How many?

It's with stops.
它是有停顿的。

00:23
So, so.
所以,所以。

01:15
Do you want?
你想要吗?

I mean.
我的意思。

01:23
Having had some essence grasp.
有了一些本质的把握。

Scratch.
从零开始。

01:35
I always ask this question, but I always wonder.
我总是问这个问题，但我总是想知道。

01:40
How, how people approach this.
人们是如何处理这个问题的。

01:44
So this actually was, in some way, this is the sort of.
所以在某种程度上，这实际上是。

01:55
This is where this is a process of draft, actually, I'm trying to implement best practice for like writers.
这是一个起草的过程，实际上，我在尝试为作家实现最佳实践。

02:04
You bring in the idea of draft, you know, if the first one's crap doesn't that, you know, it's something to work. And so that says the Congo Essay. There's not a lot of writing on it.
你引入了草案的概念，如果第一个的垃圾没有，你知道，这是可行的。《刚果随笔》就是这么说的。上面没写多少字。

02:16
Because it's the development to the next one that is really working.
因为真正起作用的是下一个项目的发展。

02:21
Keys with the keys. And that is really what was keys. Because also, I would encourage you, if you haven't been doing it, so.
钥匙配钥匙。这才是关键所在。因为，我也会鼓励你，如果你还没有做过，所以。

02:28
So we're thinking about peer.
所以我们在考虑同伴。

I'm doing as well. The same with each other. You know, folks. So sometimes writing groups do that, otherwise others which ones have to work on their own. So it's up to you how you actually.
我也很好。彼此之间也是一样。你们知道的，伙计们。所以有时写作小组会

这样做，否则其他人就得自己做了。所以这取决于你如何。

02:40
But sorry, my voice has gone because.
抱歉，我的声音消失了，因为。

02:42
The hair, whatever it is. So.
头发，不管是什么。所以。

02:47
But if you go, I mean, there's also the sense to the always.
但如果你去，我的意思是，也有意义的总是。

想想其他报纸，做各种各样的事情。

02:58
But you guys also might need a little bit more.
但你们可能还需要一点。

03:00
What was he feeling?
他是什么感觉?

03:02
A little bit more time. So then, with turning it in, like another week, we start jumping first, then all week for the.
再多一点时间。然后，再过一周交作业，我们先开始跳，然后整个星期。

03:13
Well, I mean, in many ways, the feedback they're going to get from the individual.
嗯，我的意思是，在很多方面，他们将从个人那里得到反馈。

03:18
The individual pages are not going to be as comprehensive. What I'm looking for, basically is, are you guys giving content? You know?
单独的页面将不会是全面的。我要找的是，你们有没有提供内容？你知道吗？

03:26
And are you missing the stuff? And I've already looked through all them, and much what content you're going to get is probably.
你想念那些东西吗？我已经看过了所有的内容，你们将要得到的内容可能是。

03:32
Just a comment. You're doing fine, maybe flush this out a little bit more. And that's about it. So, I mean, I think at this level, you guys are already writing pretty well. so.
只是一个评论。你做得很好，也许你可以再把这事弄清楚一点。差不多就是这样了。我的意思是，我认为在这个水平上，你们已经写得很好了。所以。

03:42
Not really so much to the issue, but I did get.
不是很重要，但我确实得到了。

03:45
Which is not here.
这里没有。

03:48
I did get a sort of draft for every colleague.
我确实给每个同事都准备了一份草稿。

03:52
And I did go through it, you know. And that was she actually went through, and it's how.
我确实经历过，你知道的。这就是她的经历，这就是她的经历。

Did, how?
了,如何?

04:01
The Vietnamese. She did it differently. She organized hers thematically, and then put it on.
越南。她的做法不同。她按主题整理好自己的衣服，然后穿上。

04:11
Who's into it, as opposed to say, talking to about the author's saving order of reading, you can do whatever you want, you know. And for her, if you don't mind me, I hope she doesn't want to be Sharon.
谁喜欢它，而不是说，谈论作者的节省阅读顺序，你可以做任何你想做的。对她来说，如果你不介意的话，我希望她不想成为莎伦。

04:21
I just focused on certain aspects of her discussion how to.
我只关注了她讨论的某些方面如何。

04:26
Lead from one author to another, how that can happen more effectively.
从一个作者引导到另一个作者，如何更有效地做到这一点。

04:31
And, um.
,嗯。

04:33
You know, so that that's possible. But if you feel that, you'd like to get the rest of them a little brother.
所以这是可能的。但如果你有这种感觉，你会想给其余的人添个小弟弟。

04:39

The outcomes on the other articles. First, we can do that. I can do it. And maybe you guys want to submit like.
其他文章的结果。首先，我们可以这样做。我能做到。也许你们想提交。

04:46
Would everyone be upset if you guys submit it next week?
如果你们下周交，大家会不高兴吗?

04:54
You see money.
你看到的是钱。

04:54
So one of them.
其中之一。

04:57
I'm going to say Friday at the end of this week, but I'll give it to you Monday.
我想说这周末的时候是周五，但我会在周一给你。

05:00
So okay. Will that work? Will that work?
那么好吧。这能行吗？这能行吗?

05:09
That's okay. Anyway, he's going to combine.
没关系。不管怎样，他要进行组合。

05:22
You could talk all about silences. You could all talk about all about power. You could talk all about.
你可以谈论沉默。你们可以谈论所有关于权力的事情。你可以谈论所有的。

05:31

No.
否。

05:34
Constructed this a darker Those are three obvious things. What I'll be interested to you, if you guys can see anything more.
这是三件显而易见的事。我对你们感兴趣的是，如果你们能看到更多。

05:41
Actually. And that's the basic it's all in the lectures, really, right? And I'm pretty confident you guys can often hit it. And as I said for this version, this is a draft. and.
实际上。这是最基本的课程内容，对吧？我很有信心你们经常能做到。就像我说的，这个版本只是草稿。和。

05:53
Making. And so it's really just to get yourself writing and getting yourself just throwing it together, you know, just to get that draft out so that by the end of the Semester.
制作。所以这真的只是让你自己写，让你自己把它拼凑起来，你知道，只是为了在学期结束时把草稿拿出来。

06:04
You actually have something, you can already revise it, you actually have something more solid. That's good historical writing practice.
你实际上有一些东西，你已经可以修改它了，你实际上有一些更坚实的东西。这是很好的历史写作练习。

06:12
Draft. And that's why I'm sort of do it, making a sequential that's why I'm, like, throw things together, because, literally, that's, you've got to throw this, like.
汇票。这就是为什么我要这样做，做一个连续的这就是为什么我把东西放在一起，因为，字面上，你必须把这个扔出去，就像。

06:22
The writers often talk about just throwing out words, hoping it'll stick on the wall, just to get something out there to work with.
编剧们经常说，他们只是把一些词扔出来，希望它能贴在墙上，只是为了有一些东西可以用。

06:30
Right? So that's the sort of idea. But if you think about another week.
对吧?这就是我的想法。但如果你再考虑一周。

06:37
Be useful. I'm okay for that too.
是有用的。我也不介意。

06:44
Yes.
是。

06:46
I mean, that's basically what you would want to do to start off with. And one of the things that I also mentioned.
我的意思是，这基本上是你想要开始做的。我还提到了一件事。

06:56
Was when you go from one author to the next.
就是当你从一个作者换到另一个作者的时候。

07:02
You know, how do you keep it coherent? And one strategy, for instance, is like, maybe.
你知道，你是如何保持连贯的？比如说，一个策略是，也许。

07:09
You're ending the discussion at Yale by Talk.
你要用谈话结束耶鲁的讨论。

07:12
Talking about the constructed nature of archives, that they seem to be products of a certain context. Well, where does Truello is going to jump and say, okay, I'm going to start telling the story now Next.
谈到档案的建构性，它们似乎是特定环境的产物。那么，特鲁洛会在哪里跳出来说，好吧，我现在要开始讲故事了。

07:24
How would you link that in terms of your writing? Well, so where you might say a sentence, like where Yale talks about ABC and D Tulo talks about this, and.
你会如何将这些与你的写作联系起来？你可能会说一个句子，比如耶鲁谈论ABC D Tulo谈论这个。

07:34
Or brings up the same issue in terms of this. So you're creating, you know, a bridge between the past writer and this, and this is going to be important for your literature Review.
或者在这个方面提出了同样的问题。所以你要在过去的作家和现在的作家之间建立一座桥梁，这对你的文学评论很重要。

07:43
You know when you guys are constructings in your proposals, in your dissertation chapters, or ESS.
你们知道当你们在提案，论文章节，或者ESS中构建的时候。

07:50
It's really this type of writing technique, but it's also a conceptual technique. What are the bridges in terms of?
这确实是一种写作技巧，但它也是一种概念技巧。这些桥的意义是什么?

07:57
The themes or the ideas that link one author to the next. Another sorta content, another sort of interpretive.

将一个作者与下一个作者联系起来的主题或观点。另一种内容，另一种解释。

08:06
Practice that comes out of this too, is that it makes you sort of think about what is the author doing.
由此产生的练习是，它让你思考作者在做什么。

08:16
How are they using their examples to convey a particular type of point?
他们如何用他们的例子来传达一个特定类型的观点?

08:24
In other words, what are their historical examples, or what they're examples of what they archive? Or when we talk about trulo, we talk about where he's making reference to different forms.
换句话说，他们的历史例子是什么，或者他们所记录的例子是什么？或者当我们谈到trulo时，我们谈到他在哪里引用了不同的形式。

08:32
Of silencing. What is he What is all these examples doing for his arguments? So that's making sure you step back, almost like an engineer, and say, how is this part?
的沉默。这些例子对他的论证有什么帮助？所以这就是确保你退后一步，就像一个工程师，问，这个部分怎么样?

08:43
Working with this part? And how is this other part making this part? How is making the whole thing move right in the same way a writer and an interpreter?
使用这个部分？另一部分是怎么组成这一部分的？一个作家和一个口译员如何以同样的方式使整件事顺利进行?

08:52
You know, a text are just doing the same sort of thing. What you're basically looking at, or you're looking at authors and saying, how are their mechanics working? And what are they doing.

你知道，短信就是在做同样的事情。你基本上看的是什么，或者你看作者说，他们的机制是如何运作的？他们在做什么？

09:02
This is the construction of that argument, and that's where themes and linkages and approaches come up, and you realize, like it's holy God.
这就是论证的结构，这就是主题，联系和方法出现的地方，你意识到，就像神圣的上帝。

09:09
These guys are actually doing very similar things, even they're the writing generations apart, or this one's tweaking it a little bit. Another sort of analogy you can do. Does anyone have any music background.
这些人实际上在做非常相似的事情，即使他们的写作年代不同，或者这个人稍微调整了一下。你可以做另一种类比。有人有音乐背景吗?

Good.
好。

09:22
What can you play? Okay, yes. Piano. Fantastic.
你会玩什么？好吧,是的。钢琴。太棒了。

09:28
Anyone else this music?
还有人听这个音乐吗?

09:30
Because I am an equipment for everybody else.
因为我是其他人的工具。

09:33

Good example. I mean, when you're playing something, say, like Jazz class.
很好的例子。我是说，当你演奏的时候，比如说，爵士课。

09:38
Right? You can go to different cities and everyone's playing jazz, but each city, or Chicago or Tokyo or Paris, I played slightly differently.
对吧?你可以去不同的城市，每个人都在演奏爵士乐，但每个城市，芝加哥、东京或巴黎，我的演奏都略有不同。

09:46
They're all playing jazz, right? They might be all be playing the same key, maybe in the same song that everyone knows, but they're playing it in a different rhythm, or playing with a different.
他们都在演奏爵士乐，对吧？他们可能都在弹同样的调子，也许在同一首歌中，每个人都知道，但是他们用不同的节奏，或者用不同的方式演奏。

09:56
The key of adding a little bit citation or whatever, and that makes it a little bit different. Authors are doing the same thing. Every author you're reading to this class.
关键是要加一点引用之类的，这让它有点不同。作家们也在做同样的事情。你们在课堂上读的每一位作者的作品。

10:05
So it's actually, they're all playing jazz anyway, but they're doing it slightly differently.
实际上，他们都在演奏爵士乐，只是演奏方式略有不同。

10:10
And so what are, what are the main things that they are playing? And that's why I'm giving you guys the opportunity to flush out.
他们演奏的主要内容是什么？所以我才给你们个机会冲出去。

10:17

It could be, they're talking about power. It could be talking about.
可能是，他们在谈论权力。它可能是在谈论。

10:21
You know, right? The meaning of narratives. It could be about.
你知道的，对吧？叙述的意义。可能是。

10:28
About silencing, or voices, you know, so we talked about last week.
关于沉默，或者声音，我们上周讨论过。

10:34
Much Indonesian history and the way the Colonial Archive was being read and reread.
很多印尼历史和殖民档案都被反复阅读。

10:43
To focus on looking at the Europeans or Colonials or colonial.
把注意力集中在欧洲人，殖民者，殖民者身上。

10:48
Cities, but realizing that they're not just all the same, there's other.
城市，但意识到它们并不都一样，还有其他的。

10:53
Differences amongst these communities. Usually the critique would be like, oh, they're misreading the locals. They're misreading the colonies. That was the standard critique, but now the RFAS are being read.
这些群体之间的差异。通常批评会是，哦，他们误解了当地人。他们误读了殖民地。这是标准的批评，但现在RFAS正在被阅读。

11:05
No, but we're also realizing we're misreading the colonial communities as well. And so the argument that comes out of this is that.
不，但我们也意识到我们也误解了殖民社区。由此得出的结论是。

11:14
Of course, was also broader, of course, with the stoler, and was rose before it.
当然，也更宽，当然，与小偷，并在它之前升起。

11:19
Was that the state is so dominating, right?
这就是国家的主导地位，对吧?

11:22
The archives are products of the state or those in power. As for those the voiceless, we have to find their voices and to.
档案是国家或当权者的产物。对于那些没有发言权的人，我们必须找到他们的声音，并。

11:31
And to flesh out and bring them visibility, or bring out what was invisible, visible, these sorts of things.
然后充实他们，让他们可见，或者让那些不可见的，可见的，诸如此类的事情。

11:37
Of course, doreen lid lee's book. Now we're starting to look at different types of archives. We're looking at the Voiceless, the archivist, the Non State Archives.
当然，多琳盖了李的书。现在我们开始研究不同类型的档案。我们要找的是无声者，档案保管员，非国家档案馆。

11:47
Action. So if you were to add during these book to your convalessay, which I'm not.
行动。所以如果你要在你的康复报告中加上这些，我不会。

11:54

For you to do. That's the one way to sort of, position, if you said, well, all the other four, we're talking about the ways in which archives are products of state.
让你去做。这是一种方式，如果你说，其他四种方式，我们讨论的是档案是国家产物的方式。

Sensibility. State Anxiety. States Motion to Parliament.
感性。状态焦虑。国家向议会提出动议。

12:09
Here, why you got a sense of activists, you know, students use, you know, and where are their archives? Do they exist? And she's starting with you saying.
在这里，为什么你能感觉到积极分子，你知道，学生使用，你知道，他们的档案在哪里？它们存在吗？她一开始就说。

They do? Where are they? Mother depends on.
他们做了什么?他们在哪里？母亲依靠。

12:24
How and where you look and how you think about it. So what I described to you is a way of talking about all of these types of writings.
你怎么看，在哪里看，你怎么想。所以我向你们描述的是一种讨论所有这些类型作品的方式。

In a single, sort of.
在一个单一的。

的故事。

12:36
It's not going to always come to you guys the first time. And that's why you do it individually. After each book, you throw a combo thing together. Sometimes it's literally.
你们不会总是第一次就成功的。这就是为什么你要单独做。在每一本书之后，你会把连击组合在一起。有时是字面意思。

12:48
Put a pumping a conclusion and in an introduction, and that's it. You know, sometimes it's pumping a conclusion, an introduction, and then maybe tweaking the intro conclusion.
在结论和引言中加入一个抽风，就这样。你知道，有时它会引出一个结论，一个介绍，然后可能会调整介绍的结论。

13:00
Of each individual paper. Honestly, that's all I was expecting of, you know, is that sort of level tweaks. But you could be brave.
每个单独的纸。老实说，这就是我所期待的，你知道，就是那种关卡调整。但你可以勇敢一点。

And really reconstruct it to.
真正地重建它。

13:14
Sorry. I was using your draft as an example for everybody. Oh, it's your example. I didn't send you rap. Oh, who said you sent me a draft?
对不起。我用你的草稿作为大家的榜样。哦，这是你的榜样。我没有给你发说唱。谁说你给我寄了草稿?

13:24
Someone sent me a draft, okay, those are bits as a draft, right? But where you actually did four different themes in any.
有人给我寄了一份草稿，好吧，这些都是草稿，对吧？但是你实际上做了四个不同的主题。

13:35
Cluster the authors within those schemes. That's also kind of cool.
将作者聚集在这些方案中。这也很酷。

13:40
Depends on how you want to read it. How do you want to tell the story? So how do you, in a sense, present the work? It's really up to you, but at its very basic level.
这取决于你想怎么读。你想怎么讲这个故事？从某种意义上说，你是如何呈现你的作品的？这真的取决于你，但在最基本的层面上。

13:50
I didn't expect. I don't want to be too hard. I know middle semester's tough. And I just want to say, okay, throw it together. And we can say, we did a combo essay of.
我没想到。我不想太苛刻。我知道期中学期很难熬。我只想说，好吧，把它放在一起。我们可以说，我们做了一篇组合文章。

You know, 5000, whatever, I mean, 14 pages or whatever.
你知道，5000页，不管怎样，我是说，14页之类的。

14:03
Right? And then you can say, you've done that. But the real key is how it becomes the formation of the draft.
对吧?然后你可以说，你已经做到了。但真正的关键是它是如何形成草案的。

14:09
And it's also a method of how do we write when we read? When you are reading in other bad courses? How are you going to use these things that you read in your.
这也是我们在阅读时如何写作的一种方法？当你在阅读其他不好的课程时？你将如何使用你在你的。

14:18
Your courses to work for your literature reviews.
你的课程和你的文学评论。

14:21
If you're producing a research document, it's through this types of exercise.
如果你正在制作一份研究文件，它是通过这种类型的练习。

14:27
So actually, this is what we're doing, actually, is very, there's a functional purpose, as much as it's an interpretive concern.
所以实际上，这就是我们正在做的，实际上，有一个功能性的目的，就像它是一个解释性的关注一样。

14:37
Fly a little bit.
飞一点。

14:37
Absolutely. The whole point is precisely to emphasize the process, rather than final.
绝对的。整个要点恰恰是强调过程，而不是最终。

14:50
Final piece, it's supposed to be ugly. It's supposed to be just.
最后一块，它应该是丑陋的。它应该是公正的。

14:54
No supposed to be.
不应该是。

14:57
Fragmented, but it will be a connection, because the books are all basically talking about more or less the same thing. Otherwise, I'm not chosen these books.

支离破碎，但这将是一种联系，因为这些书基本上都在或多或少地谈论同样的事情。否则，我不会选择这些书。

15:08
You know, for the past, give me a second, guys, I haven't even gotten too much what I prepare for. You guys.
你们知道，在过去，给我点时间，伙计们，我甚至没有得到太多我准备的东西。你们。

Okay.
好吧。

15:14
Give me stuff here, but they should be. They'll be grilling you guys to see what you guys read.
给我点东西，但他们应该。他们会盘问你们看你们都读了些什么。

15:24
Actually what I had planned, to be honest, because I know I was a grad student once, and.
实际上我的计划，说实话，因为我知道我曾经是一个研究生，而且。

15:36
I notice you're what you guys are responsible for.
我注意到你们要对你们负责。

15:41
I was honestly just going to give you guys a brief introduction to the books, since we're also reading it for next week too.
老实说，我只是想给你们简单介绍一下这些书，因为我们下周也要读这些书。

15:48

And doesn't let you guys go. Although I did prepare questions, I always want to give you value for money when you come here.
而且不让你们走。虽然我确实准备了问题，但我总是希望你们来这里时物有所值。

15:54
These questions. Do you guys can I think, think about as you read the rest of the book?
这些问题。你们能不能在你们读剩下的书的时候思考一下?

16:01
But I think if you guys take the book and think about it and dialogue, especially with the.
但我觉得如果你们拿起这本书好好想想它和对话，尤其是和。

The previous book, with a stoller's.
前一本书，有一个斯托勒的。

16:12
I think you can see where.
我想你可以看到。

16:15
The question about the archives.
关于档案的问题。

16:19
And how we read them, and what archives mean.
以及我们如何解读它们，以及档案的意义。

16:22
Can be important. So you're going to see it just from the title. I'm asking you guys to see if you guys can pick what I'm getting. It just from the title.
可能很重要。所以你会从标题中看到它。我是想让你们看看能不能挑出我要

的。从标题就能看出来。

16:29
If I can get this.
如果我能得到这个。

16:33
Speeds of software.
软件的速度。

16:33
Do we have to write a separate?
我们要单独写一份吗?

16:44
Thank you for your protective, expensive, or just one, just one.
谢谢你的保护，昂贵的，还是只有一个，只有一个。

See this.
看到这个。

16:55
Um.
嗯。

17:05
I wasn't going to ask is, is essentially this? I mean, we've been talking about the role of state archives, or belief archives.
我不是要问，本质上是这样的吗？我的意思是，我们一直在讨论国家档案或信仰档案的作用。

17:16
As being.
作为。

17:17
In a way.
在某种程度上。

17:21
The defining relationship between knowledge and power that the challenge actually is, how do we compensate?
知识和权力之间的关系是真正的挑战，我们如何弥补?

17:31
For an archival record that is often produced by the state.
用于通常由国家制作的档案记录。

17:36
Does it by default mean that we need?
默认情况下是否意味着我们需要?

17:44
To counter the sources and the knowledge and the narratives that come out of those archives, or.
去反驳那些资料来源，知识和来自这些档案的叙述，或者。

17:55
Is it?
是吗?

17:55
Possible to think of other types of archives in a multi polar field.
在一个多极领域中，可能会想到其他类型的档案。

18:01
Where the state archives are alongside other forms of archives too.
国家档案馆也和其他形式的档案馆放在一起。

18:06
And in those archives.
在那些档案里。

18:08
Would they have? Silencing, silence in power also.
他们会这么做吗？沉默，沉默中也有力量。

18:14
So, for instance.
举个例子。

18:15
And I'm not trying to press or focus in any particular political position.
我并不是要强调或关注任何特定的政治立场。

18:22
But let's say an environmental group like.
但是我们假设一个环保组织。

Practice powerful.
强大的练习。

18:29
International transactions, part of the transaction.
国际交易，是交易的一部分。

18:36
Activist network.
维权网络。

18:37
It is pushing. It pushes up against.
它在推动。它向上推。

18:40
International corporations, governments, and so forth.
国际公司，政府等等。

18:45
Scholars have also pointed out, though, that they can also be very hedgemonic.
然而，学者们也指出，它们也可能是非常霸权的。

18:50
In the treatment of other activist groups or other groups or other sorts of stories. And they have their own sort of agenda.
在对待其他激进组织或其他团体或其他类型的故事时。他们有自己的议程。

19:00
And archive that can prevent from.
和档案，可以防止。

19:03
Present environmental issues also in a particular way.
目前的环境问题也以一种特殊的方式出现。

19:08
And so one wonders, then do we need to?
所以有人会问，我们需要这么做吗?

19:12
Diversify, traumatize, publicate this binary between state and other state.
多样化，创伤化，公开这种国家与其他国家之间的二元对立。

19:20
And that's what I think this. I'll start off with that because that's where I think this book invites us to think about, you know.
这就是我的想法。我将从这个开始，因为我认为这是这本书邀请我们思考的

地方。

19:28
Is that we also have archives of everyday people.
我们也有普通人的档案。

19:33
We have archives of anti, state groups. We have archives of.
我们有反政府组织的档案。我们有档案。

19:41
Competitors.
竞争对手。

19:43
And so so on and so forth. So this is why, in a way of title, this.
以此类推。这就是为什么，从标题的角度来看。

19:48
From the science and power of politics, of non state archives dreamed I think it's still important, actually.
从科学和政治的力量，非国家档案的梦想，我认为它仍然很重要，实际上。

19:55
Simulations. Simulation.
模拟。模拟。

19:58
But I'm talking about internationality.
但我说的是国际性。

20:07
American, indonesian, american.
美国人，印尼人，美国人。

20:11
I mean, okay, we need to verify, verify, verify.
我是说，好吧，我们需要核实，核实，再核实。

And she will not be an immition national.
而且她也不会是山寨国民。

20:25
She carries, she carries a.
她带着，她带着。

20:32
As position.
像的位置。

20:32
I didn't mean that. Thought that me. I just, for some reason, I thought she was saying, oh, I'm on.
我不是那个意思。我想。我只是，不知道为什么，我以为她在说，哦，我来了。

20:41
Fixing it up with somebody else. But the point is.
和别人和好了。但重点是。

20:43
She did some of her work here in Singapore.
她的一些工作是在新加坡完成的。

Certain classes use and access to education, and so on and so forth.
某些阶层的使用和接受教育的机会，等等。

21:26
Things to keep in mind, you know, as you read their stories. But what I thought it might be important was to actually put where her entry point comes in with the book by learning about background.
当你读他们的故事时，要记住的事情。但我认为重要的是，通过了解背景知识，把她的切入点放在书中。

21:35
Of sort of Indonesian twentieth century history, a very truncated version. You can do in about 10 min.
关于印尼20世纪的历史，一个非常简短的版本。你可以在10分钟内完成。

21:43
We started off here with Dutch, the Dutch column.
我们从荷兰开始，荷兰纵队。

21:48
When we read and solder's book. So we left up there. We actually entered the book down here, the references.
当我们阅读和焊接的书。所以我们离开了。我们实际上是在这里输入了参考书。

21:57
There's a lot of crap that happens in between. Okay. And so I thought it might be important to sort of think about, you know, what's happening in between here.
在这期间会发生很多乱七八糟的事。好吧。所以我觉得有必要思考一下，在这两者之间发生了什么。

22:05
You have, of course, during World War Two, or you've got the Japanese period where independence activists, you could argue.
当然，在第二次世界大战期间，或者在日本独立运动时期，你可以说。

22:15

Nationalists were declared independence under Japanese tutors. Now, depending on your.
民族主义者在日本人的指导下宣布独立。现在，取决于你的。

22:21
Which historians you're writing and what time you're writing, you might call these guys, you know, national here.
你写的是哪个历史学家，你写的是什么时间，你可以把这些人称为国家历史学家。

22:28
Unless you might call them something else later, down down the road, which is exactly what happens in invasion.
除非你以后可能会叫它们别的名字，这正是入侵中发生的事情。

22:33
Indonesian history. This is actually a similar set of history to other nations around Southeast Asia.
印尼历史。实际上，这与东南亚其他国家的历史相似。

22:39
Two at the time. And this is important because, as you might read later in the book, there is an attempt by young actors.
当时是两个人。这很重要，因为，正如你在书的后面可能会读到的，年轻的演员在尝试。

22:49
What is the argument we need to make a connection to earlier activists?
我们需要什么论据来把早期的激进分子联系起来?

22:56
So that you want to player.
所以你想玩。

22:57

It's actually harming.
它实际上是有害的。

23:00
That's also the.
这也是。

23:02
Intention.
意图。

23:04
During two actually say, to look at this entire history as a.
期间实际上说，把这整个历史看作是。

23:12
As a sort of history of activism.
作为一种行动主义的历史。

23:13
As well. So she's projecting that into the past, a sort of way of reading the system. The Japanese of first get defeated, but like in Vietnam, like in the Philippines, like in Burma.
也。所以她把它投射到过去，一种解读体制的方式。日本人首先被打败了，就像在越南，菲律宾，缅甸一样。

23:26
The Europeans come back with all very different intentions. The Dutch come back with a full intention to start it up again.
欧洲人带着完全不同的意图回来了。荷兰队带着重新开始的决心回来了。

23:34
Just as the French wanted to do in Vietnam, the Americans as well, and the British give less stomach form, perhaps.
就像法国人想在越南做的那样，美国人和英国人也想这样做。

23:44
In British Berlin, because the resistance of British firm is pretty strong. So what it ensues is what's been called the revolution, which was, in many ways a civil war.
在英属柏林，因为英国公司的阻力非常大。所以随之而来的是所谓的革命，从很多方面来说，这是一场内战。

23:55
Amongst which direction of the country, which people were going to take.
国家的哪个方向，人们会选择哪个方向。

23:58
We're going to be lying with the Dutch. Was it going to be independent? Was it going to be theocracy? Was it going to be more economic ideals as part of the Future.
我们要和荷兰人躺在一起。它是独立的吗？会是神权政治吗？它是否会成为未来经济理想的一部分。

24:07
Democratic and common is going to be a part of it. This is identical story, which is about every part of Southeast Asia. And so it's a really brutal and a difficult Time.
民主和共同将是其中的一部分。这是一个相同的故事，东南亚的每个地方都是如此。所以这是一段非常残酷和艰难的时期。

24:17
With also wartime rivalries coming out and going after each other.
战争时期的竞争对手也出现了，互相攻击。

24:23
Every country, just about Southeast Asia.
每个国家，包括东南亚。

24:27

I just curious all asking you to say these questions.
我只是好奇大家问这些问题。

24:30
Who are we whatever? What governance to somewhere are we going to adopt? Who's going to lead us? Who, you know?
我们到底是谁？我们将在某个地方采用什么样的治理？谁来领导我们？你认识谁？

24:38
What's our future going to be? You know, what are our principles? What are our ideals? And most of Southeast Asia, I would argue.
我们的未来会是什么样子？我们的原则是什么？我们的理想是什么？我认为东南亚大部分地区也是如此。

24:45
Struggled with this. Some were able to get past so that others weren't. And so if you were able to take my history of Southeast Asia, we would make the actually argument. We're seeing a lot of these same.
为此挣扎。一些人能通过，而另一些人不能。所以如果你能把我讲的东南亚历史，我们就能得出这样的结论。我们看到很多类似的情况。

24:55
Conversations happening, even today about.
即使在今天，人们也在谈论。

24:59
This sort of transition from colonial rule to.
这种从殖民统治到。

25:02
This new thing we started to call the nation City.
这个我们称之为国家城的新东西。

25:06

At the remnants of this civil war.
内战的残余。

25:11
Economy.
经济。

25:13
Emerges as effective leader, where he institutes constitutional democracy, and later, because it created.
成为一个有效的领导人，在那里他建立了宪政民主，后来，因为它创造了。

25:23
It was clear that a sort of parliamentary form of democracy wasn't going to work with all this factionalism based.
很明显，一种议会制的民主形式在这种派系斗争的基础上是行不通的。

25:30
So we sort of a centralized poem called it Guided Democracy.
所以我们写了一首集中的诗，叫做引导民主。

25:33
Because nothing was going to get you done. And this period, of course, has also been looked back by 20 first century activists.
因为你什么都做不了。当然，这一时期也被20世纪的激进分子回顾。

25:43
Historians and scholars to be seen as a period of growing authoritarian, you know, and.
历史学家和学者认为这是一个独裁主义盛行的时期。

25:49
And there's some truth to that. If you're looking through that prism, of course.
这是有一定道理的。当然，如果你从这个角度看问题的话。

25:54
What emerged, though, because of the country was starting to implode the factionism and fighting, and why?
然而，由于这个国家开始爆发派系主义和战斗，出现了什么，为什么呢?

26:03
Stories, especially between more left folks, communist socialists, who had a vision for the country that was.
故事，尤其是左派人士，共产主义社会主义者之间的故事，他们对这个国家有一个愿景。

26:11
Framed by those ideals and those charters and those models, as opposed to those who are much more market oriented.
被那些理想、那些章程和那些模式所框定，而不是那些更以市场为导向的人。

26:20
We're looking from Western models, you have these clashes going on.
我们从西方的模式来看，这些冲突正在发生。

26:25
And Sucarno started shifting his allegiance more to the left to placate the common.
苏加诺开始将他的忠诚转向左翼，以安抚普通民众。

26:34
Even though he was often playing both sides in a very South Asian. Either way.
尽管他经常在一个非常南亚的地区扮演双方的角色。无论哪种方式。

26:39
If I comes along.
如果我出现。

26:44
And there's this which I'll give to a little bit more different.
还有这个，我要讲得稍微不同一点。

26:49
In the next slide, but you have the rise of one of his generals, who steps in and takes over power.
在下一张幻灯片中，你可以看到他的一位将军的崛起，他介入并接管了权力。

26:56
Institutes, a period of much more concentrated, centralized, authoritarian rule run by the military, which, incidentally, is happening.
这是一个更加集中，集权，独裁统治的时期，由军队统治，顺便说一句，这正在发生。

27:06
Around the same time as the Philippines and the Marcos around the same time in Vietnam.
差不多和菲律宾和越南的马科斯家族在同一时间。

27:12
As well, and also definitely in Pakistan, and Burma and other Pakistan as well, and other Pakistan.
当然也包括巴基斯坦、缅甸和巴基斯坦其他地区。

27:21
Southeast Asia, also later on, south Korea, E.G., and Taiwan, right to some extent, too. So it's really, quite interesting, because there's, during the Cold War.
东南亚，后来还有韩国，美国和台湾，在某种程度上也是如此。所以这真的很有趣，因为在冷战期间。

27:33

You have the shift towards a form of governance that's heavily.
你已经转向了一种治理形式，这种形式非常。

Heavily oriented towards military governments, why they were primarily the rivals against communist governments.
严重倾向于军事政府，为什么他们主要是共产主义政府的对手。

27:48
And so for Western governments, that was okay. It might have been a liberal, but at the time, well, it's okay. We'll support it. It's also happened in South Africa.
所以对于西方政府来说，这是可以接受的。也许是自由派，但在当时，还好。我们会支持的。这也发生在南非。

27:56
I'm sorry, south America as well. These types of governments are at the time.
对不起，南美也一样。这些类型的政府在当时。

28:02
Considered respectable. But after the end of the Cold War, then things started to change. Those types of governments were no longer tall.
认为是受人尊敬的。但冷战结束后，情况开始发生变化。这种类型的政府不再高大。

28:11
Or feasible for Western liberals of democratic countries.
或者对民主国家的西方自由主义者可行。

28:16
And so one by one.
一个接一个。

28:18

Support for these types of countries, which they enjoyed during the Cold War, started to go.
冷战时期对这类国家的支持开始减少。

28:24
So many of these leaders that were supported by the West, frankly, they got their funding and support by poll, and they all fell because of Democratic.
坦白地说，西方支持的许多领导人，他们是通过民意调查获得资金和支持的，他们都因为民主党而下台。

28:34
Uprisings and so forth. I'm very cynical when it comes to business. I don't believe.
起义等等。一谈到生意，我就很愤世嫉俗。我不相信。

28:38
Because that would get, I do think it was.
因为那样的话，我确实觉得。

28:40
On funding extremes. And this is where you have also the trade of the amass.
在资金极端方面。这就是你要做的买卖。

28:47
Rising of students and societies against this other attention have it. And yet it's a wave of democracies, so they're emerging across the world.
学生和社会的崛起反对这种其他关注。然而，这是一波民主浪潮，它们正在世界各地出现。

28:56
Not only in Asia, in places like South Korea, philippines, member People Power in 1987, it's like, wow, what's happening here?
不仅在亚洲，在韩国、菲律宾等地，1987年人民力量的成员，就像，哇，这

里发生了什么?

29:04
What was happening is funding streams and national defense projects and so forth were being pulled. But there was also a new generation of students who.
当时的情况是资金流和国防项目等都被取消了。但也有新一代的学生。

29:14
We're coming in a new generation of folks who perhaps were imagining and using a new language of the future that they were India.
我们迎来了新一代的人，他们可能在想象和使用一种未来的新语言，他们是印度人。

And so.
所以。

29:24
There's a little bit of all these things. And this is where she comes in with her book.
这些东西都有一点。这就是她带着她的书进来的地方。

Now, the old order, a little bit more detail. You know about this.
现在，旧的秩序，更多的细节。你知道的。

And this just so that what you read becomes maybe more.
这样你读到的就会变得。

29:39
In the context. So, so Carna was his first president. He was like the equivalent of an Elsa in Burma.
在上下文中。卡纳是他的第一任总统。他就像是缅甸的艾尔莎。

I hope you men in Vietnam, you know, these were all the leaders that come out of World War Two.
我希望你们这些在越南的人，你们知道，这些都是二战后的领导人。

And so, as I mentioned, experience of Parliament, or democracy, and then what later he calls guide democracy, which was his tempted to.
因此，正如我所提到的，议会的经验，或民主，以及后来他所说的指导民主，这是他想要。

Balance, very different types of skills. They call you a lot of different.
平衡，非常不同类型的技能。他们叫你很多不同的。

30:09
Groups and have very different ideas about the future of innovation. Might be, what models to you, what principles, what type of economy centralized or more open?
不同的群体对未来的创新有着不同的看法。对你来说，什么模式，什么原则，什么类型的经济是集中的还是更开放的?

You know, because, you know, centralized economy after being, it's, you know, in a sense, made vulnerable by a colonial economy Indonesia.
你知道，因为中央集权经济，在某种意义上，在印尼的殖民经济下变得脆弱。

30:25
Vietnam and Vima, all were struggling with the idea of opening up their economy to the market again, because that's precisely how they got colonized. And so a lot of them shift Towards.
越南和越南，都在为再次向市场开放经济的想法而挣扎，因为这正是他们被殖民的原因。所以他们中的很多人转向。

Towards a more centralized government, and.
走向一个更加中央集权的政府。

30:39
So Carno would also, and other leaders would also push forward as a.
所以卡诺和其他领导人也会作为。

30:44
I'll talk about moving later, this idea of a non alignment movement, so they won't get caught between power struggles, between.
我稍后会谈到移动，不结盟运动的概念，这样他们就不会陷入权力斗争，之间。

You know, the Soviet block, although, because of internal domestic regions, it appears to be leaning more towards the.
你知道，苏联集团，尽管由于内部地区的原因，它似乎更倾向于。

30:58
The Soviets. And then, of course, we have the 30 service of who, who is the word of who.
苏联。然后，当然，我们有谁的30服务，谁是谁的词。

31:04
Where six generals were.
那里有六位将军。

31:08
Allegedly.
据说。

31:13
So.

所以。

31:13
Estimated, which triggered a mass of anti, communist urge.
估计，这引发了大规模的反共冲动。

And 65.
和65年。

31:19
Which, of course, was supported by the West on this. There's a movie that I'm watching as a kid that came up with.
当然，在这个问题上得到了西方的支持。这是我小时候看的一部电影。

31:28
A very young Mel Gibson, who must be very old to you guys. He's probably diseased his name, but he's an Australian actor.
很年轻的梅尔·吉布森，对你们来说一定很老了。他的名字可能是假的，但他是澳大利亚演员。

31:36
Who came to promise that he's nice, but he had, there's a movie called The Year of Living Dangerously. It's about 65. What was going on in 65?
他向我保证他是个好人，但有部电影叫《危险生活之年》。大约是65。65年发生了什么?

It's a good movie.
这是一部好电影。

31:47
To watch, except that I remember my dad telling me, and I'm only like, seven years old, he's like, do you realize my dream that the US Army is the one?

看，除了我记得我爸爸告诉我，我只有七岁，他说，你意识到我的梦想了吗，美国军队是唯一的?

31:56
Supporting the Army here. That's killing all those guys that you're very scared of. Them like, that's too much for me as seven years old, you know. But.
支持这里的军队。这会杀死所有你害怕的人。他们说，这对我这个七岁的孩子来说太过分了。但是。

My point is, is that no matter what sort of political side you are, this was a very traumatic period. This is.
我想说的是，无论你站在哪一边，这都是一个非常痛苦的时期。这是。

32:13
Even so in Indonesian studies today, 65 period.
即使在今天的印尼研究中也是如此，65年。

And those who were associated that.
那些与之相关的人。

32:21
Was is still very much a traumatic memory and memory politics and memory scholarship.
这在很大程度上仍然是一个创伤性的记忆，记忆政治和记忆学术。

32:31
Is very much still looking at 65. What's interesting was that there was this famous set of papers that discovered the US involvement in 60.
仍然是65岁。有趣的是，有一组著名的论文发现了美国在1960年的介入。

Five, and it's by a bunch of grad students about your ages, all Cornell.

五岁，是一群和你年龄相仿的研究生写的，都是康奈尔大学的。

32:45
And they discovered it. They discovered the papers, they discovered some intelligent papers, and then they wrote something very secretly out to expose the user's connection.
他们发现了。他们发现了这些论文，他们发现了一些聪明的论文，然后他们秘密地写了一些东西来暴露用户的联系。

32:55
To this just shows that, you know.
这就说明了，你知道。

32:58
Phd grad students. You guys can still belong. Great stuff. They were able to define this stuff.
博士研究生。你们还是有归属感的。伟大的东西。他们能够定义这些东西。

33:05
Anyway, we'll also short 66.
不管怎样，我们也要做空66。

33:08
Power is transferred to General Soharto, who takes over and establishes what's called the New Order.
权力转移到苏哈托将军手中，他接手并建立了所谓的新秩序。

33:15
Here, he shifts foreign policy to lie south in the West. He welcomes foreign agent UCD, US tech knowledge, called, sort of Berkeley mafia, technocrats, well trained. They come over.
在这里，他将外交政策转向了西方的南方。他欢迎外国特工UCD，美国技术知识，被称为伯克利黑手党，技术官僚，训练有素。他们过来了。

And help, you know, basically create a.
帮助，你知道，基本上是创建一个。

33:33
Sort of new governmental system.
一种新的政府体系。

33:35
Military is used both in terms of governance and in civic affairs.
军事既用于治理，也用于公民事务。

33:42
So it was hardly democratic in that sense. That was the.
所以从这个意义上说，这很难说是民主的。那是。

Measure.
衡量。

33:49
The state was including very much.
国家包罗万象。

33:51
To social life sensor, it says, press labor. But it's happened at the same time. It's happened in Philippines.
对于社会生活传感器，它说，压力劳动。但这是同时发生的。这发生在菲律宾。

To.
出现。

33:59
So short, 99 Seven Crisis Pressures on the Asian Economy. Mass Protest hits A fiction of students.

34:07
Start taking to the streets, and it's here where we start to come into.
开始走上街头，这是我们开始进入。

34:14
Talk about doing these.
谈谈做这些。

34:15
She's looking at in many ways.
她从很多方面看问题。

34:21
The story of the social movements in Indonesia between 66 and 88, but also looking at it through contemporary activists.
这本书讲述了1966年至1988年间印尼社会运动的故事，同时也通过当代活动家的视角来审视它。

And their stories, their aspects of life, their domains of what she calls domains of activism.
他们的故事，他们生活的方方面面，他们的领域，她称之为行动主义的领域。

34:39
And she uses these contemporary authors to create an understanding of how history is understood.
她用这些当代作家来创造一种理解历史的方式。

34:49
Through a history of this report, these activists.
通过这份报告的历史，这些活动家。

34:53
And so she really looks at the history and context for reference.
所以她真的会参考历史和背景。

34:57
Here, the begins in 1998, and she looks at different types of sources.
这是从1998年开始的，她看了不同类型的资料来源。

35:03
To make an argument of a longer history of the movement that because what contemporary folks will say is that refermacity just sort of emerges out of nothing in 98 after this crisis? But she actually said, no, actually.
对这一运动的更长的历史进行论证因为当代人会说参照是在98年危机之后凭空出现的？但她实际上说，不，实际上。

There is an earlier history of.
有一个更早的历史。

35:19
Active even during the time of the Order of the Military.
甚至在军事勋章时期也很活跃。

35:23
Also in power, that there are three.
还在掌权的，那有三个。

Basis of this.
以此为基础。

35:26
And you could connect these systems so that 1998 doesn't come out of nothing. It comes out of.

你可以把这些系统连接起来，这样1998年就不会凭空出现。它来自。

And earlier.
早些时候,。

35:35
A network of intellectuals and actors.
知识分子和演员的网络。

And she looks at the role and repercussions, you know, of.
她关注的是角色和影响，你知道的。

35:45
Of what activism is or political action is in Indonesia.
什么是激进主义或者印尼的政治行动。

35:51
Asia, especially for students. And she looks at the ways in which activism, in some ways, comes to define.
亚洲，尤其是对学生来说。她研究了行动主义，在某种程度上，是如何定义的。

36:00
The student. Being a student and being activist, in some ways, starts to overlap for many.
学生。在某些方面，对许多人来说，成为一名学生和成为一名活动家开始重叠。

36:07
Committee there, and she claims and says that allows books, that creates a role that students have.
委员会，她声称允许书籍，这创造了学生的角色。

36:15
In representing a big representatives and medias of indonesia's transition to democracy. In other words.
代表着印尼向民主过渡的重要代表和媒体。换句话说。

36:23
The she's even looking at the ways in which activism gives a sense of the definition of what a student is, but also that students in general.
她甚至在研究激进主义如何定义学生，以及一般的学生。

36:35
Are, in a sense, custodians of this transition to marketing and a role that students in.
从某种意义上说，他们是市场营销转型的管理者，也是学生的角色。

And Burma.
和缅甸。

36:46
To some set in filmings, I would argue.
我想说的是，在拍摄过程中。

36:48
Um.
嗯。

36:49
And I don't know the most recent, which I'm sort of thinking about comparing to the most recent milk tea, live stuff that happened.
我不知道最近的，我想比较一下最近的奶茶，发生的事情。

36:58
The last couple of years in Thailand and Hong Kong and Taiwan, that there's a sense of connectivity, of activism, which is interesting if you think about what we.

在过去的几年里，在泰国，香港和台湾，有一种联系的感觉，一种行动主义，这很有趣，如果你想想我们。

37:08
Um, that we.
嗯，我们。

37:11
Talk about some of the previous work, about when we think about the.
谈谈之前的一些工作，当我们想到。

37:18
Reconstruction of history. We tend to be looking at state actors here, where we're looking at folks that are outside of the state, right?
重建历史。我们倾向于关注州行为者，我们关注的是州外的人，对吧?

37:27
It's really interesting. But yet they have archives too. But she creates what she defines archives in a really creative way, which is something you guys can do if you guys are Struggling.
这真的很有趣。但是他们也有档案。但她以一种非常有创意的方式创造了她对档案的定义，这是你们在挣扎时可以做的事情。

37:37
And to say, get into an archive because it's closed, so the files are closed, or you can't get a visa, right?
说，进入档案馆是因为它是关闭的，所以档案是关闭的，或者你不能获得签证，对吗?

37:44
Some of these ways of doing it, which I ethropological, I think will give you some.
其中一些方法，我是人类学的，我想会给你们一些。

37:50
Or doing historical work. So she starts to focus on the life worlds of.
或者做历史研究。于是她开始关注生活世界。

37:57
Activists and the political implications of being young, which is kind of interesting the way she puts it. I mean, she's one of these writers that she's like the thought.
积极分子和年轻的政治含义，她说的方式很有趣。我是说，她是那种作家，她就像那种想法。

38:05
Obviously right at this all the time. I sometimes, honestly have to take that chunk of what they said and then put it into like Google.
显然他一直都是对的。有时候，老实说，我不得不把他们说的那一大块，然后把它写成b谷歌。

38:12
Translate to figure out what I could actually mean. But, but the point is here that what she's trying to say is that to be young, actually, there's a politics to it.
翻译一下我的意思。但是，这里的重点是她想说的是，实际上，年轻是有政治的。

38:22
Or some class expectations. You know, I'm not going to put my individual colleagues on spot and as them if they feel any disorder. But I tell you, in yama.
或者一些阶级期望。你知道，我不会让我的个别同事在现场，如果他们感到任何混乱。但我告诉你，在yama。

There is the sort of thing, you know, for, for the.
有一种东西，你知道，对于，对于。

38:35
Graduate students who have recently graduated, who see themselves as part of civic society and so forth. It's almost something that they're sort of expected to perform.
刚毕业的研究生，他们认为自己是公民社会的一部分等等。这几乎是他们被期望去做的事情。

38:44
You know, both within the country and definitely in the country.
你知道，无论是在国内还是在国内。

38:47
School here. Oh, you must be part of the sole dissonance movement, or something like that.
学校在这里。哦，你一定是唯一不和谐音运动的一部分，或者类似的东西。

38:53
Because there's a lot of this going on, right? But then there's also, as I would imagine, folks who are not involved, you know. And so this is where this might be a line of critique.
因为有很多这样的事情发生，对吧？但是，正如我想象的那样，也有一些人没有参与其中。所以这可能是一种批判。

Of the reason it's worth it. Can figure.
这是值得的。能算。

39:05
Two, but so she traces youth culture through different forms.
两个，所以她通过不同的形式来追溯青年文化。

Of of.
的。

39:11
Their life. So like an anthropology, looks at what do people do, what they use, and so forth.
他们的生活。就像人类学一样，研究人们做什么，用什么，等等。

39:15
But she also looks, in a sense, though, at their archives. And of course, how she defines archives is different from the classic sense that we've been.
但从某种意义上说，她也看了他们的档案。当然，她对档案的定义不同于我们一直以来的传统观念。

39:23
And ultimately, she asks how and why social movements and tutor.
最后，她问社会运动和导师如何以及为什么。

39:30
And she does it. And in terms of the students' lives and the sense of history, she examines how students position themselves in the religion history.
她照做了。在学生的生活和历史感方面，她考察了学生如何在宗教史中定位自己。

39:38
And this is kind of interesting, you know, because when we're thinking about history, I did this intentionally. We're always talking about the Socanos and Suhatos, the elites, men and so forth.
这很有趣，因为当我们思考历史的时候，我是有意这么做的。我们总是在谈论Socanos和Suhatos，精英，男人等等。

39:49
Here she's looking at folks on the ground, you know, folks everyday. Folks.
在这里，她看着地上的人们，你知道，每天的人们。人。

39:53

And, but she actually suggests that there is a definite positioning of.
但是她实际上提出有一个明确的定位。

Themselves that they allow themselves to maybe or make reference to who they are with previous generations of students.
他们允许自己可能或参考他们是谁与前几代学生。

40:07
As student activists or previous causes or previous campaigns or issues, and in that way, bridge.
作为学生积极分子或以前的事业或以前的运动或问题，以这种方式，桥梁。

40:15
Who they are with before. So I'm thinking about joseph's now, and I know it's particular same thing, but the way, perhaps activists today.
他们以前和谁在一起。所以我现在在想约瑟夫的事，我知道这是一件特别的事情，但是，也许今天的激进分子。

40:26
Saying, you know, the Philippines, you know, maybe thinking about people power, you know. Or maybe more recently, to avoid few recent movements.
说，你知道，菲律宾，你知道，也许考虑到人民的力量。或者是最近，为了避免最近的变动。

40:34
And in doing so, they become more legitimate, actually, right? They say, we are doing this in the same way. And so they.
这样一来，他们就变得更合法了，对吧？他们说，我们用的是同样的方法。所以他们。

40:42
Seven berries are doing the same way as doing in 88 you know, or how readers might say, you know?

7个浆果的表现和88个浆果的表现是一样的你知道，或者读者可能会说，你知道吗?

Right now in the make reference to the activism of the Nelson Mandela.
现在在提到纳尔逊·曼德拉的激进主义。

40:56
And don't, you know, or the Civil Rights Movement in America, you know, for race run.
不要，你知道，或者美国的民权运动，你知道，为了赛跑。

41:04
Or race equality or whatever, making, how they position themselves in in terms of.
或者种族平等之类的，他们如何定位自己。

41:11
Student movements in the way she suggests that they are positioning themselves in history. And so how students produce and are granted a historical right.
她认为学生运动是在历史中定位自己。学生是如何创作并被赋予历史权利的。

41:21
Is in a quote to national's contents and a globalized claim to new decisions. How do students that way put themselves into that position, but how people look at them in that way too.
是在引用国家的内容和全球化的要求，以新的决定。学生们是如何把自己放在那个位置上的，还有人们是如何看待他们的。

41:32
Which is interesting, because if you think about the history of some countries.
这很有趣，因为如果你想想一些国家的历史。

41:38
Students are often seen as being very tricky.
学生通常被认为很狡猾。

41:43
You know, because they're worried about, you know, because after the sixties, you know, there were a lot of students and movements around the world and so forth.
你知道，因为他们担心，你知道，因为60年代以后，你知道，世界各地有很多学生和运动等等。

41:52
You know, it's like in 68, like people were protesting, oh, for all different reasons, right? And so forth. Countries got nervous about.
你知道，就像在68年，人们在抗议，哦，因为各种各样的原因，对吧？等等。各国对此感到紧张。

You know, as you want to read.
你知道，当你想读的时候。

42:03
And protest.
和抗议。

42:05
Other people to do it. So she explores street politics and student activism. But what's, I think interesting with it, makes it connects us, is that this connects us to ways of.
其他人去做。因此，她探索街头政治和学生行动主义。但我认为有趣的是，它把我们联系在一起，是它把我们和。

42:16
Thinking about this, a different type of looking at history, the use of this.

想想这个，从另一个角度看历史，它的使用。

42:21
So Lee looks at what after this make.
所以李研究了这个制作之后的情况。

42:26
The knowledge that they produce.
他们创造的知识。

So just a colonial officials produce a certain type of way of thinking.
所以只是一个殖民官员产生了一种特定的思维方式。

About such Indonesia.
关于这样的印尼。

42:34
Eraser.
橡皮擦。

42:36
She's looking at.
她在看。

42:38
Students and activists for the knowledge that they produce. And so what that already is doing now is not only is it trying to balance the silences that may not come up here in state.
学生和活动家为他们提供的知识。因此，它现在所做的不仅仅是试图平衡可能不会在这里出现的沉默。

42:50
And states archives. She's also suggesting, in some ways, you know, too, that, you know, it's just not the state that produces knowledge.

还有州档案。她也在暗示，在某种程度上，你也知道，不是国家产生知识。

42:59
I don't think she goes further and then critiques them, though. That's where I think the book Principle.
我不认为她会走得更远，然后批评他们。这就是我对《原理》一书的看法。

43:05
Sure she doesn't apply the same sort of critique that Anne Stoler of Colombia governments. I think you still make the same sort of critique.
当然，她不会像哥伦比亚政府的安妮·斯托勒（Anne Stoler）那样进行批评。我认为你仍然在做同样的批判。

43:14
About these, but she exact. She looks at activist domains, looking at things.
关于这些，但她确实。她关注激进分子的领域，关注事物。

43:19
It's like I can just features that this will just.
就像我可以用特征来表示。

43:22
Do a recognising.
做一个识别。

43:31
Slim.
苗条。

43:32
A lot of these guys are like, in punk rock. I don't understand punk rocker. At a colleague in my institute at the Age Research Institute.
很多人都喜欢朋克摇滚。我不懂朋克摇滚。我在老年研究所的一个同事。

43:40
He became a scholar. Of course, he was a pump rocker before. And then he got into like, activism, or something like.
他成了一名学者。当然，他以前是摇杆手。然后他进入了激进主义之类的领域。

43:46
Pump rock, pump rock, you know, around the world was, you know, pushing up against the establishment, you know.
泵摇滚，泵摇滚，你知道，在世界各地，你知道，反对建制，你知道。

43:54
Transcending conventional norms, and it became adopted as almost a language, as a way of life, as an identity to.
它超越了传统规范，几乎成为一种语言，一种生活方式，一种身份。

44:01
To declare a sense of where you were in society. And it might have been political, but it might have been those things too. Not every bunk rocker was an activist.
来表明你在社会中的地位。这可能是政治原因，但也可能是其他原因。并不是每个睡床的人都是激进分子。

44:11
In another way, after this was mostly on rocker, there seems to be a lot of rocks in the media or action this. So, anyway, so looking at T shirts, the production of T shirts you'll see in the.
换句话说，在这主要是在摇滚之后，似乎有很多摇滚在媒体上或行动。不管怎样，看看T恤，T恤的生产你们会看到。

44:21
But chapters. There's others that were looking at their texts and the text messages, magazines, paper clippings and so forth, looking at the relationships of these documents.

但章。还有一些人在看他们的文本和短信，杂志，剪报等等，看这些文件之间的关系。

44:31
Convince in the production to understandings of not just activism, and refermacy, this reference.
在作品中说服人们不仅要理解行动主义，还要理解参考，这种参考。

44:39
Of Asia Revolution.
亚洲革命。

44:41
But also of this connection to pass movements. And she uses activist stories as memory.
而且这种联系也与传递动作有关。她用激进分子的故事作为记忆。

44:48
Which, of course, is right. But what's interesting is that these are personal memories. These are memories of what they remember, or what they think they remember of earlier movements.
这当然是对的。但有趣的是，这些都是个人记忆。这些是他们记得的记忆，或者他们认为他们记得的早期运动。

44:58
Before, I did only about this. And that, in a sense, what she's saying, it's just different politics that, in that sense, they become embodied.
以前，我只做过这个。从某种意义上说，她所说的，只是不同的政治，从这个意义上说，他们被具体化了。

45:08
Archives, right? Actually, I think that's my life.
档案,对吧?事实上，我认为这就是我的生活。

45:11

And their actions become part of that long history.
他们的行为成为这段漫长历史的一部分。

45:14
You'll get it once you start to get into it.
一旦你开始投入，你就会明白的。

45:18
So chapter one focuses on the missing years of activism in the 1980s, 19.
所以第一章关注的是20世纪80年代，19世纪的激进主义缺失年代。

45:24
Nineties, I think that would be most relevant, perhaps some of the other conversations of the other books.
九十年代，我认为这是最相关的，也许是其他书中的其他对话。

45:29
An issue basic arguments that shows that activism exists in the 1980s, during the New World era.
一个基本的论点表明激进主义存在于20世纪80年代，在新世界时代。

45:35
In which conventional scholars don't think about they don't always think that actors are really coming in. Mentioned at the end of the New Order.
传统学者没有考虑到他们并不总是认为演员是真正参与进来的。在《新秩序》结尾提到。

She looks at pamphlets, newsletters, correspondences, these documents, newspaper clippings. There's an example the type of historical work that you might do, and it doesn't happen. You don't have to do it if you're looking at you don't have to be looking at activism to be doing that. You can be looking at these sort of.
她看小册子，通讯，信件，这些文件，剪报。举个例子，你可能会做一些历史研究，但这并没有发生。你不需要这么做，如果你看你不需要看激进主义

就可以这么做。你可以看看这些。

45:56
These traces of different documents, even if you're constructing Cold War history, you know, or any history, you know, singapore history, whatever, what was, you know, I know, this makes a bit at the Library.
这些不同文献的痕迹，即使你正在构建冷战历史，或者任何历史，你知道，新加坡历史，无论什么，这是什么，你知道，我知道，这对图书馆来说有点意义。

46:06
National Library. Years ago, three years ago, I looked at advertisements, you know, and how.
国家图书馆。几年前，三年前，我看广告，你知道，我是怎么看的。

46:12
That reveals something about the social life, or Singapore documents can be found all over the place, or sources can be found that say something.
这揭示了社会生活的一些东西，或者到处都可以找到新加坡的文件，或者可以找到一些资料。

46:23
In the past, like you're digging things out like an archaeologist, right? So you're digging without.
在过去，你像考古学家一样把东西挖出来，对吧？所以你在挖。

46:28
Places that are not necessarily an official.
地方不一定是官方的。

46:31
State are cap, which means, of course, then, that these things are.
州是上限，这意味着，当然，这些东西是。

46:36

Part of a different kind of archive, something that you make. He said, the interviews begin in the morning version of the archives in some ways because they're containing memories too.
这是另一种档案的一部分，是你制作的东西。他说，从某种程度上说，采访是从档案的早晨版本开始的，因为它们也包含了记忆。

46:48
But according to what we started in the first in the second week, the Indian version that humans tends to have different versions of memories, like.
但是根据我们在第二周开始的第一节课，印度的版本人类倾向于有不同版本的记忆，比如。

46:59
When you go on the course of the next few years, then the memory is kind of clicks and change according to your recent experiences. So can we say that the archives of them varied a completely responsible.
当你在接下来的几年里，你的记忆会随着你最近的经历而改变。所以我们可以说，他们的档案变化是完全负责任的。

47:10
Well, I think I think that's what she's also saying, is that that.
我想我想这就是她想说的，是不是。

47:15
If the archive doesn't say, still, right.
如果档案里没写，仍然是。

47:19
It's looked at differently. It's also looked at differently from the outside, but even from the inside. You know, different generations of archivists, curators.
人们对它的看法不同。从外部看它也不同，但从内部看也是如此。不同年代的档案管理员，馆长。

You know, clerks and women running them may change, access may change categories. So archives are always always changing. So.
你知道，管理他们的职员和妇女可能会改变，访问权限可能会改变类别。所以档案总是在不断变化。所以。

47:39
The fluidity of archives that we've read as well, might allude to this as well. I mean, this is really an extreme.
我们读过的档案的流动性，可能也暗示了这一点。我的意思是，这真的是一个极端。

47:46
Education about that, and I think that 95 % of us.
这方面的教育，我认为95%的人。

47:54
Working in our department, probably won't go around as well, but it does open the mind of the possibility.
在我们部门工作，可能不会很顺利，但它确实打开了一种可能性的思维。

47:59
This type of documents, type of sources that can engage.
这种类型的文件，这种类型的资源可以参与。

48:05
What are we doing?
我们在做什么?

48:06
I think perhaps the most.
我想可能是最重要的。

48:09
The most, perhaps inspirational side of this book is that.
这本书最鼓舞人心的一面是。

48:17
It invites us to think about.
它让我们思考。

48:20
Younger communities in our societies as potential historical actors. They're often not, you know.
我们社会中的年轻群体作为潜在的历史角色。你知道，他们通常不是。

48:30
She definitely looks at this sort of group to think about. She also talks about this aspect of paper.
她肯定会考虑这类群体。她还谈到了纸的这一方面。

48:37
The technique of paper, the producing, photographing, circulating, the hiding, preserving, destroying of documents. These are all political practices. So just as we say that art, hiving is a.
纸的技术，生产，拍摄，流通，隐藏，保存，销毁文件。这些都是政治手段。所以就像我们说的艺术一样，生活是一种。

48:49
Practice of power, right by the fact that we designate categories. It's produced in certain ways, go through certain processes to get into the archive. She looks at the practices of these activists and students.
权力的实践，通过我们指定类别的事实。它以特定的方式产生，经过特定的过程进入档案。她研究了这些活动人士和学生的做法。

49:01
And the way they handle their documents as a way of sort of saying, okay, this is part of their process of archive.
他们处理文件的方式就像是在说，好吧，这是他们存档过程的一部分。

49:08

Which is really quite interesting. And of course, it's all over the place because they're not very linked and not always.
这真的很有趣。当然，到处都是，因为它们不是很有联系，也不是总是如此。

49:14
Coherence, but she creates an intellectual space for engaging.
连贯性，但她为参与创造了一个智力空间。

49:20
Types of documents. And that I think is really critical, you know, because when you just part of the business, when you think about it, what academic work is sort of creating things to make.
文档的类型。我认为这是非常重要的，因为当你只是商业的一部分时，当你思考它时，学术工作就是创造东西。

49:31
These things work well, sort of you're going to find when you're doing your field worker to say like, oh man, what do I do with?
这些东西很有效，你会发现当你在做现场工作的时候，你会说，哦，天哪，我该怎么办?

49:37
These sources. Part of your task is to create a sort of system analysis for it if one doesn't exist.
这些来源。你的部分任务是创建一种系统分析，如果它不存在的话。

49:45
You know, and that's what that becomes.
你知道，这就是它变成的样子。

49:47
Of a, a? a, a?

49:48
A contribution to scholarship in that way, if you are able to create a rationale that's intellectually supported for engaging these types of disparities.
这是对学术的贡献，如果你能创造一个理论基础，在智力上支持研究这些差异。

49:59
Types of sources. Some might say, well, then that's not very scientific. Well, I would say history is humanities. I'm not saying it's a scientific it's not physics.
源的类型。有些人可能会说，那就不太科学了。嗯，我会说历史是人文学科。我不是说这是科学，不是物理。

50:10
Definitely not. And I think that's where.
绝对不会。我想这就是原因。

50:13
The interesting part of doing history.
研究历史的有趣部分。

50:17
So she looks at documents as evidence of circulation, of how a pamphlet might start off, you know, as.
所以她把文件看作是流通的证据，一本小册子是如何开始的。

50:26
Survive, you know, and end up, you know, I don't know. May not.
幸存下来，你知道，最后，你知道，我不知道。可能不会。

50:30
You know, that says, wow, this. So it's not just about the document and what it says. It's a, it's a fact that it was produced in the survey. It ends up.
你知道，它说，哇，这个。所以这不仅仅是关于文件和它所说的。这是调查

中产生的事实。它最终。

50:41
Okay.
好吧。

50:42
This shows how activists and students and these doctors create networks, establish group activities.
这展示了活动家，学生和这些医生是如何建立网络，建立团体活动的。

50:50
We should be paying attention to social life documents.
我们应该关注社会生活文件。

50:54
Rather than as sources of information.
而不是作为信息来源。

51:00
So it's always some interesting way to think about that sort.
这是一种很有趣的思考方式。

51:03
She also thinks about in these early chapters, activists organized as dispersed and complete and unstable.
她还认为在这些早期章节中，积极分子组织起来是分散的，完整的，不稳定的。

51:13
Or sometimes documents disappear, reproduce, move between places and people.
或者有时文件会消失，复制，在地方和人之间移动。

51:17

That's just the nature of certain societies, certain groups of folks. So the traditional historians going to look at this and say, what?
这就是某些社会、某些人群的本质。所以传统的历史学家会看到这些然后说，什么？

51:27
What is this? This is craziness. I can't write about it, but she's actually giving, from her anthropological perspective of ways to do it.
这是什么？这太疯狂了。我不能把它写下来，但她实际上从人类学的角度给出了一些方法。

51:34
It's essentially, she's saying, this is, this is their archive. And I think about it in a way that we think about.
本质上，她说，这是他们的档案。我用我们思考的方式来思考。

51:42
The digital know that.
数码人知道这一点。

51:45
Where do they belong? They're moving all over the world. They're archived their archives, their laptop, on their phone or whatever, right? Their archives are cloud probably.
它们属于哪里？他们在世界各地移动。他们存档了他们的档案，他们的笔记本电脑，他们的手机等等，对吧？他们的档案可能是云。

51:55
As they move around, they're able to do their work all over. And I think this is starting to embrace mobility studies also.
当他们四处走动时，他们可以在所有地方工作。我认为这也开始纳入流动性研究。

52:04
And not only are people moving and experiences of.

不仅是人们的移动和经历。

52:08
And just writing the mobility. But knowledge is also now being moving.
只写迁移率。但知识现在也在移动。

52:14
And very fragment types of ways they're supposed to in one place in the capital Center, with the archive, with the documentary, you know, department and so forth.
它们本来应该集中在首都中心的一个地方，和档案馆，纪录片，部门等等一起。

52:25
What we're seeing now is a very different type of history.
我们现在看到的是一段非常不同的历史。

52:29
She also raises, and this is where I think something else that you might want to talk about, I'll think about too, is she talks about absence. And that is something, of course, that comes out.
她还提出了，我认为你们可能想要讨论的另一个问题，我也会考虑，她谈到了缺席。当然，这是可以得到的结果。

52:40
Earlier as well, just on the previous point. So basically the instability of the archive, she's constructed it. That's kind of the feature, not the bug, right? That's, it's very interesting. I Mean.
在前面的点上。所以基本上档案的不稳定性，是她一手造成的。这是一种特性，而不是缺陷，对吧？这非常有趣。我的意思。

52:54
It's a.
这是一个。

52:57
Feature.
特征。

52:57
You know, of the authors that she was dealing with and sources.
她所接触的作者和资料来源。

53:04
Could be, you know.
可能吧，你知道。

53:10
A way of traumatizing what we actually think about as as.
这是一种创伤性的方式，我们实际上认为是。

53:16
As archives in general, it could be suggested that this classic notion of what an archive is is a fixed place and fixed types of documents and classified.
作为一般的档案，我们可以认为档案的经典概念是一个固定的地方，固定的文件类型和分类。

53:28
And so forth. She's showing a very decentralized version.
等等。她展示了一个非常分散的版本。

53:31
Kathy, ask me that question next week. Again, I think it's a good one. It's a good one. And.
凯西，下周再问我那个问题。再说一次，我认为这是一个很好的例子。这是个好主意。和。

53:42
Is it feature rather than the bug? Do you know the expression?

是特性而不是bug？你知道这个表达吗？

53:49
Sorry, I used to work into X or Sly. Hold up that sort of slang.
抱歉，我以前在X或希尔手下工作。别再说那种黑话了。

53:57
So that's, I mean, okay, honestly, I was just kind of winning it by talking about the digital numbers. Just sort of just click that this is products, what she's talking about, Because.
所以，我的意思是，好吧，老实说，我只是通过谈论数字数字而赢得了它。只要点击这就是产品，她在说什么，因为。

54:07
Because writing at a time when mobility is really becoming a thing, you know, and we're starting to develop ways of thinking about.
因为写作是在一个流动性变得越来越重要的时代，你知道，我们开始发展思考的方式。

But.
但是。

54:17
And so in that sense, the book itself is very much a product of.
所以从这个意义上说，这本书本身就是。

54:22
Early 20, first century.
20世纪初。

54:23
Scholarly, I think, too, you know, because it's a product of this knowledge. I mean, no one could write, no, I don't know. I don't think anyone would write about this.

我认为这也是学术性的，因为这是知识的产物。我是说，没人会写字，不，我不知道。我觉得没人会写这个。

54:34
Two decades before that. You know.
再往前20年。你知道的。

54:37
When people are texting, we don't have smartphones and so forth.
当人们发短信的时候，我们没有智能手机等等。

54:41
Okay. So I had a bunch of discussion questions for you guys all, but you guys could just think about.
好吧。我给你们准备了一堆讨论问题，你们可以自己思考。

54:48
At your leisure. I'm not going to ask you guys to think about it now.
有空的时候。我不会让你们现在考虑这个问题。

54:55
And as I promised that the beginning of class, partly because I care about you guys.
正如我在课程开始时承诺的，部分原因是我关心你们。

55:03
I'm also thinking also selfishly about myself, if I'm slightly out of the Web.
我也在自私地考虑我自己，如果我有点脱离网络的话。

55:07
That's going to be all for tonight, if you.
今晚就到这里了，如果你。

55:13
Don't mind. I'm sorry. You can just came all the way over here just for this.

But if it does give you some time to.
不介意。我很抱歉。你可以大老远跑来就为了这个。但如果能给你点时间。

55:21
Think about your essay, which I will gladly accept next week. Give you more time.
考虑一下你的文章，下周我会很乐意接受的。给你更多的时间。

55:29
Sharing work with each other. It's something that we do in professional writing.
互相分享工作。这是我们在专业写作中所做的事情。

55:36
Please go ahead and do it. If some of you want to offer me drafts, I will do.
请继续做吧。如果你们中有人想给我草稿，我愿意。

55:41
My best to give you guys.
我要给你们最好的。

55:42
So we'll cut it short. I've been honest, I was actually thinking about saying, let's just not have, I don't have to ask you, we're going to read, but I know it's you guys.
我们就长话短说吧。我很诚实，我其实在想说，让我们不要，我不需要问你，我们要读，但我知道是你们。

56:01
I already had a week off. You're dying this evening. I thought, but I'm sure if I could do my job. But I thought, well.
我已经放了一周假了。你今晚会死的。我想过，但我确定如果我能做好我的工作。但我想，好吧。

56:08

Put it close and get some rats catch up, put your articles together, or put your ethics again.
把它放近一点，让一些老鼠赶上来，把你的文章放在一起，或者把你的道德规范再放一次。

56:15
And I did my best to finish up. On the other short for you, just to give me some.
我尽了最大的努力完成比赛。另一个是给你的，只是给我一些。

56:23
And sense of where you are.
以及你所处位置的感觉。

56:25
But I looked at them. I mean, I looked at them every time. Yes, it said a bit the little kids in the exam myself, I don't really see any wrong question.
但我看着他们。我是说，我每次都看着他们。是的，它说了一点小孩子在考试我自己，我真的没有看到任何错误的问题。

Oh, the slide. I just put them up. This need to be reminded.
哦，滑梯。我只是把它们放上去。这一点需要提醒。

56:42
So send me an email to.
所以给我发邮件。

57:11
I don't say, I can barely hear you guys. I'm so clogged up right now. I think it's because.
别说了，我几乎听不见你们的声音。我现在太忙了。我想是因为。

57:15
It's because it's the haze, but also, it's because.

因为这是雾霾，但也因为。

57:22
Last Friday, I was in.
上周五，我在家。

57:24
3 H away from Serabaya, and each Java and Tubula do.
离西拉巴亚3小时，爪哇岛和土布拉岛各1小时。

Which was amazing. I've seen that.
这太神奇了。我见过。

Super.
超级。

57:38
Really.
真的。

57:42
And then just one day later, after the Superfund means.
然后仅仅一天之后，在超级基金意味着。

57:46
I just got my guess today. So.
我今天只是猜了猜。所以。

57:50
While trying to read your essays and all this other stuff. I think the haze is everywhere. It's in the Philippines is everywhere, so I think I'm really allergic to that stuff. So anyway.
一边读你的论文和其他东西。我认为雾霾无处不在。它在菲律宾到处都是，

所以我想我真的对那种东西过敏。所以不管怎样。

57:59
But anyway, have some dinner. Have an early night. We'll catch up next week.
不管怎样，吃点晚饭吧。晚上早点睡。我们下周再叙叙旧。

58:03
Then we'll have a more discussion of the book. Okay.
然后我们会对这本书进行更多的讨论。好吧。
