一个状态，至少我的解释是这样的。

01:59:05
It seems to be that we're in a state where what we understand as Southeast Asia is being complicated. Now, there isn't this sense of a sort of.
似乎我们所处的状态让我们对东南亚的理解变得复杂起来。现在，没有这种感觉。

01:59:14
Distinct Southeast Asian culture. It's actually mixed up and entangled with all sorts of Asian culture and West Asian culture and South Asian culture. So the distinctions of the area studies.
独特的东南亚文化。它实际上与各种各样的亚洲文化、西亚文化和南亚文化混合在一起。这就是区域研究的区别。

If we're going to find new value in national systems, just as we found value in the clothing stores coming from, we're going to re look at national histories, I think.
如果我们要在国家体系中发现新的价值，就像我们在服装店中发现价值一样，我认为我们要重新审视国家的历史。

01:59:47
And I'm kind of also trying to push it too, but I'm doing it through public history. There's a whole other class, a whole other topic, but.
我也在努力推动它，但我是通过公共历史来做的。这是另一门课，另一个话题，但是。

比如殖民当局对种族当局做出了一些假设对社会差异至关重要。当我们研究这些假设时。

02:08:32
As a historian, we study these assumptions. There are some patterns which becomes visible. So the thing is, when they make those, when they make these assumptions.
作为一名历史学家，我们研究这些假设。有一些模式是可见的。问题是，当他们做出这些假设时。

02:08:41
Like assumptions cannot be made on any like Without any information, there had to be some sort of information based on which they are making, the assumptions on the things which are unknown, like how?
假设是不能在没有任何信息的情况下做出的，必须有某种信息作为他们做出假设的基础，对未知事物的假设，比如如何?

From the West. So it's quite kind of confusing at some moment, because a lot of things are simply, they do not exist, or simply they are not true.
来自西方。所以有时候会很困惑，因为很多事情很简单，它们不存在，或者它们不是真的。

02:09:48
But it also kind of, you know, senses as a fear of oversimplifying things or not going too much deeper and not exploring so much.

但是，你知道，这也是一种对过度简化事物的恐惧，或者不太深入，不去探索那么多。

02:09:59
And also, is that the case you think, why doesn't, why don't, why don't bureaucrats or civil servants in the colonial?
还有，你会想，为什么殖民时期的官僚和公务员不这么做?

很喜欢，这个怎么样？我们的国家语言政策是我们非常喜欢这三种语言的文本。所以你得把钱交出来。

02:10:50
So that's interesting. So, I mean, in the past, we might have thought, oh, they were there was a concerted.
这很有趣。所以，我的意思是，在过去，我们可能会想，哦，他们是有预谋的。

02:11:00
Silencing going on.
沉默还在继续。

02:11:03

我认为这也是因为，当你制定一项政策，当你实施一项政策时，比如，你给人们F，就像受COVID影响一样，对吧？所以你需要，比如。

02:11:58
Qualification, like, will qualify for the ED. So, I think, like, the categories serve, the cause was out by implementation as well. But, yes, so there's the implementation of procedures.
资格，就像，有资格获得ED。所以，我认为，就像，类别服务，原因也是由实施出来的。但是，是的，这是程序的实施。

02:12:10
Are guiding what you do and how you think and how you apply it to the situation. The problem, of course.
指导你做什么，如何思考，以及如何将其应用于实际情况。当然是问题。

02:12:18

02:13:35
Because you need an address, because always assistance, right. And state policy wants fixity, wants rooted.
因为你需要一个地址，因为总是有人帮忙，对吧。而国家政策要固定，要扎根。

02:13:42
Yes, otherwise. I mean, as critics of the state, you can't monitor, you can't survey, right? The folks who move are considered.
是的,否则。我的意思是，作为国家的批评者，你不能监督，你不能调查，对吧？搬家的人被考虑在内。

02:13:51
Dangerous in a colonial context. It's because the risk, they felt that there was a risk of.
在殖民背景下是危险的。因为风险，他们觉得有风险。

02:13:56
There's a whole study of things, basically about colonial surveillance, and it's people who moved about.
有一个完整的研究，基本上是关于殖民监视的，以及人们的迁移。

02:14:06
How much?
多少钱?

02:14:06
Sorry, it's really interesting ideas coming out here, right?
不好意思，这是很有趣的想法，对吧?

02:14:12
Is not that actually a story already addressed clearly, but what was unwritten?
这个故事不是已经讲得很清楚了，只是没有写出来吗?

02:14:23
Could be going with go without saying everyone knew it. And then second, it could be.
不用说每个人都知道就可以走了。其次，它可能是。

02:14:30
Because not yet we articulated. And then that's why.
因为我们还没讲清楚。这就是为什么。

02:14:35
It is unbitten as it could.
它尽可能不被咬伤。

02:14:36
So it doesn't take by yourself and read them stuff being written and read, which folds back into the older sort of ideas about silencing and absent.
所以你不需要自己去读别人写的和读的东西，这又回到了以前那种关于沉默和缺席的想法。

02:14:46
And so we have written some other dimension of that.
我们已经写出了它的其他维度。

02:14:50
Good. And today we have very often, many research projects about India tend to be a broadcast.
好。今天我们经常有，很多关于印度的研究项目倾向于广播。

02:15:01

But then the whole idea of cast was created by the colonial government in 1871 during the census, because the cast as an idea of wellness existed, as an idea of Jackie existed, which was.
但是1871年人口普查期间，殖民地政府创造了种姓这个概念，因为种姓是健康的象征，是杰基的象征，这是。

02:15:13
More occupation based and way more fluid than the way it was codified by the colonial government. They made it into a much stronger, you know, they were just not porous of fluid anymore.
比殖民政府编纂的方式更有占领性，也更不稳定。他们让它变得更坚固，你知道，它们不再是多孔的流体了。

02:15:24
And they even define certain categories of people as territory tubs, or, you know, which is martial race, and so on. So.
他们甚至将某些类别的人定义为领土浴盆，或者，你知道，这是军事种族，等等。所以。

02:15:36
Which it became, eventually became institutionalized, whereas it wasn't so probably just made their governance easier and also contributed to their policy of dividend rule. As long as you can.
它最终变得制度化了，然而它并没有这样可能只是使他们的管理更容易也有助于他们的股息统治政策。只要你能。

02:15:49
Everybody be a book. There's a wonderful book that was written by a colleague of the book. And so I mentioned him before, and was at the same time.
每个人都是一本书。这本书的一位同事写了一本很棒的书。我之前提到过他，同时。

02:15:58
His name was Nicholas Durfs, south Asians. He wrote a wonderful book called Casts of Mind. So it's talking about CAS and the story of CAS.

他叫尼古拉斯·杜夫斯，南亚人。他写了一本很棒的书，叫做《心灵的投射》。所以它谈论的是CAS和CAS的故事。

02:16:09
But what he has a chapter on his book called The Biography of an Archive. So it's the story of the archive that it's making its formation.
但是在他的书中有一章叫做《档案传》所以这是档案的故事，它正在形成。

02:16:18
And so so he's also talking in dialogue at the same time with her. He's scared the death of honey, too, actually.
所以他同时也在和她对话。事实上，他也害怕亲爱的的死。

02:16:24
But he had, who's the ad, alan? Who's Heckman? Who's out the the?
但他有，广告是谁，艾伦？赫克曼是谁?谁在外面?

02:16:30
The actor who played what's your name? Exactly? Looks like a model.
扮演这个角色的演员你叫什么名字？到底是什么?看起来像个模特。

02:16:37
I always said, you know.
我总是说，你知道的。

02:16:40
It's Professor Smith. But anyway, a really great book that talks about, in the case of.
我是史密斯教授。但无论如何，这是一本很棒的书，讲的是。

02:16:49
So pass of mind, really good stuff. So he was also in talking about these sorts of approaches here. So group four, you guys are asked to think about.

大家都记住了，这是很好的东西。所以他在这里也谈到了这些方法。第四组，你们要思考。

02:17:00
How does it mean the archive ethnographically affect the group?
这意味着档案在民族志上如何影响这个群体?

Um.
嗯。

02:17:07
Along the green change the questions historians ask.
沿着绿色的变化，历史学家提出了一些问题。

What?
怎么啦?

02:17:14
What do you mean by ethically along the great ethographic lecture, two different things. Not a great question, sorry.
在伟大的人种学讲座中，你所说的伦理是什么意思，这是两个不同的东西。不好意思，这不是一个好问题。

02:17:19
What do we read about our understanding? Primary role now, I say is that undergraduate means to understand the person's characteristics of the race or the background of the surrounding.
关于我们的理解，我们读到了什么？现在，我说的主要作用是本科意味着了解这个人的种族特征或周围的背景。

02:17:33
Environment, how it interacts with the surrounding environment. So for the behavior as well, such as, maybe like, how it talks to.

环境，它如何与周围环境相互作用。对于行为也是一样，比如，它是如何说话的。

02:17:42
How it talks to the federal column, like how it interacts with the states there, or your own, the people your family or nots. I look at my mail script.
它是如何与联邦政府对话的，比如它是如何与那里的州、你自己的州、你的家人或不是家人互动的。我看着我的邮件脚本。

02:17:55
All right. So that's why we speak this question into two parts. The first one is that when you read this ethnographically, it means that we're getting more to the person's types And.
好吧。这就是为什么我们把这个问题分成两部分。第一个是，当你从人种学的角度来解读这篇文章时，这意味着我们对这个人的类型有了更多的了解。

02:18:09
Kind of put spotlights into the person he or herself. So, so it's more, it's less towards the micro and more towards the.
把聚光灯放在他或她自己身上。所以它更倾向于微观而不是宏观。

02:18:18
Michael. Then the topic is about, how do we come about, how do we process, on coming appearing in the archives? Good process.
迈克尔。接下来的主题是，我们是如何出现的，我们是如何处理，出现在档案中的信息的？良好的过程。

02:18:27
So it's from this process that you're going to understand what were the emotions behind. So we're talking about this person itself. We're not talking about what the emotions behind the legs that process itself, the legs.
所以从这个过程中，你会明白背后的情感是什么。所以我们说的是这个人本身。我们不是在讨论腿背后的情感是如何处理的，腿。

02:18:41
The creation of that document. So this kind of links to question five, which is about the, what is the anxiety, or why is the emotions?
文档的创建。这和第五个问题有关，什么是焦虑，或者为什么是焦虑?

02:18:52
When that happened, and therefore when it goes so when it goes off to, given this the question to when this moment uncertainty, the anxiety is self uncertainty.
当这种情况发生的时候，当它发生的时候当它发生的时候，考虑到这个问题当这个时刻不确定，焦虑就是自我不确定。

02:19:04
So it kind of reflects, like, how, how do you not know so much about there are subjects, or, or the environment around them?
所以这反映了，你为什么不了解这些主题，或者他们周围的环境?

02:19:15
And gets too rigid, so to speak. So is this maginity as well as an anxiety that creates the archive decreases pretty much a part of its formation, isn't it? Yes.
可以说，它太死板了。所以这种创造档案的想象力和焦虑感在很大程度上减少了档案形成的一部分，不是吗？是。

02:19:27
And it doesn't have to mess with the emotions. Emotions is just one aspect of it. It could be other aspects, you know, too, that shape of the archive.
而且它不需要搅乱情绪。情感只是其中的一个方面。也可能是其他方面，比如档案的形状。

02:19:35
I mean, I took some notes about this too, just because, again, you know, reading this for, I don't know, this time, and I'm still learning things from it because.
我的意思是，我也做了一些笔记，只是因为，再一次，你知道，我不知道，

这次，我还在从中学习东西，因为。

02:19:43
Things are finally being on the process. So one of the notes I took is that she says specifically specifically, not only the point of art, that.
事情终于有进展了。我记的其中一个笔记是她特别特别地说，不仅仅是艺术的观点。

02:19:49
Is that it tends to the process of production, right? Or relations of power, which is something that you might find when you're studying a society.
它倾向于生产过程，对吧？或者权力关系，这是你们在学习社会时可能会发现的。

02:19:58
The validation and so forth. What are the connections?
验证等等。它们之间有什么联系？

02:20:01
Of the people in the individual. What's the relationships with each other? Documents in the study of the documents in an archive are like the way we might study.
人的个体。它们之间的关系是什么？研究档案中的文件就像我们研究的方式一样。

02:20:10
Your rituals of possession and relics and so forth. And there's sites of contested knowledge. I think we've brought before that. What we're doing is we're looking at archaeology.
你的附身仪式和圣物等等。还有一些地方存在争议性知识。我想我们之前带过。我们所做的是研究考古学。

02:20:21
In the sense, right? We're looking at a place that, you know, we're looking at the history of the Odyssey, right? And we're looking at, is this part of Troy or not? You know.

在某种意义上，对吧？我们在看一个地方，你知道，我们在看奥德赛的历史，对吧？我们要看的是，这到底是不是特洛伊的一部分？你知道的。

02:20:32
Looking into schleman's archaeological dig and saying, huh, it looks like there's a contest about it, right? The artifacts, we're not sure. You know. Same thing with the document.
看着schleman的考古挖掘，然后说，嗯，看起来这是一场竞赛，对吧？藏物，我们不确定。你知道的。文档也是一样。

02:20:41
We're looking at as a site of knowledge, and these are relics to it. So that's also ethnography and anthropology.
我们把它看作一个知识遗址，这些是它的遗迹。这也是人种学和人类学。

02:20:49
And the opinions in the documents. The content of the documents can be looked at in the same way that we might look.
以及文件中的意见。文档的内容可以用和我们一样的方式来看待。

02:21:00
At the way there might be other cultural expressions of power, you know, something to look at the National Day Parade, you know, in.
可能还有其他文化表达力量的方式，你知道，可以看看国庆游行，你知道，在。

02:21:08
How is that ritual? How does that tell a narrative of Singapore? But also, how's it expression of power?
那是什么仪式？这是如何描述新加坡的呢？但是，它是如何表达权力的?

02:21:16
As an expression of community, ideas of what this community mean for Singapore. Who are they talking to this? It's like studying a procession.

You're taking these same sort of questions, but you're applying it.
作为一个社区的表达，这个社区对新加坡意味着什么。他们在跟谁说话？就像研究游行队伍一样。你在回答同样的问题，但你在应用它。

02:21:27
To the relationships with the documents. And so, so this is really taking antological method and applying it to just as well as the general site. And finally.
与文档的关系。所以，这是一种病理学方法并将其应用于一般的部位。最后。

02:21:36
Even looking at the ways in which, if you were to study a culture when we're studying, let's say.
甚至看看，如果你要研究一种文化当我们在学习的时候。

02:21:43
Um.
嗯。

02:21:45
We're studying Suborna culture and the conventions of that Suborna culture, you know, and its connections with the Islands and southern Philippines.
我们正在学习苏波尔纳文化和苏波尔纳文化的习俗，以及它与岛屿和菲律宾南部的联系。

02:21:56
Around it. We look at the way the terms are and the stories are the ways in which terms reflect both the sort of indigenous history, but also the connection of the Spanish.
围绕它。我们看看这些术语和故事的方式这些术语既反映了土著历史，也反映了西班牙人的联系。

02:22:06

By the way, the terms provide us with clues to that interaction. So too are the terms and categories that you find in an archive.
顺便说一下，这些术语为我们提供了相互作用的线索。你在存档中找到的术语和类别也是如此。

02:22:14
A way of thinking about these histories, and this.
一种思考这些历史的方式。

02:22:17
Relationships. So these are some of the ideas that I wanted to open on.
的关系。这就是我想要阐述的一些观点。

02:22:22
When it comes to what we think about ethnography, and then, of course, leading the questions, but reading along the grain, of course, what we talked about earlier already, about.
当谈到我们对民族志的看法时，然后，当然，引导问题，但是沿着思路阅读，当然，我们之前已经讨论过了。

02:22:31
I'm seeing what they do tell us about certain.
我在看它们告诉我们的。

02:22:35
Stories behind the doctors. And of course, she focuses on the emotions. But that might be other things. It could be other emotions. It could be.
医生背后的故事。当然，她关注的是情感。但这可能是其他的事情。也可能是其他情绪。有可能。

02:22:43
It actually doesn't have to be emotions. It could be other sorts of.
其实不一定非得是情绪。也可能是其他类型的。

02:22:46

Sort of the other sorts of dynamics.
这是另一种动力。

02:22:51
I have comments, better questions. What's total one historian to ask?
我有评论，有更好的问题。一个历史学家该问什么呢?

02:22:58
I think that Einston provides a more, I mean, model.
我认为爱因斯坦提供了一个，我的意思是，模型。

02:23:05
Prompt Visions top how historian can engage in writing history when go into a car. Because I think that she challenged the ideas of print against the grade. So see.
Prompt Visions展示了历史学家如何在进入汽车时从事历史写作。因为我认为她挑战了印刷的思想，反对分数。所以看到。

02:23:19
Suppose. Now, the argument C means that the archive is a site for competing, visions for competing, the government claims. So.
假设。现在，论点C意味着档案馆是一个竞争的网站，是一个竞争的愿景，政府声称。所以。

02:23:28
If the historians go into the archive with that assumptions mind, I think that this is very easy for historians to stand in one size and against another sign.
如果历史学家带着这样的假设进入档案，我认为历史学家很容易站在一个尺度上反对另一个标志。

02:23:39
E.G., like a case of john's Man, he brings questions. He writes the questions of writing the Autonomous History of Service Asia. And he proposed.

例：他就像得了绝症一样，老是提出问题。他撰写了撰写亚洲服务自治史的问题。他求婚了。

02:23:49
The idea that one can write history of sanitation agents through, even through the Colonials, but previous to the perspective.
人们可以写卫生机构的历史，甚至是在殖民地时期，但在此之前。

02:23:59
But if you're doing so, we just do, like, some history of this, some East Asian centric history. So there's many centric history in.
但是如果你要这样做的话，我们只需要做一些历史研究，一些以东亚为中心的历史研究。所以有很多中心历史。

02:24:08
That's important. It depends on your position, what sort of South Asian history are you writing for which vantage point.
这很重要。这取决于你所处的位置，你在写什么样的南亚历史。

02:24:17
Usually want to raise the questions. They want to provide us the more profitations. There is a mood. C Center.
通常都想提出问题。他们想给我们提供更多的利润。有一种情绪。C中心。

02:24:27
There's multicenter in writing history. So the better question is, yes, which side we we, which are going to be emphasizing, but which part we?
在写作历史上有多中心。所以更好的问题是，是的，我们要强调哪一面，哪一部分是我们?

02:24:38
How we want to describe, how we can put many perspectives togethers. I mean, read the accounts for it, it all said, not from any of the perspective here.
我们如何描述，我们如何将许多观点结合在一起。我的意思是，读一下它的

描述，它都说，不是从这里的任何角度。

02:24:48
I think so, I think it's really important to raise because, as you point out, she is, she's.
我想是的，我觉得这很重要，因为，正如你指出的，她是，她是。

02:24:54
Promoting, look, this is a way you could engage the sources. You know.
推广，看，这是一种你可以吸引信息源的方式。你知道的。

02:24:57
And at this stages, look at Colonial Society, because it's a way to sort of look at it.
在这个阶段，看看殖民社会，因为这是一种看待它的方式。

02:25:05
Whether or not that would satisfy folks who view a Southeast Asia as much more than Columbia Society, which is a.
这是否会让那些认为东南亚比哥伦比亚社会更重要的人满意，哥伦比亚社会是一个。

02:25:14
Fair argument. I mean, to me, it's also like saying, do we study Yema from the perspective of Yemengong?
公平的争论。我的意思是，对我来说，这也像是在说，我们是从叶门工的角度来研究叶马吗?

02:25:19
Only, you know, when 70 % of the population is outside of the city. That is a pretty skewed version of what for me.
只有当70%的人口都在城外的时候。对我来说，这是一个相当扭曲的版本。

02:25:27
Just is about, you know, or even contemporary film is about, right? But it is a way of engaging, right? And it's overall an invitation. It's a positive.

是关于，你知道，甚至是当代电影的，对吧？但这是一种吸引人的方式，对吧？总的来说，这是一个邀请。这是积极的。

02:25:38
I suppose a way of looking at it here is the way to sort of think about these sources in a way that went out before.
我想在这里看待它的一种方式是用一种以前的方式来思考这些来源。

02:25:44
You know, and the more we can find ways to engage, you know.
你知道，我们就越能找到参与的方式，你知道。

02:25:49
But also, it's a lot of creating reasons to interpret sources.
但同时，也有很多解释资料来源的理由。

02:25:55
I think there's more opportunities for writing.
我觉得写作的机会更多。

02:25:58
Interesting, maybe in creative mysteries, will be a bit old too.
有趣，也许在创造性的奥秘中，也会有点过时。

02:26:03
All right, guys. So next week.
好了，伙计们。下周。

02:26:10
We will. Oh, it's already week six.
我们会的。哦，已经是第六周了。

02:26:16
Look, I just also thought about it. We have one, I mean, weeks, next week, right? I also realized that.

听着，我也刚想过。我们还有一次，我是说，几周，下周，对吧？我也意识到了。

02:26:26
The 20, sixth. That's a Monday of October.
20号，6号。那是十月的一个星期一。

02:26:31
I'm not going to be around, so we have to figure out a way to.
我不会在你身边了，所以我们得想个办法。

02:26:36
To manage that. So we will not be moving here on the 20, sixth how we manage it.
要做到这点。所以我们不会在20号搬到这里，6号我们如何管理它。

02:26:48
We'll have to figure this out. You know, it might be, it's a week, it's a week Eleven. And I imagine you guys would be doing common essays and all sorts of Things.
我们得想办法解决。你知道，它可能是，这是一个星期，这是第11周。我想你们会做一些普通的文章和各种各样的事情。

02:26:57
That might be what you guys do. Okay, so just when it heads up 26, we will not be.
你们可能就是这么做的。好吧，当它上升到26的时候，我们就不会。

02:27:08
Yes.
